

children,
grandchildren.

S. H. COHEN, NAVAL VETERAN, BURIED

Samuel Harry Cohen, 40, of 36 Carter street, who served as a gunner's mate, third class, in the U. S. Navy in the World War, died early yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Hospital after a brief illness.

Mr. Cohen, a graduate of Rhode Island State College, class of 1920, received his early education in the

SAMUEL H. COHEN

Providence public schools and Warwick high school. He was born in the North End section, Feb. 1, 1897.

While attending college he joined the navy at Newport on June 13, 1918. He was discharged Aug. 22, 1919. He was a member of Rhode Island Post, No. 23, Jewish War Veterans of the United States. He also was a member of the I. O. O. F. and Redwood Lodge, No. 35, F. and A. M. He was employed at the Brown & Sharpe Manufacturing Company.

He is survived by his wife, Leah Cohen; a three-month-old daughter, Janet Faye; a brother, Ernest Cohen of Providence, and four sisters, Mrs. Clara Hoffman, Mrs. Ethel Diwinsky and Esther Cohen, all of Providence, and Mrs. Faye Lewin of Boston.

Mr. Cohen's funeral was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon with services at the Sugarman funeral home, 150 Randall street, conducted by the Jewish War Veterans. The services there and at Lincoln Park Cemetery were directed by Post Commander John J. Rouslin. Commander Irving D. Paster of Naval Post, V. F. W., was in charge of a firing squad and Esmond Borod, bugler, sounded "Taps."

COHEN,
S.H.