DAMSKY GURNICK
Ann (Make)

September 13, 1968. Residence: 350 Taunton Ave., East Providence. Beloved wife of the late Samuel Gurnick and Moe Damsky. Devoted mother of Stanley Gurnick, Illinois and the late Gerald Gurnick. Adored grandmother of Rebyn Flannigan, Danya, Stephanie, Natalie, and Samantha Gurnick. A Graveside service will be held on Friday at 3PM at Lincoln Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner Doyle Ave.), Providence.

ANN GURNICK DAMSKY, 88, of 350 Taunton Ave., a clerk at Guttin's Bakery, retiring 25 years ago, died Tuesday at home. She was the wife of the late Samuel Gurnick and the late Moe Damsky.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late David and Sarah (Maravak) Make, she lived in East Providence for four years, previously living in Providence.

She leaves a son, Dr. Stanley Gurnick of Chicago, Ill., and five grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Gerald David Gurnick and sister of the late Abraham, Shepsel and Shloma Make, Beatrice and Sadie Bookman and Rose Miller.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Molly Danberg

PROVIDENCE — Molly Danberg, 95, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., died yesterday at the home. She was the widow of Solomon Danberg.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Aaron and Clara (Cooper) Lerner, she had been a Providence resident for 30 years, previously living in Brighton, Mass.

She leaves several nieces and nephews.

A funeral cortege will leave the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., at 9 a.m. tomorrow for a 9:45 graveside service at Sharon Memorial Park in Sharon, Mass.

PJ.B 5/13/1993

DANBERG, Molly
(Lerner)

May 12, 1993. Residence The Jewish Home For The Aged. Beloved wife of the late Solomon Danberg. Dear aunt of several nieces and nephews. Graveside funeral services Friday 9:45 a.m. at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass. In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to your favorite charity. Arrangements by The MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., (corner of Doyle Ave.).
ANITA BARWOOD (GOLDBLATT)
DANIELS, of Old River Road, died Friday at home.
She was the wife of the late Edgar A. Barwood, and the late David C. Daniels. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Abraham and Lucille (Turco) Goldblatt, she had lived in Providence before moving to Lincoln in 1982, and had wintered in Delray Beach, Fla.
Mrs. Daniels was a graduate of Hope High School, and the University of Rhode Island.
She was a member of Temple Beth-El and its sisterhood, and a life member of Hadassah.
An avid golfer, she was a former member of Kirkbrae Country Club, and William’s Island Country Club, in South Florida.
She leaves a daughter, Jody B. Barwood of Newton, Mass.; a brother, Berton Goldblatt of Boynton Beach, Fla.; a sister, Ruth Kaplan of Lincoln; and several nieces and nephews.
The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
David C. Daniels, 80; ex-president of Save-Rite showroom chain

LINCOLN - David C. Daniels, 80, of the Kirkbrae Glen Condominiums, 196 Old River Rd., president of the former Save-Rite and Daniels Tobacco Companies for more than 50 years before retiring, died yesterday at the Philip Hulitar Hospice Care Center in Providence. He was the husband of Anita (Goldblatt) Barwood-Daniels. He was the husband of the late Helen (Horowitz) Daniels.

Born in Woonsocket, he was a son of the late Isaac Daniels and Sarah Daniels-Kaplan.

The Save-Rite catalog-showroom chain that offered discount merchandise was the offspring of Daniels Tobacco Co. founded by Mr. Daniels’s father, Isaac Daniels, in 1907, and continued by his mother Sarah Kaplan in 1921 after his death. Mr. Daniels took over the business in 1933. It first operated as a wholesaler of tobacco and candy to drugstores and supermarkets. Save-Rite began in 1965 in a 500-square-foot showroom at the tobacco firm’s Woonsocket headquarters and later expanded to East Providence and Warwick.

Mr. Daniels was a member of Congregation B’nai Israel. He was a member of B’nai B’rith.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, S. Ronald Daniels of Cranston; a daughter, Elaine Posnick of Carefree, Ariz.; a stepdaughter, Jody B. Barwood of Newton, Mass., and four grandchildren. He was a brother of the late Rhoda Joseph.

The funeral will be held today at 1 p.m. at Congregation B’nai Israel, Prospect Street, Woonsocket. Burial will be in B’nai Israel Cemetery in Woonsocket.

