DAVID E. COHEN, 88, of Woodland Hills, Calif., formerly of Westerly, a retired optometrist and civic leader, died Sept. 10 in Kaiser Permanente Hospital, Woodland Hills.

He was the husband of Rose (Dunder) Cohen. Born in Providence on Nov. 12, 1912, a son of the late Joseph and Ann Lisker Cohen, he had lived in Westerly for 30 years before moving to California, and he previously lived in Providence.

He was an optometrist in both Westerly and Providence for many years, retiring at the age of 85.

Involved in local politics, he was a member of the school board, a founder of local housing for the elderly, and took part in numerous other civic activities.

He was a founder of the Westerly Little League, director of the American Red Cross, and a leader in the Kiwanis.

He was president of Sharah Zedek Synagogue for 25 years.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Robert Cohen of Beverly Hills, Calif.; a daughter, Sandra Ojeda of San Fernando, Calif.; a grandchild; and many nieces and nephews. He was the brother of the late Dr. William Cohen and Retha Neidorf.

Burial was in Eden Cemetery, Mission Hills, Calif.
