

MAX BRODSKY

73, of Trimtown Road,

North Scituate, who died Wednesday in Miami, Florida, after a three day illness, were held the following day at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Florence (Salk) Brodsky, he was born in Russia, a son of the late Isaac and Anna (Botvin) Brodsky. He had been a North Scituate resident for more than 30 years. He was vacationing in Florida when he became ill.

Mr. Brodsky was the founder in 1926 and the owner and operator of Eastern Scientific Company on Plain Street.

Mr. Brodsky was a member of Congregation Shaare Zedek-Sons of Abraham, the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, the Jewish Home for the Aged, past president of the Providence Hebrew Day School, founder of the New England Technion Association, a member of the Rotarians of Providence, Roosevelt Lodge, No. 42, F&AM, and was a 1921 graduate of the Rhode Island College of Pharmacy.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, David L. Brodsky of Providence and Elliott J. Brodsky of East Greenwich; a daughter, Deena Liffman of Cranston; two sisters, Goldie Bellin of Providence, and Fannie Korn of Warwick, and eight grandchildren.

BRODSKY, MAX