On March 24, 1996. Residence: 196 Old River Rd., Lincoln. Husband of Anita (Goldblatt) Barwood-Daniels. Father of S. Ronald Daniels and ElainePosnick. Stepfather of Jody B. Barwood. Funeral today at 1 p.m. in Congregation B’nai Israel, 224 Prospect St., Woonsocket under the direction of the Chevra Kadisha and the Holt Funeral Home, 510 South Main St., Woonsocket. Shiva will be observed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Ronald Daniels, 7 Fort Ave., Cranston, Monday 7-9 p.m., Tuesday and Wednesday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Memorial contributions may be made to Foundation Fighting Blindness, So. Florida Affiliate, 1969 University Drive, Coral Springs, FL 33071.
DR. EDWARD M. DANIELS, 83, of Chestnut Hill, Newton, Mass., formerly of Providence, a retired psychiatrist and associate professor of medicine, died Friday at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.

He was the husband of Dr. Hadassah (Samuels) Daniels, Born in Patterson, N.J., the son of the late Robert and Rose Daniels, he had lived in the Boston area for 60 years.

Dr. Daniels had been a psychiatrist for 60 years, with Bedford and Framingham Veterans Hospital, McLean Hospital, Mass General, and Beth Israel Hospital.

He was an associate professor of medicine at Tufts University, Boston University and Harvard Medical School. He was a past president of the Boston Psychoanalytical Association.

Dr. Daniels graduated from Brown University in 1942, and Yale Medical School in 1945.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, serving in the Medical Corps as a captain.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Dr. Ben Daniels of Chestnut Hill; a daughter, Berta A. Miller-Daniels of Maynard, Mass.; and a sister, Shirley Magnes.

A graveside service will be held today at 1:45 a.m. in Sharon (Mass.) Memorial Park.
Helen Daniels

LINCOLN — Helen Daniels, 62, of Kirkbrae Apartments East, Old River Road, and formerly of 519 Prospect St., Woonsocket, who was a prominent Jewish community worker, died at home yesterday.

Mrs. Daniels was the wife of David C. Daniels, owner of the Save-Rite catalog showroom chain.

Born in New York City, a daughter of the late William and Bessie (Sumner) Horowitz, she spent her childhood in Providence and moved to Woonsocket after marriage. She lived in Woonsocket for 42 years until she moved to Lincoln recently.

Mrs. Daniels was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel, Woonsocket, its Sisterhood and the Hadassah. She also was a member of the Rhode Island Jewish Home for the Aged, Providence, the Miriam Hospital and Woonsocket Hospital Aid groups, and the Kirkbrae Country Club.

Besides her husband she leaves a son, S. Ronald Daniels of Cumberland; a daughter, Mrs. Elaine Posnick of Lincoln, and a sister, Mrs. Marcelle Horowitz of Longmeadow, Mass.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Congregation B'nai Israel, Prospect Street. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket.

Memorial week will be observed at the home of her son, 6 Sunnyside Drive, Cumberland. Chevra Kaddisha at the Holt Funeral Home, 510 S. Main St., Woonsocket.
DANIELS, NATHAN, 94, of Highland Avenue, Providence, a retired printer, died January 13, 2005. He was the husband of the late Shirley (Maislin) Daniels. Born in Newark, NJ, the son of the late Sani and Sophie Daniels, he lived in Bloomfield, NJ until moving to RI 4 years ago. He was the father of Stuart Daniels of Cranston and Marc Daniels of Westwood, NJ. Grandfather of Rachel and Dara and sister of Mildred Glass, Livingston, NJ. Funeral services will be held on Sunday in NJ, Shiva at the home of Stuart Daniels, 59 Orchard Drive, Cranston, Mon and Tue, 2-4 and 6-8 p.m.
Evelyn Danis, 85

DARTMOUTH, Mass. — Evelyn Danis died Jan. 7. She was the wife of the late Jack Danis.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Jacob and Dora (Pasteur) Torman, she had lived in Dartmouth for 39 years, previously residing in New Bedford.

She was a co-owner with her husband of the Israeli Kosher Market in New Bedford for more than 20 years, retiring in 1985.

A member of Ahavath Achim Synagogue, the National Council of Jewish Women and other charitable organizations, she was a former member of Tifereth Israel Congregation. She was an avid bowler.

She was the mother of Gayle Rinot and her husband Ilan of Zoran, Israel, and David Danis of New Bedford, Mass.; the sister of William Torman of Providence and the late Al Torman. She was the grandmother of Yarden, Shani and Ayala.

Contributions may be made to the ANNA DANNIN, 95, of Green End Avenue, a native of the Ukraine, died yesterday at Newport Hospital.

She was the wife of the late William J. Dannin; he died in 1979. Born on Jan. 6, 1908, in Kiev, Ukraine, a daughter of the late Harry and Fannie Berkowitz, she was brought to this country at the age of 2, and was raised in Philadelphia, Pa. In 1944, she and her husband had moved to his hometown, Newport, where they lived for many years before moving to Fall River, where they lived for a few years before settling in Middletown.

