OBITUARIES

Katherine Brodsky

Nationally ranked squash player was on the Brown Varsity team

PROVIDENCE — Katherine Brodsky, 18, of Brooklyn, N.Y., a Brown University freshman and nationally ranked squash player, died Tuesday night after suffering an apparent allergic reaction while eating in an East Side restaurant.

Dr. William Q. Sturner, chief state medical examiner, said she died shortly after admission to Miriam Hospital. Sturner said a cause of death would await several weeks of tests, but he said he had ruled out the possibility that there was anything wrong with what Miss Brodsky had eaten.

Miss Brodsky, who lived at 24 Monroe Place, Brooklyn, was born in Boston, a daughter of David and Barbara (Banks) Brodsky of Brooklyn. Her paternal grandparents, Irving and Naomi Brodsky, live in Providence. She also leaves a brother, Peter Brodsky of Brooklyn.

Miss Brodsky was a member of the Brown Varsity squash team. The Kate Brodsky Scholarship Fund has been established in her memory; contributions can be mailed to Brown University, Box 1877, Providence 02912.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at noon in Riverside Memorial Chapel, 180 W. 76th St., New York City. Burial will be in Westchester Hill Cemetery.

BRODSKY,

Katherine
