

CRAMER,
albert

ALBERT CRAMER, 86, of the Hebrew Rehabilitation Center for Aged, Roslindale, Mass., owner of the former General Auto Sales Co. of Brockton, Mass., for 40 years before retiring, died yesterday at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center in Boston. He was the husband of the late Rae (Miller) Cramer.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Nathan and Rose (Rimmick) Cramer, he lived in Brockton 40 years before moving to Roslindale 3½ years ago.

Mr. Cramer was proprietor of a used-car lot on Huntington Avenue in Providence for many years. During World War II, he was a sheet metal worker at Quonset Point, and an air raid warden in Providence.

He leaves a sister, Jessie Connis of Providence; a brother, Jack Cramer of Cranston; and a granddaughter. He was the father of the late Lawrence Cramer, and brother of the late Samuel and Barney Cramer.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.

CRAMER, Albert

January 5, 1997. Beloved husband of the late Rae (Miller) Cramer. Resident of Hebrew Rehabilitation Center for Aged, Roslindale, MA; formerly of Brockton, MA and Providence. Dear father of the late Lawrence Cramer. Dear brother of Jessie Connis, Providence; Jack Cramer, Cranston and the late Samuel and Barney Cramer. Grandfather of Cheryl. Dear uncle of numerous nieces and nephews. Funeral service 11AM Tuesday at MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope at 4th Sts. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Memorial observance at the home of Mrs. Jessie Connis, 202 Tenth St., Tuesday through Thursday, 2-4; 7-9PM.

1-6-97