Mrs. Dannin had been a member of Touro Synagogue, in Newport, and Temple Shalom, in Middletown, for most of her adult life. She also was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of Touro Synagogue and of Hadassah.

She is survived by a son, Joseph Dannin of Middletown; three grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Albert Berk and Charlotte Winneker.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Hoffman Jewish Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue, Newport. Burial will follow at Beth Olam Cemetery, Wyatt Road, Middletown.
John J. Dannin

Ex-Newport Welfare chief, civic leader dies at 74

NEWPORT — Former city welfare director John J. Dannin, 74, of 34 Admiral Kaiblis Rd., an accountant here for more than 35 years and an active Republican and former City Alderman, died yesterday at Newport Hospital.

Mr. Dannin was a partner in the firm Dannin and Dannin, retiring about two years ago. He served as welfare director in the late 1930s and early 1940s. Earlier, he directed unemployment relief.

He was the husband of Reba (Kastrin) Dannin.

A former treasurer of the Newport County Red Cross, Mr. Dannin was active in fraternal and civic groups in the city. He was a member of the Newport Public Library Board of Trustees.

He was a former president of the Newport Lodge of B'nai B'rith and of its Central New England Council and District One Board of Governors.

Mr. Dannin also was a former president of Touro Synagogue.

He was a member of the Rhode Island Society of Public Accountants and the National Society of Public Accountants.

He belonged to the Lions Club, the Elks Club, the Odd Fellows and the Masons.

Born in Newport May 1, 1901, Mr. Dannin was a son of the late Joseph and Lena (Adler) Dannin. He attended school here and was graduated from Temple University in Philadelphia.

Besides his wife he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Judy Schaeffer of Somerset; a sister, Mrs. Rose Levin of Philadelphia; and two brothers, Morris Dannin and William Dannin, both of Middletown.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. in the Jewish Memorial Chapel on Fowler Avenue, Middletown. Burial will be in Beth-olum Cemetery, Middletown.
MIDDLETOWN — Morris I. Dannin, 82, of 2 Balsam Ave., owner of the former Newport Auto Parts, Halsey Street, from 1935 to 1968, died Friday at Newport Hospital. He was the husband of Eva (Bedrick) Dannin.

Born in Newport, he was a son of the late Joseph and Lena (Alder) Dannin.

Mr. Dannin was a member of the Kiwanis Club, Touro Synagogue, and a former president of B'nai B'rith.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, David Dannin of East Brunswick, N.J.; a daughter, Linda Walton of Oakland, Calif.; a sister, Rose Levin of Philadelphia, and five grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Hoffman Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue, Newport. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery.
JOSEPH ALLEN DANNIN, 69, of Fairway Drive, a partner in the accounting firm of Dannin & Mendell, died Wednesday at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, Boston.

He was the husband of Karen (Mendell) Dannin. They had been married for 48 years. Born in Philadelphia on Sept. 28, 1934, the son of the late William J. and Anna (Berkowitz) Dannin, he came to Newport in 1944 and lived on Aquidneck Island for the rest of his life.

He had been a partner in Dannin & Mendell for over 30 years. He was a 1956 graduate of Boston University.

He was involved in many community, civic and religious activities. He was a past president of Temple Shalom, a past lieutenant governor of New England Kiwanis, an area vice president for the Rhode Island Jewish Federation, and a past president of Newport B’nai B’rith.

He was a Freemason, a former member of Touro Synagogue, and he had been involved in the Newport Redevelopment Authority’s work in the renewal of downtown Newport in the 1970s.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Steven Dannin of Natick, Mass.; three daughters, Leslie Dannin Rosenthal of South Orange, N.J., Phyllis S. Dannin of Barrington and Jennifer Dannin of Natick, Mass.; and four grandchildren.

The funeral will be held today at 11 a.m. in Temple Shalom, 220 Valley Rd. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery, Wyatt Road.
The Evening Bulletin, Wednesday, October 24, 1979

William J. Dannin

Lifelong Middletown resident was a past president of Touro Synagogue
MIDDLETOWN — William J. Dannin, 72, of 2 Seaboard Court, died yesterday at the Newport Hospital after a short illness. He was the husband of Nan (Berkowitz) Dannin.

Born Jan. 5, 1907, a son of the late Joseph and Lena (Adler) Dannin, he was a lifelong resident of Middletown.

Mr. Dannin was formerly comptroller of Louis Hand Curtain Co. in Fall River, Mass., until 1971. From then until his death, he was associated in the accounting firm with his son, Joseph A. Dannin in Middletown. He was a past president of Touro Synagogue and a former president of Judah Touro Lodge of B'nai B'rith.

