ALBERT COHEN

Funeral services for Albert Cohen, 71, of 72 Brookside Drive, Cranston, who died Sunday after an illness of two and one-half years, were held on Tuesday at Temple Beth Torah-Cranston Jewish Center. Burial was at Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was the husband of Evelyn (Schneider) Cohen.

He was born in Providence April 28, 1896, the son of the late Abraham and Yetta (Becker) Cohen. He had lived in Cranston for the last 27 years after moving from Providence.

He was formerly a partner of Lindy's Restaurant at Park and Reservoir Avenues in Cranston, and owned Twiny's Diner in Olneyville until two years ago.

Mr. Cohen was one of the founders and an honorary life trustee of Temple Beth Torah-Cranston Jewish Center and chairman of its religious committee.

He was a 32nd degree Mason, a member of Doric Lodge 38 and a member of the Aleppo Temple of Boston; a charter member of the Cranston Lions Club, and a member of Miriam Hospital, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Hebrew Free Loan Association and the Touro Fraternal Association.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sons, Frederick G. and Lawrence G. Cohen, both of Cranston; two sisters, Mrs. Frances Jacobs of Providence and Mrs. Sadye Gomberg of Fall River; five brothers, Jacob Cohen of Providence, Ernest Coleman of Westerly, Harold Coleman of Cranston, Sidney Cohen of Warwick and Martin Cohen of Lorain, Ohio.
