

PJB 2-13-12

COHEN, ESTELLE, 87, of Goodlette Rd., Naples, FL, died Thursday, February 9, 2012, in Windsor Place, Naples. She was the beloved wife of the late Bernard Cohen. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Nathan and Ida (Goldstein) Kaplan, she had lived in Naples for 5 years, previously residing in Warwick.

Estelle was an order processor for Ross-Simons Jewelers, for 14 years, retiring 12 years ago. She was a past member of Temple Torat Yisrael and Crestwood Country Club. Estelle loved to play bridge and mah-jongg and was an avid golfer, bowler and knitter.

Devoted mother of Neil (Judy) Cohen of Naples, FL and Stephen (Eileen) Cohen of Palmdale, CA. Dear sister of Irving (Holly) Kaplan of Boynton Beach, FL and Stanley (Arlene) Kaplan of Providence. Loving grandmother of Jessica, Mark, Lea and Robert. Cherished great-grandmother of Aurora and Ethan Alexander.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at the Crown Plaza Hotel, 801 Greenwich Ave., Warwick, Tuesday 7-9 and Wednesday 2-4 & 7-9 p.m.