He was a member of the Kiwanis Club of Newport and was a 32nd-degree Mason. He was a member of the Ancient Accepted Order of Scottish Rites.

Surviving, besides his wife and son, are a brother, Morris Dannin of Middletown; one sister, Mrs. Rose Levin of Philadelphia, Pa., and three grandchildren.

His funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Hoffman Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue, Newport. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery in Middletown.
DATELINE: Warwick
Dansicker, Anne-Marie, 63, died Thursday, December 10, 2015. She was the beloved wife of Eric Dansicker for 40 years. Born in Bremerton, WA, a daughter of the late William and Marguerite (Hardy) Rondeau, she had lived in Warwick for 26 years, previously living in Cranston. Anne-Marie was a teacher of arts, religion and public and private education for over 30 years. She earned her Master's Degree from Johnson & Wales College. Devoted mother of Isaac Dansicker of Milford, MA and David Dansicker, who lives with his family in Warwick. Graveside services will be held Tuesday at 2:00 p.m. in Sinai Memorial Park, 100 Harrison Ave., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Anne-Marie Dansicker Endowment Fund, c/o Eric Dansicker, 81 Dahlia St., Warwick, RI 02888. Shiva will be observed at her late residence, Tuesday 7-9, Wednesday and Thursday 4-9 p.m. Shiva services will be at 7:00 p.m. each evening.

http://www.shalommemorialchapel.com/?p=1956 12/14/2015
Teacher dies after being struck in hit-and-run

Driver reports to police nearly two hours later

By Jacqueline Tempera and Carol Kozma
Journal Staff Writers

PROVIDENCE — A 19-year-old woman whose car allegedly struck a Mount Pleasant High School teacher, who later died, reported the incident to the police almost two hours later.

Anne-Marie Dansicker, 53, was hit around 5 p.m. Wednesday as she was walking away from the school on Mount Pleasant Avenue, and the driver, Tarchae Powell of Providence, fled the scene, the police said.

The police said Powell went to police headquarters at about 6:40 p.m. and told officers she was driving the car in the accident. She was charged with due care by operator and failure to yield the right of way to a pedestrian in a crosswalk, the police said.

Dansicker was transported to Rhode Island Hospital, where she later died, the police said.

“A request was made to the Rhode Island attorney general’s office to conduct a review of this case,” the police stated.

“Our thoughts and prayers are with Anne-Marie’s loved ones and countless members of the Providence school community whose lives she touched during her years of service,” Superintendent Chris Maher wrote in a statement.

Debbie Krous, a Providence school teacher, wrote about her colleague on her Facebook page. “Anne was a kind, gentle woman who loved teaching and always put the children first,” she wrote. “We pray for the strength her family needs to get through this tragedy now. May her memory be a blessing.”
Frank J. Darman
PROVIDENCE — Frank J. Darman, 80, of the Regency, 60 Broadway, a vice president of the former Top Company, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital.

Born in Woonsocket, he was a son of the late Louis and Sarah (Rosenblatt) Darman. He lived in Providence 45 years.

The Top Company, a wool manufacturing company specializing in the processing of silk, cashmere, camel hair, angora and synthetics, had facilities in Boston and Woonsocket. Mr. Darman was associated with the firm for most of his adult life.

He attended Boston University. While a student at Woonsocket High School, Mr. Darman was a star athlete in basketball and football.

He leaves a son, Jeffrey S. Darman of Arlington, Va.; a daughter, Lesley P. Darman of New York City; and two sisters, Ida Anthony of Weston, Mass., and Bessie Bromson of Cranston.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1:30 at B'nai Israel Synagogue, Prospect Street, Woonsocket. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Mendon Road, Woonsocket.
Obituaries

Frances Darman, 97; active in community affairs

Mrs. Frances (Cohan) Darman, 97, of Winter Court, 507 Harris Ave., an active volunteer in her community and congregation, died yesterday in the Woonsocket unit of Landmark Medical Center. She was the widow of Arthur I. Darman, a prominent city industrialist who died May 31, 1978.

Born March 27, 1894, in Worcester, a daughter of the late Abraham and Marcia Cohan, she lived in Woonsocket for the past 76 years.

Mrs. Darman was a member of and fund-raiser for the Woonsocket Hospital Aid Association, the Woonsocket Public Health Service, the Woonsocket Chapter of the American Red Cross, the Woonsocket Visiting Nurse Service and the Woonsocket Family and Child Service. She performed volunteer work for Miriam Hospital and the Jewish Home for the Aged, both of Providence. A member of Congregation B'nai Israel, she was treasurer of its Hadassah for 45 years and a member of its Sisterhood.

