Sarah Cohen

PROVIDENCE — A graveside funeral service was held June 13 at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick, for Sarah Cohen, 93, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave. She was the widow of Nathan Cohen.

A resident of Providence for more than 30 years, she was born in Russia. She was a life member of the Ladies Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged.

During World War II she received a Presidential Award for selling war bonds. She was one of the founders of the original Jewish Home for the Aged when it was located on Orms Street approximately 75 years ago. She was a former volunteer worker for the March of Dimes. She was a former area vice president of Mizrachi, a former member of the Hebrew Free Sheltering, the former Providence Ladies Union Aid and the former Jewish Consumptive Association. She was a member of the Congregation Mishkan Tefilah and the Pioneer Women.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Ehrlich and Mrs. Frances Katz, both of Cranston and one a son, Samuel Cohen of Providence and three grandchildren.

COHEN,
Sarah
