

North Smithfield

MAXWELL R. CARTER, 87, of Port St. Lucie, Fla., formerly of Pound Hill Road, North Smithfield, an auctioneer for Maxwell L. Carter & Co. in Providence for many years before retiring, died Saturday at the Medical Center of Port St. Lucie. He was the husband of Lois (DiRobbio) Carter.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a son of the late Barnett and Bessie Carter, he lived in Port St. Lucie for seven years. He previously lived in North Smithfield.

Mr. Carter had also been a dancer and actor in Hollywood, Calif.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Charles Carter of St. Augustine, Fla., and Allan Carter of Wheaton, Ill.; a brother, Arthur Carter of Providence; a sister, Frances Carter of West Palm Beach, Fla., and four grandchildren.

The funeral will be in Florida.

CARTER,
Maxwell