In 1974 she was named B'nai Brith Woman of the Year in Woonsocket.

The Darman family owns the Stadium Theatre building among other city property. Her late husband was a much-honored community philanthropist.

She is survived by a son, Morton H. Darman of Lincoln, Mass.; a daughter, Mrs. Edward B. (Sylvia) Medoff, with whom she lived; six grandchildren, including Richard G. Darman of Washington, D.C., the Bush administration budget director; and eight great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Sunday at noon in the sanctuary at Congregation B'nai Israel, Prospect Street. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of Chevra Kaddisha and the Holt Funeral Home, 510 South Main St.

DARMAN, Frances (Cohan), in Woonsocket, April 3, 1991, wife of the late Arthur I. Darman and mother of Morton H. Darman and Sylvia, wife of Dr. Edward B. Medoff, Residence, 507 Harris Ave., Winter Court, Woonsocket, R.I. Funeral Service will be held Sunday at 12 noon in Congregation B'nai Israel, Prospect St., Woonsocket. Relatives and friends are invited. Shiva will be observed Sunday 7-9 p.m.; Monday 7-9 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Edward B. Medoff, 507 Harris Ave., Woonsocket. Funeral arrangements under the direction of Chevra Kaddisha and the Holt Funeral Home, 510 South Main St., Woonsocket.
FRANCES DARMAN
EAST PROVIDENCE — Frances Darman, 78, of 33 Arthur Ave., East Providence, died November 7, 1989, at the R.I. Hospital. She was born in Providence, a daughter of the late Benjamin and Evelyn (Finegold) Goldstein and had been a lifelong resident of Providence until moving to East Providence 15 years ago.

She is survived by a daughter, Leslie Darman, of New York City, a son, Jeffery Darman, of Arlington, VA, and a sister, Sylvia Bosler, of Providence.

A service was held on Thursday, November 9, at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence, R.I.

In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to any Animal Protection Group of your choice.
Beatrice Daroff, 90

PROVIDENCE — Beatrice (Goldstein) Daroff, 90, a retired bookkeeper, died Nov.30.

She was the wife of the late Albert Daroff.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a daughter of the late Samuel and Molly (Becker) Goldstein, she lived in Philadelphia for 43 years, before moving to Providence in 1997.

Mrs. Daroff was a bookkeeper at Laventhal and Horwath in Philadelphia before retiring in 1989.

She was an active and often anonymous supporter of a variety of charitable organizations, and a member of the Brown Learning Community. She was an avid reader and an animal lover.

She leaves a daughter, Michele Hadden of North Smithfield. She was the sister of the late Dr. Jacob Goldstein.
EDNA DASHOFF, 74, of 16 Kane St., who taught elementary music in the Fall River school system for many years, retiring in 1992, died yesterday at St. Anne Hospital. She was the wife of Nathaniel Dashoff.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late John and Eva (Robbins) Solomon, she had lived in Fall River for the past 45 years, previously living in Taunton, Mass., and Providence. She was a graduate of the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston.

Mrs. Dashoff had been organist and choir director at St. Martin Episcopal Church in Pawtucket, Asbury Methodist Church in Warwick and at several Jewish temples in both Providence and Cranston.

In 1968, she organized the first ecumenical concert at Manning Chapel at Brown University and was organist and choir director for the event. The concert was sponsored by the Rhode Island chapter of the American Guild of Organists. A minister, rabbi, priest, nuns, brothers and their choirs participated in the concert.

Mrs. Dashoff was an accompanist for the Rhode Island Civic Chorale. She was a member of Temple Beth-El of Fall River and its sisterhood and a member of Congregation Agudath Achim in Taunton.

She was a life member of Hadassah and a life member of the Massachusetts Teachers Association. She was a member of the Rhode Island and Massachusetts chapter of the American Guild of Organists and had been treasurer of the Rhode Island Guild of Organists for many years.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Jayne Georgetti of South Windsor, Conn., and Gene Paranzino of Somerset, Mass.; a sister, Fredda Hayman Galkin of Cranston; four grandchildren and two great grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Eliot Solomon.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. at Temple Beth-El, 385 High St., Fall River, Mass. Burial will be in Lincoln Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
FALL RIVER

