Harry Carleton, antiques dealer

ROYAL PALM BEACH, Fla. — Harry Carleton, 77, of 12 Bay Cedar Court, the owner and operator of Harry Carleton's Antiques in East Providence for 35 years before retiring eight years ago, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital, Providence. He was the husband of Anne (Troberman) Carleton.

Born in St. John's, New Brunswick, Canada, a son of the late David and Anna (Lampert) Carleton, he had lived in Royal Palm Beach for 10 years while maintaining a summer home in East Providence. He previously had lived in the Providence area for 28 years and in Rehoboth, Mass., for 13.

Mr. Carleton had been in the antique business in Boston for a number of years. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El, the Redwood Lodge F & A M and the Palestine

Shrine.

He was a member of the Jewish Home for Aged.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Dr. William Carleton of Sudbury, Mass.; a sister, Sarah Carleton of East Providence; a brother, Henry Carleton of Lima, Ohio and two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
