

Jerome B. Cohn

Providence native was a former Central Falls Lions Club head

FREMONT, Calif. — Jerome B. Cohn, 60, of 38627 Cherry Lane, a past president of the Central Falls Lions Club, died Tuesday in St. Rose's Hospital. He was the husband of Shirley (Davidson) Cohn.

Until 1981, Mr. Cohn owned the former Triangle Sales in Pawtucket.

He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association, Redwood Lodge 35, AF&AM, Scottish Rite and Palestine Shrine. He was a World War II Navy veteran.

Born in Providence, a son of Ida "Dorothy" (Glantz) Cohn of Cranston and the late Morris Cohn, he was a Cranston resident 15 years before moving to the West Coast.

Besides his wife and mother he leaves a son, Lawrence Cohn of Oakland, Calif.; two daughters, Susan Sweeney of Warwick and Roberta Nahigian of San Jose; a brother, Charles Cohn of Providence; and two granddaughters.

His funeral service will be held in Providence tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

COHN, Jerome B.