Nettie Cohen

PROVIDENCE — Mrs. Nettie Cohen, 86, of 60 Broadway, the Regency Apartments, a founding member of Temple Beth Israel and a past president and treasurer of the temple's sisterhood, died today at Miriam Hospital after a three week illness. She was the wife of Aaron Cohen.

Born on June 9, 1893, in Lowell, Mass., she was a daughter of the late Herman and Clara (Cohon) Paster and had been a Providence resident for more than 60 years.

She was chairman of the temple's Torah Fund, for 25 years; a past president of the Auxiliary of Post 23 of the Jewish War Veterans; a past treasurer of the National Council of Jewish Women; a member of the Providence Chapter of Hadasah; the Jewish Home for the Aged; and a Hope Link Order of the Golden Chain. She was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Mendes-Hobson Post 41 of the American Legion; a member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association; the Zionist organization and the R.I. Jewish Federation.

Besides her husband, she is survived by three sons, Gerald P. Cohen and Maurice B. Cohen, both of Cranston, and Herbert A. Cohen of Marblehead, Mass; a brother, Irving D. Paster of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Fannie P. Davis of Marblehead, Mass; six grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Temple Beth Israel, Niagara Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

COHEN, NETTIE
