

BRODSKY, MELVYN

9-22-15

91

EAST PROVIDENCE

BRODSKY, MELVYN H.

93, passed away peacefully at Orchard View Manor in East Providence on Tuesday, Sept 22, 2015. Formally of Cranston, RI, Rehoboth, MA, Fall River, MA, and Somerset, MA, Melvyn will be missed by many and remembered always. He is survived by his son, Drew Brodsky, and his wife, June, of Osterville, MA, his step-daughter, Tracy LeRoux, and her husband, Michael, of Barrington, RI, his two loving granddaughters, Abigail Brodsky and Mia LeRoux and his long-time friend, Bianca Maiello, of Providence, RI. He was born in Toledo, OH, a son of the late Benjamin and Ella (Zundell) Brodsky, father of the late Mark Brodsky and dear brother of the late Sanford Brodsky, a retired Mass state police officer. Melvyn was a World War II veteran serving as a pilot in the Army Air Forces. He was a Master Mason and a Shriner. Melvyn was in the automobile business for over 50 years and truly loved his customers, cars and the business. He will be remembered also for his love of golf. He was a charter member of Fall River Country Club and Crestwood Country Club and played on many local courses every chance he had. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Mass Vest-a-Dog, PO Box 48, Walpole, MA 02081. Shiva will be at 24 Sea Robin Rd., Osterville, MA, Sunday Sept 27th from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. Funeral services were private. For online condolences, please visit

ShalomMemorialChapel.com.