

OBITUARY

The Evening Bulletin, Friday, December 30, 1977

CHARREN,
Harry

Dr. Harry Charren

PROVIDENCE — Dr. Harry Charren, 82, of 457 Morris Ave., husband of Gertrude (Katz) Charren, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after two weeks' illness.

Dr. Charren was a graduate of Tufts Dental School, but he practiced for only about six months. He then joined his father's drygoods business, Max Charren & Sons, formerly on North Main Street, from which he retired in the 1950s.

He was a past president of Congregation Ohawe Shalom and a member of Temple Emanu-El, Roosevelt Lodge, F&AM, and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Born in New York City June 14, 1895, he was a son of the late Max and Gussie (Birkin) Charren. He lived in Providence for more than 70 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Burton Charren of Cranston and Stanley Charren of Boston; a sister, Mrs. Anna Woolf of Hollywood, Fla.; five grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

The funeral service was held today at Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.