Isadore Cohen

PROVIDENCE — Isadore Cohen, 66, of 180 Sinclair Ave., died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Bella (Sirkis) Cohen.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Barney and Annie (Sandler) Cohen, he had been a lifelong Providence resident.

He was employed as a die maker for the American Insulated Wire Corp. of Pawtucket for 39 years before retiring three months ago.

He was a volunteer worker at the Cranston Senior Center. He was a member of the Local #1203 of the Electricians Union. During World War II he served in the Army in the European Theater of Operations.

During the extensive bombing in North Africa he told his family that if he survived he would go to daily services and followed through on it. He was a member of the Jewish War Veterans Post, a member of Temple Torat Yisrael, and a member of the R.I. Jewish Fraternal Assn.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, David Cohen of Providence and Harvey Cohen of Esmond; a sister, Gloria Levitt of Providence; a brother, Harry Cohen of Cranston; and two grandchildren.

The funeral procession will leave tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. from Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., for the 11 a.m. graveside service at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

COHEN,
ISADORE
