

BUSCEMI,
ETHEL

ETHEL SCHEIN BUSCEMI, 70, of Taunton, Mass., a retired human resources and purchasing manager, died Aug. 2 at New England Sinai Hospital, Stoughton, Mass., from Lou Gehrig's Disease.

She was a lifelong Taunton resident.

She began her 30-year career at Harodite Finishing Co., North Dighton, as a receptionist and eventually became the purchasing manager and head of the human resources department.

She was believed to be the first female president of the Taunton Management Club and was involved with many charitable organizations. She was the librarian of Congregation Agudath Achim, Taunton.

She was involved with clinical drug trials for Lou Gehrig's disease at Massachusetts General Hospital.

She leaves a son, Michael D. Buscemi in Florida; a daughter, Ellen Ratcliffe of Easton, Mass.; two sisters, Ruth Maniloff of Orlando, Fla., and Lillian Bayer of Taunton; and five brothers, Irving Schein of Waltham, Mass., Leo Schein of Norfolk, Va., Edward Schein of North Haledon, N.J., Harold Schein of Providence and Arnold Schein of Brockton, Mass.

The funeral was held in Congregation Agudath Achim, Taunton. Burial was in Mount Nebo Cemetery, Taunton.

955 8/20/2000