DASHOFF, NATHANIEL M.
97, of Fall River, passed away on Thursday, March 10, 2016 at the Sarah S. Brayton Nursing Center in Fall River. He was the husband of the late Edna (Solomon) Dashoff. Nathaniel was born in Fall River, the son of the late Abraham and Bessie (Ostroff) Dashoff. Nate graduated from BMC Durfee High School class of 1936. He served his country during WWII with the United States Army Air Force and was the recipient of numerous awards and decorations. Mr. Dashoff began his professional career as a buyer of children’s clothing and owned Boston Junior Deb. During his career he traveled to New York City and the Orient as a buyer for the New York Lace Store, the Warwick Shopper’s World and Bradlees. In his later years, Nate worked alongside his friend Richard Liss at Liss Stores. Mr. Dashoff was a member of Temple Beth El in Fall River and a former Mason at the King David Lodge. He was an avid reader and sports fan. Survivors are two daughters: Gene E. Paranzino and her husband Paul of Somerset; Jayne A. Georgetti and her husband Ron of Greenwich, CT; three grandchildren: Glenn Swass and his fiancee Dawn; Colonel Todd Swass, USAF and his wife Susan; Marc Paranzino; and Dr. Juliet Jackson and her husband Chris; great grandchildren: Olivia and Emily. He was the grandfather of the late Timothy Swass and brother of the late Everett Dashoff and Grace Cooperstein. A Graveside Service with Military Honors for Mr. Dashoff will be held on Sunday, March 13, 2016 at 9am in Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Road, Warwick. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Memorial Observance will be held on Sunday also from 3-6pm at his daughter’s home 133 Lucy Lane, Somerset, MA 02726. Memorial donations in Nate’s memory can be made to the Ida and David Chavenson Scholarship Fund, c/o Temple Beth El, 385 High Street, River, MA 02720 or USO.org To light a memorial, sign guest book, cemetery directions go to www.hathawayfunerals.com or call 508 672-3572. All arrangements have been entrusted to the care of the Hathaway Community Home for Funerals, 900 Buffinton Street, Somerset.
OBITUARIES

Dr. Oscar Z. Dashef, 86, Woonsocket pediatrician

LINCOLN — Dr. Oscar Z. Dashef, 86, of Kirkbrae Glen, Old River Road, a Woonsocket area pediatrician for 40 years until he retired, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Selma (Flaschner) Dashef. They were married 61 years.

Born in Boston, he was a son of the late Samuel and Tillie (Lasovick) Dashef.

Dr. Dashef opened his private practice in 1946 and was the first board-certified pediatrician in the Woonsocket area. He was chief of the department of pediatrics at Woonsocket Hospital from 1951 to 1967 and was president of the hospital staff from 1967 to 1968. He was president of the Woonsocket District Medical Society from 1969 to 1971 and served as chairman of the Rhode Island chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics from 1966 to 1971. Dr. Dashef was appointed to two terms on the Rhode Island Board of Medical Examiners from 1969 to 1976 by Governors Chafee and Licht.

He served on the boards of the northern Rhode Island Mental Health Association and the ROAD Counseling Services for the treatment of drug addictions.

He received the Man of the Year award in 1964 from the Kiwanis Club for setting up clinics in northern Rhode Island to control poliomyelitis through immunizing 95 percent of the population with the Salk or Sabin vaccine. When he retired, Dr. Dashef was honored by the Family and Child services organization for his pediatric contributions.

He graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors from Boston University in 1934 and from the Boston University School of Medicine in 1937. He served a rotating internship at Brockton Hospital, did pediatric training at Boston City Hospital and advanced training in infectious disease at Willard Parker Hospital in New York and in pediatric neurology at Presbyterian Hospital of Columbia University. Dr. Dashef became a diplomat of the American Board of Pediatrics in 1946 and was elected a fellow of the American Academy of Pediatrics in the same year.

An Army veteran of World War II, Dr. Dashef served with the rank of major in the 26th Americal Division in the South Pacific, where he was commanding officer in charge of medical personnel and the field hospital operation of his division during the battles of Guadalcanal, Bougainville and the Solomon Islands. He was awarded the Legion of Merit in 1944 for his studies of malaria, nutritional problems and psychiatric problems affecting troops in the South Pacific.

After he retired Dr. Dashef participated in student-run seminars at the Brown Learning Community and participated in Elder Hostel programs in Israel, Brazil, Alaska, New Zealand and Australia.

He received the B’Nai Brith Greater Woonsocket Man of the Year award in 1987 for his medical and Jewish community contributions. Dr. Dashef served Congregation B’Nai Israel as chairman of the Jewish Adult Education Committee and as a member of the Board of Directors. He chose to have a second Bar Mitzvah ceremony at age 83 when he read from the Torah at Congregation B’Nai Israel.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Dr. Stephen S. Dashef of Northampton, Mass.; a daughter, Jane Dashef Weinstock of Newton, Mass., and five grandchildren.

A funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Congregation B’Nai Israel, 224 Prospect St., Woonsocket. Burial will be in B’Nai Israel Cemetery, Mendon Road, Woonsocket.
WOONSOCKET

DASHEF, SELMA (FLASCHNER), Of Auburndale, MA, formerly of Woonsocket, RI on March 11, 2005.

Beloved wife of the late Dr. Oscar Z. Dashef. Devoted mother of Dr. Stephen Dashef and his wife Carolyn of Northampton, MA, and Jane Dashef Weinstock of Brookline, MA. Loving grandmother of Alyssa Dashef Solow and Warren Solow, Jennifer Dashef, Rebecca Weinstock and Alejandro Heffess, Lauren Dashef, and Joshua Weinstock. Adoring great-grandmother of Ava Solow and Isaac Heffess. Also survived by her sister, Beatrice Helfand and many nieces and nephews.

Throughout her life, she was an active volunteer and leader for many medical and community organizations and causes.

A graveside service will be held on Sunday, March 13, 2005 at 1:30 p.m. at the Congregation B'nai Israel Cemetery in Woonsocket, RI. Calling hours with the family will be held at Selma Dashef's residence at Lasell Village in Auburndale on March 14 and 15 from 5-8 p.m. Expressions of sympathy in her memory may be made to the Joslin Diabetes Center, Development Office, One Joslin Place, Boston, MA 02215, or to the Hospice of the Good Shepherd, 2042 Beacon St., Newton, MA 02468.
NEWPORT — Samuel Dashoff, 75, formerly of 17 Burnside Ave., died Wednesday at the Rhode Island Veterans Home, Bristol.

Born in Fall River, he was a son of the late Harry and Jennie (Arwski) Dashoff.

Mr. Dashoff was employed by the former family business for many years. He was a World War II Army veteran. He was an avid sports fan and at one time a professional boxer.

He leaves a brother, Louis Dashoff of Satellite Beach, Fla.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown.
Ruth D’Atri

WARWICK – Ruth D’Atri, 88, died on Nov. 7. She was the wife of the late Orlando D’Atri. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Frank and Rose (Wenetsky) Silberman, she had lived in Warwick for more than 50 years. She worked in public relations for the State of Rhode Island for more than 28 years, before retiring many years ago. She was a member of Temple Am David. She was the sister of Jeannette Roth of Cape Cod, Mass., and the late Sumner and Joseph Silberman. Contributions may be made to Temple Am David or your favorite charity.
Byron B. Datz

DATZ, BYRON B.

89, died on Thursday, October 26, 2017. Born in Providence, he was a son of the late David and Minnie (Cohen) Datz. Byron grew up in Providence, RI and graduated from Hope High School. He attended the Radio and Television Technicians School and for many years worked as a technician for RCA Television. He also enjoyed his years working at Old Stone Bank. He served in the US Army during the Korean War, and was a member of the Jewish War Veterans. Byron was an avid collector of cameras, and souvenirs from the personal travel he did with his sister, Florence as well as from the travel he did while serving in the military.

Byron was a talented dancer and was a proud member of the chorus where he lived. He loved dancing with his friends at Hebrew Senior Life in Roslindale.

He was the brother of the late Irving, Allan and Florence Datz.

He is survived by many nephews, and Grand niece and nephews. A graveside funeral service will be held Monday, October 30th at 1:00 PM in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to the Jewish Community Center of Rhode Island. For information and condolences, www.SugarmanSinai.com.
DATZ, FLORENCE, 87, of Providence, a retired office manager, died July 30, 2005 at Fatima Hospital. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late David Morris and Minnie (Cohen) Datz, she was a lifelong resident of Providence.

Miss Datz was a civilian employee to the Army Air Corps during WWII. Following the war, she worked as the office manager at the former Royal Sales and later worked for the State of RI in the Real Estate Board office.

She was a member of Temple Emanu-El.

She leaves two brothers, Byron Datz of Providence and Irving W. Datz of North Providence; and four nephews. She was the sister of the late Alan S. Datz and aunt of the late Stevan Datz.

The funeral service will be held Wednesday at 12:30 PM at the SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., Providence. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 275 Westminister St., Providence, RI 02903. Shi-va will be private.
Florence Datz, 87, of Randall Street, a resident of New York City for many years, died yesterday. She was the widow of Irving Datz and the daughter of the late Samuel Pressman. She leaves a daughter, Maida Horovitz, of Boynton Beach, Fla., and three grandchildren. A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 2:30 at Mount Hebron Cemetery.
DATZ, IRVING W. 92,

passed away on Tuesday, May 29th. Residing for many years in Providence, and then Brookline, “Irv” was best known for his jokes which he used to break down barriers, provide support, and to pass on life’s lessons— all while making you laugh. Born in Providence, he was the son of the late David and Minnie (Cohen) Datz.

