

Morris L. Budnick

NATICK, Mass. — Morris L. Budnick, 83, an engineer for the federal government for many years before retiring, died yesterday at East Bay Manor in East Providence. He was the husband of Ida (Tinter) Budnick.

Born in Lawrence, Mass., he was a son of the late Esrael and Fannie (Marcus) Budnick. He had lived in Natick for 36 years before coming to East Bay Manor two weeks ago.

Mr. Budnick also had been a teacher and athletic coach in Chelmsford, Mass.

He was a graduate of Tufts University.

He was a member of Temple Israel, where he served on the temple building committee.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Alfred S. Budnick of East Greenwich and Robert Budnick of Danbury, Conn.; a daughter, Linda Budnick of Woburn, Mass.; two sisters, Ida Karp of Lowell, Mass., and Mary Goldberg of Chestnut Hill, Mass., and four grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Joseph Budnick.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 2:45 p.m. at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.
