

COHN, ALBERT

ALBERT A. COHN

Albert A. Cohn of 40 Everett Avenue, died yesterday at his home after a brief illness. He was the husband of Mrs. Ida (Klemer) Cohn and had been a salesman for 20 years.

Mr. Cohn was a member of Temple Beth El, Roosevelt Lodge of Masons, Harmony Royal Arch Chapter, Providence Fraternal Association and United Commercial Travelers.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Abraham Kestenman and Mrs. Paul Stone, both of Providence; a son, Newton B. Cohn of Cranston; two sisters, Miss Rae Cohn and Miss Belle Cohn, also of Providence, two brothers, Sidney Cohn of Warwick and Harry Cohn of Providence, and four grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at Temple Beth El, Broad Street, tomorrow at 11 a.m. Burial will be in Beth El Cemetery. Memorial week will be held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Abraham Kestenman, 204 Taber Avenue.

COHN—On Aug. 12, Albert A., husband of Ida (Klemer) Cohn. Residence, 40 Everett Avenue. Funeral services, to which relatives and friends are invited, will be held at Temple Beth el, Broad and Glenham Streets, Friday, Aug. 14, at 11 a.m. Calling hours at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 458 Hope Street, Thursday evening, 7-9 p.m.

ALBERT A. COHN

Funeral services for Albert A. Cohn of 40 Everett Avenue were held yesterday at Temple Beth El, with Rabbi William G. Braude officiating. Burial was in Beth El Cemetery, Reservoir Avenue.

Honorary bearers were Walter I. Sundlun, William Matzner, Herman M. Feinstein, Jack L. Anhalt, Martin M. Chase, Archibald Silverman, A. Henry Klein, Irwin N. Silverman and Murry M. Halpert.

At the funeral were large delegations from Roosevelt Lodge of Masons, Providence Fraternal Association and the Commercial Travelers.