

East Providence

ANNE CARLETON, 84, of 12 Bay Cedar Court, Royal Palm Beach, Fla., a retired Providence teacher and a summer resident of East Providence, died Monday at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Harry Carleton.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late William and Ida (Fogel) Troberman, she lived in Florida for 10 years. She previously lived in Rehoboth, Mass., and Providence.

Mrs. Carleton was a graduate of the former Rhode Island College of Education, now Rhode Island College. She was awarded the John Hay Fellowship at Bennington College, Vermont. She taught in the Providence school system at Mount Pleasant and Hope High Schools for 25 years. She was a member of the Rhode Island Teachers Association, Temple Emanu-El, its Sisterhood, the Garden Club of Rehoboth, and Hadassah.

She leaves a son, Dr. William Carleton of Sudbury, Mass.; a brother, Harold Troberman of San Antonio, Texas, and two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
