HARRY CLEINMAN

Funeral services for Harry Cleinman, 71, of 284 Pierce Avenue, Warwick, who died Saturday, were held Sunday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. He was the husband of Rose (Siegel) Cleinman.

He was chairman of the board and treasurer of Cleinman & Sons, Inc., which he founded in 1924. He entered the jewelry business 55 years ago, and was considered a pioneer in the manufacture of chain store jewelry. In 1948 the company began production of toy jewelry and today is America's largest producer of the product. His early products, hand fashioned of platinum, gold and silver, were sold throughout the country in jewelry stores. Much of the machinery used by the firm was developed by Mr. Cleinman.

Mr. Cleinman was also treasurer of the Cleinman Realty Co., and secretary of Victor Products Corp.

A Navy veteran of World War I, he was a member of the Jewish War Veterans; Roosevelt Lodge, F. & A. M., The Manufacturing Jewelers and Silversmiths of America, Inc., the Providence Chamber of Commerce, and the Toy Manufacturers of the U.S.A., Inc.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, David H. Cleinman of Warwick; a sister, Mrs. Hyman Hearst of Dorchester, Mass.; a brother, David E. Cleinman of Providence, and one grand-daughter. ✓
