

MARTIN L. BUCKLER, 67, of 181 Duxbury Court, died Thursday at the Philip Hulitar Hospice In-Patient Center, Providence. He and his late father were proprietors of the former Westminster Furniture Co. in Pawtucket for 30 years. He was the husband of Elaine (Botvin) Buckler.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Barney and Ida (Glantz) Buckler, he had been a resident of Warwick for four years, previously living in West Warwick, Pawtucket, Cranston, Huntington Beach, Calif., and Lake Worth, Fla. He had spent most of his early life in Providence.

Mr. Buckler attended Bryant College. He served in the Coast Guard during World War II where, among other duties, he was a bugler. For many years he was a representative for Burlington Industries, a furniture manufacturing company. He was a member of Redwood Lodge F&AM, the Palestine Shrine and the Wethersfield Commons Poker Club.

Besides his wife he is survived by two daughters, Susan Buckler of Woodstock, N.Y., and Patti Garriepy of Sunnyvale, Calif.; a son, Steven Buckler of East Greenwich; a sister, Evelyn Sheffres of Wellfleet, Mass., and six grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
