Nathan I. Chase

EAST PROVIDENCE — Nathan I. "Izzy" Chase, 67, of 300 East Shore Circle died yesterday at the Jane Brown Unit of Rhode Island Hospital after a two-month illness. He was the husband of Elaine L. (Romano) Chase.

He was the owner and operator of the Chase Auto Body Co. on Fountain Street from 1928 until his retirement two years ago.

Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Morris and Fannie (Hookman) Chase. He lived in the city for six years. Before that, he resided in Cranston.

Freda (Goldstein) Chase, his first wife, died in 1969.

He was a member of Temple Emanuel, Nestel Lodge, F. & A. M., the Palestine Temple Shriners, United Commercial Travelers, Trowel Club and the Crestwood Country Club.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, John T. A. Romano of Providence; three daughters, Mrs. Roslyn Fradin of Cranston, Mrs. Irene Chayt of Closter, N.J., Mrs. Martha Millett of Framingham, Mass.; two brothers, Harry P. Chase of Seekonk and David "Dick" Chase of Providence and six grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held at noon, tomorrow, at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
