

COHEN,
Natalie

COHEN, Natalie (Hoffman)
August 24, 1995. Residence: Boynton Beach, FL formerly of Providence. Beloved wife of the late Al N. "Happy" Cohen. Devoted mother of Martin B. Cohen of Warwick and Edwyna Samdperil of Boynton Beach, FL. Loving grandmother of Lynda Samdperil of Boston, Fredda Korber of Barrington, Paul Samdperil of Cranston, Kenneth Cohen of Amherst, MA and Jackie Cohen of Providence. Cherished great grandmother of Maurice and Allison Dressler and Dara and Leah Cohen. Funeral Services Sunday 11 a.m. at the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.). In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to Hospice by the Sea, Palmetto Park Rd., Boca Raton, FL. Shiva will be observed at the home Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cohen, 304 Fairfax Dr., Warwick Sunday and Monday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.

NATALIE COHEN, 92, of 64 Cambridge Lane, Boynton Beach, Fla., died Thursday at the John F. Kennedy Hospital in Lake Worth, Fla. She was the wife of the late Al N. "Happy" Cohen.
Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Boris and Frieda Hoffman, she had lived in Providence for most of her life before moving to Florida 25 years ago.
She leaves a son, Martin B. Cohen of Warwick; a daughter, Edwyna Samdperil of Boynton Beach, Fla.; five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.
The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be at Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.