ALDERMAN BROMSON'S MOTHER DEAD AT 69

Mrs. Betsey Bromson, mother of Alderman Sol S. Bromson, and wife of Meyer J. Bromson, died this morning at her home, 53 Doyle avenue, in her 70th year. Death was the result of a shock. She was one of the first Jewish women settlers in Providence, coming here 55 years ago from Russia. Her father, Zelig Weisman, was one of the first Jewish rabbis in this city.

Mrs. Bromson was one of the founders of the Ladies' Union Aid Association and the Rhode Island Jewish Home for the Aged. She had been active for years in Jewish charitable work.

Besides her husband and son, Alderman Bromson, she leaves five other sons, Louis A., Aaron, William H., Norman and David Bromson; three daughters, Belle Bromson, Mrs. Lillian P. Meyer of New London, and Mrs. Mae Kavolsky, of Fall River, and two brothers, Thomas Weisman and Mordecai Weisman, both of New York.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from her late home. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

BROMSON—In this city, March 24, 1934, Betsey, wife of Meyer Bromson. Funeral services to which relatives and friends are invited, will be held from her late residence, 53 Doyle avenue, Sunday, March 25, at 11 a. m. Please omit flowers.

BROMSON,
Betsey
