

CEREL,
Murray I.

PS 1/17/1999

MURRAY I. CEREL, 60, of Boca Raton, Fla., formerly of Cranston, the former owner of Cerel's Jewelers, Pawtucket, died Monday at home. He was the husband of Sandra (Gratt) Cerel.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Jack and Frances (Mellion) Cerel. Mr. Cerel was a 32nd-degree Mason of Redwood Masonic Lodge and a past member of the Palestine Shriners, Limerock Lodge, Mount Moriah Lodge, Temple Beth-El, Temple Beth Am and Temple Sinai. He served on the board of directors of the International Jewelers Organization.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Randy Rubinstein of Cranston and Susan Steinman of Coral Springs, Fla., and four grandchildren.

The service was held Wednesday at Eternal Light Memorial Gardens, Boynton Beach, Fla.

CEREL, Murray I.

January 11, 1999, age 60, of Boca Raton, Fla.; formerly of Cranston. Beloved husband of Sandra (Gratt) Cerel. Loving father of Randy Rubinstein, Cranston; and Susan Steinman, Coral Springs, Fla. Cherished grandfather of Joshua and Jamie Rubinstein, Erica and Brooke Steinman. Former owner of Cerel's Jewelers. Calling hours are Tuesday and Wednesday, 7-9PM at the home of Randy Rubinstein, 88 Castleton Drive, Cranston. Contributions may be made to the American Heart Association and the American Cancer Society.

MURRAY I. CEREL of Boca Raton, Fla., formerly of Cranston, who died Jan. 11 at home, was the former owner of Murray Cerel Jewelers in Seekonk and Cerel's Jewelers in Fall River. An obituary in the Sunday Journal included the wrong location for his jewelry business.