SANDICK "DICK" CHERNOV, 67, of 101 Cindy Lane, a retired drapery store owner, died yesterday at home.

He was the husband of Roberta (Perelman) Chernov. They had been married for 41 years. Born in Providence, a son of Edward Chernov of West Hartford, Conn., and the late Lilly (Mills) Chernov, he had lived in Warwick for 42 years.

Mr. Chernov had been the owner of the former Chernov's Draperies, in Johnston, for 35 years, retiring in 1997.

He was a member of Chabad of West Bay, and Redwood Lodge 35, AF&AM, and a former member of Temple Am-David.

He had been a member of the Army Reserve.

Besides his wife and father, he leaves two sons, Beryl Chernov of Rockville Center, N.Y., and Dr. Scottadam Chernov of Gloucester, Mass.; a daughter, Michele Reels of Manville; a brother, Dr. Merrill Chernov of Scottsdale, Ariz.; a sister, Barbara Levin of Rockville, Md.; and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
