

COHEN, DR. HENRY

PSB 8-29-04

DR. HENRY A. COHEN, 92, of Fessenden Road, a retired psychiatrist, died Friday at Comprehensive Care Center, Plantation Key, Tavernier, Fla.

He was the husband of Elisabeth N. Hilton-Cohen. Born in Frankfurt, Germany, a son of the late Julius and Elizabeth (Rothenstein) Cohen, he had lived in Barrington for 33 years, and wintered in Key Largo, Fla., for 20 years.

Dr. Cohen had been a psychiatrist on staff at Butler Hospital, in Providence, for 15 years, and had been on the staff at Eleanor Slater Hospital, in Cranston, for 10 years before retiring from private practice in 1976. He also practiced at the Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center, Murfreesboro, Tenn.

He was a graduate of the University of Turin, Italy, Class of 1936, and had practiced in Italy and Colombia before becoming an American citizen in 1957, and serving his residency at the National Jewish Hospital, Denver.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Rene Cohen in California; a stepson, Raymond L. Hilton Jr. of Barrington; two stepdaughters, Jane Kalchik in Michigan and Mary Mendez of Key Largo; and two grandsons, six step-grandchildren and a step-great-granddaughter. He was a brother of the late Margot-Hilda Friedlaeder.

The funeral service will be held Tuesday at 11 a.m. in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church, 5 Chapel Rd. Burial will follow in Island Cemetery, Newport.
