

SARAH COREN, 89, of Lansdowne Way, Norwood, Mass., a bookkeeper for Theater Concessions, Cambridge, Mass., for 19 years before retiring in 1972, died Sunday at Norwood Hospital. She was the widow of Barney Coren.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Samson and Lena (Rosenfield) Frank.

Mrs. Coren was a graduate of Hope High School, Providence. She was previously a bookkeeper for the candy firm of E. Rosen Co., Pawtucket, for several years. She was active in the Masonic Order of the Golden Chain in Boston and Providence. She was a past president of the Sisterhood of the former Howell Street Synagogue, Providence. She was secretary-treasurer of the Sisterhood of Temple Shaare Tefilah, Norwood. She was the first bride to be married in Temple Emanuel, Providence.

She leaves a son, Sanford Coren of Cranston; two daughters, Sugar Greenberg of Mashpee, Mass., and Donna Kornblatt of Bellmore, N.Y.; two sisters, Emma Jacobson of Tucson, Ariz., and Esther Young of Cranston; nine grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. She was sister of the late Haskell and Samuel Frank.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. at Temple Shaare Tefilah, Nichols Street. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
