MILDRED (EXTER) CHASE, 80, of Scituate Avenue, a retired travel agent, died yesterday at Cedar Crest Nursing Home.

She was the wife of the late Harold Chase. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late David and Sarah (Vaisberg) Exter, she was a lifelong resident of Rhode Island, moving to Cranston in 1967.

A travel agent for many years, in 1964 she was elected vice president of Women in Travel for the New England Chapter.

She was a member of Temple Sinai and its Sisterhood, the Cranston-Warwick Hadassah, and the Miriam Hospital Wooten's Association. She was a life member of the former Jewish Home for the Aged and a member of its Women's Association.

She was a former board member of the Jewish Community Center of Rhode Island, and a past president of both its Parents Association and Women's Association, and was instrumental in the merging of the two groups into one within the Jewish Community Center.

She leaves a son, Joel Chase of Cranston; a brother, Lee Exter of West Warwick; two sisters, Kaye Licker and Bea Shwartz, both of Cranston; and three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Ronald Chase and sister of the late Ann Goldstein and Sydney Exter.

The funeral service will be held today at 11 a.m. in Temple Sinai, 30 Hagan Ave. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
