

OBITUARY

C The Evening Bulletin, Friday, July 22, 1977

Aaron Bromson

CRANSTON — Aaron Bromson, 84, of 32 Kearsarge Drive, died yesterday in the Summit Medical Center, Providence. He was the husband of Bessie (Darman) Bromson.

Mr. Bromson retired in 1973 after 12 years with the Providence Better Business Bureau. Earlier, for about 35 years, he was an agent for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

He served on the board of Temple Beth Israel and its Men's Club. He was a member of Providence Post, Jewish War Veterans, a charter member of Hope Lodge, B'nai B'rith, and a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association. He was a life member of the Businessmen's Club of the YMCA and a member of Metropolitan's Retired Veterans Association.

During World War I he served in Europe with the Army and received the Purple Heart.

He was born Feb. 6, 1893, in Providence, a son of the late Meyer and Betsy (Weisman) Bromson.

Besides his wife, survivors are two sons, Burton Bromson of Tarrytown, N.Y., and Bruce Bromson of Mechanicsburg, Pa.; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Rosenfeld of Alexandria, Va.; two brothers, David and Norman Bromson, both of Providence, and nine grandchildren.

A funeral service was to be held at noon today in Temple Beth Israel, Niagara Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

BROMSON, Aaron