LAURA (CHAKRIN) CABLE, 50, of 235 Fourth St., a clinical social worker, died Wednesday at home after an illness.

She was the wife of Robert Cable. Born in New York City, a daughter of the late Aaron and Toby (Sirota) Chakrin, she had lived in Pawtucket before moving to Providence.

Mrs. Cable had worked at Butler Hospital for 10 years before starting a private counseling practice in 1992, and was a member of the National Association of Social Workers.

She had published articles for professional magazines, and also contributed chapters in several textbooks.

A 1975 graduate of Union College, she received a master's degree in social work from Simmons College in 1980.

Mrs. Cable was a member of Temple Emanu-El, was active in developing its youth program, and chaired its Youth Commission for several years.

She was a founding member of the Rhode Island chapter of Second Generation, an organization for children of Holocaust Survivors.

She completed the Danskin Triathlon for breast-cancer survivors, and was an accomplished poet.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Anna Cable, and a son, Adam Cable, both of Providence; and two brothers, Michael Chakrin of Long Island, N.Y., and Robert Chakrin of Sacramento, Calif.

The funeral service will be held today at 10 a.m. in Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
