CRANSTON — Dr. Nathan Chaset, 66, of 40 Sachem Drive, a former president of the Rhode Island Medical Society and the Providence Medical Association, died Wednesday in Oaklawn Park Hospital, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He was the husband of Rosalind (Kimball) Chaset.

A former chief of the Departments of Urology at the Miriam and Women and Infants Hospitals in Providence, he was director of the vasectomy clinic at Women and Infants and chief of the Department of Urology at Rhode Island General Hospital, Cranston.

He also served as attending urologist at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Davis Park, and as consultant of urology at Rhode Island Hospital, Woonsocket Hospital, Kent County Memorial Hospital, St. Joseph's Hospital, Roger Williams General Hospital, Newport Hospital and the Veterans Administration Regional Office.

Beside serving as president of the Rhode Island Medical Society in 1974, he was president and executive committee chairman of the New England Section of the American Urological Association.

Dr. Chaset also was a co-founder and director of the Rhode Island Renal Institution and a past chairman of the state's Medical-Legal Committee.

He was a diplomat on the National Board of Medical Examiners and the American Board of Urology; a fellow in the American Medical Association and the American College of Surgeons; a member of the American Association of Clinical Urologists, the state Board of Medical Review and the Providence Senior Citizens Task Force.

An assistant clinical professor at the Brown University Medical School, he formerly had been an instructor at the Boston University School of Medicine.

Born in Providence May 7, 1911, a son of the late Benjamin Chaset and the late Eva (Goldstein) Chaset-Rosenfeld, he was a graduate of Classical High School, Brown University and Boston Medical School. He served his residency at the Massachusetts Memorial and Beth Israel Hospitals in Boston.

From 1942 to 1946 he served with the U.S. Medical Corps. and obtained the rank of major. He received an official commendation from the Government of Iran for his accomplishments in the Iranian Army Hospitals.

He was a member of Temple Beth-El.

Beside his wife, he is survived by two sons, Dr. Richard Chaset of Fitchburg, Mass., and Paul Chaset of Concord, Mass.; a daughter, Mrs. Ellen Baxter of Los Angeles, Calif.; a brother, Archie Chaset of North Providence, and three grandchildren.

The funeral was to be held today at 1 p.m. in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
