

Obituaries

Fannie G. Brown

WARWICK — Mrs. Fannie G. Brown, 90, died today at the Pawtuxet Village Nursing Home, 270 Post Rd. She was the widow of Dr. Charles C. Brown, a past president of Temple Beth-El, Providence.

She was born in Providence, a daughter of the late Louis M. and Mary D. (Newman) Grant, and lived there more than 85 years before moving to Warwick five years ago.

Mrs. Brown was a graduate of the former Bryant & Stratton College. She was one of the oldest living members of Temple Beth-El, and a graduate of its religious school. She served four terms as president and was a life member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association. She wrote a history of the hospital, was a life member of the hospital board of trustees.

Mrs. Brown was an honorary life member of Temple Beth-El Sisterhood's board of directors. Over the years, she was well-known as the installing officer for many organizations. She was known for her talent as a poet.

In her later years, she taught herself to paint. She also was talented in producing beaded glass flowers and crocheted articles and donated her works to raise funds for charitable causes.

Mrs. Brown was a member of the Pioneer Women, Hadassah and the National Council of Jewish Women.

She is survived by a daughter, Barbara C. Brown of Warwick; a son, Howard G. Brown of Providence, two grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Her funeral service will be held Friday at noon in the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Interment will be in the Temple Beth-El Cemetery, Providence.

BROWN, FANNIE G