Archie J. Chaset

Former owner of heating company was recipient of honors at temple

PROVIDENCE — Archie J. Chaset, 83, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., who owned the Superior Heating Inc., a business previously run by his father, for many years before selling it in 1967, died today at the home. He was the husband of the late Mildred (Sack) Chaset.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Benjamin and Eva (Goldstein) Chaset. He lived in Providence for 10 years and previously had lived in North Providence.

After selling the heating company, Mr. Chaset was involved in several sales and business interests before retiring 10 years ago.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its men's club. In 1973 he was awarded the Emanu-El Man of the Year Award and in 1976 he was made an honorary life board member of the temple. Mr. Chaset was a chef at many of the temple's social functions. He was the national steering committee chairman of the United Synagogue Youth Organization and a local youth representative.

Mr. Chaset was a member of the Roosevelt Lodge of Masons 42, AF & AM, and was a member of the Providence Valley Scottish Rite and the Palestine Shrine. He was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged and a benefactor of many Jewish organizations.

He leaves a son, Alan Chaset of Arlington, Va.; a daughter, Nancy Chaset of East Providence, and a granddaughter.

The funeral service will be Thursday at 1 p.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope Street, Providence. Burial will be at Lincoln Park Cemetery.