A graduate of Hope High School, a decorated Veteran of WW2, he married the love of his life, the late Phyllis (Berge!) Datz.

He passed his lessons of love to his adored sons and their partners, David Datz and his fiancé, Jim Mauro, and the late Stevan Datz and his wife, the late Roberta (Lipet) Datz and to his loving granddaughter, Melissa Frye and her husband, Scott Frye and his newest love, Noah Frye as well as to his siblings, Byron Datz, the late Florence Datz, and the late Allen Datz.

Graveside services will be held Friday at 11:00 a.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Hebrew Senior Life, One Centre St., Roslindale, MA 02131. Shiva will be observed at the Home of Melissa and Scott Frye, 10 Farrier Way, Plainville, MA, Friday 1-3 and from 5-8 p.m.
DATZ, PHYLLIS B. 86, died Thursday, July 21 after a battle with cancer.

Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Herman and Minnie (Goldenberg) Bergel Pokras. A graduate of Hope High School, Phyllis leaves the love of her life, her husband, Irving Datz who she met at a party after Irv spilled a cocktail on her dress. They were married for 65 years.

Residing for many years in Providence, and then Brookline, Phyllis was known for her latest retail venture, “The Pink Giraffe,” the gift cart she started at 100 Centre Street and for her apple squares; but was best known for the love she shared with her family and friends, which was unsurpassed. She never forgot a birthday, an anniversary or any other occasion that was special to her family or to her many friends.

Her career and community involvement centered around people, working with those who became her lifelong friends.

She was proud to have been a President of the Jewish War veterans, a member of the sisterhood of Temple Emanu-El, and a volunteer teacher to those who were both deaf and could not speak.

Loving mother to David Datz and his fiancé, Jim Mauro, and the late Stevan Datz. Devoted sister to Martin Bergel and his wife, Charlotte, the late Jordan Bergel and his surviving wife, Joan, and sister-in-law of Byron Datz. Adoring grandmother of Melissa Frye and her husband, Scott and great grandmother to her newest love, Noah Frye.

Graveside services will be held Monday at 11:00 a.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETARY, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Hebrew Senior Life, One Centre St., Roslindale, MA 02131. Shiva will be observed at the Home of Melissa and Scott Frye, 10 Farrier Way, Plainville, MA, Monday 1-3 and from 5-7 p.m. A celebration of her life will be held at 100 Centre St., on Thursday at 2 p.m. All are invited. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.
Roberta Datz, 55

CRANSTON — Roberta (Lipet) Datz, 55, died Oct. 10. She was the wife of the late Stevan Datz. Born in Providence, a daughter of Lee (Rich­man) Lipet and the late Joseph Lipet, she was a lifelong resident of Rhode Island.

Mrs. Datz was a graduate of The University of Rhode Island.

Beside her mother, she is survived by her daughter; Melissa Jill Datz of Plainville, Mass. and her sister; Judith Hope Sheldon of Riverside.

Contributions may be made to the American Diabetes Association, 222 Richmond St., Providence, RI 02903.
Death notices

DATZ, Stevan Mark
October 28, 1999. Residence: River Farms Rd., West Warwick. Beloved Husband of Roberta (Lipet) Datz. Loving son of Irving and Phyllis Datz of North Providence. Adored father of Melissa Jill Datz of West Warwick. Dear brother of David Marshall Datz, Esq. of Boston MA. Funeral Services will be held on Sunday at 10:00 AM at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Ave. of Sessions St., Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to American Diabetes Assoc., 2548 Post Rd., Suite 31, Warwick, RI 02889. Shiva will be observed at his late residence on Sunday and Monday 2-4 and 7-9 PM. Arrangements by MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., (off. Doyle Ave.), Providence.

West Warwick

STEVAN MARK DATZ, 49, of 47 River Farms Drive, a partner at CopyWorld in North Providence, died Thursday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Roberta (Lipet) Datz.

Born in Providence, a son of Irving and Phyllis (Bergal) Datz, both of North Providence, he lived in West Warwick for 4 years, previously living in Cranston for 16 years.

Mr. Datz was elected to the “Who’s Who” for sales leadership. He was a member of the board of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the MS Society and the Big Brothers Association.

Besides his wife and parents, he leaves a daughter, Melissa Jill Datz of West Warwick, and a brother, David Marshall Datz of Boston.

The funeral will be held today at 10 a.m. in Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
SHIRLY (MOVERMAN) DAUER,
84, of Naples, Fla., died yesterday at Epoch Health Center, Providence.
She was the wife of the late Marshall Dauer. Born in New York City, a daughter of the late Samuel and Rose (Kutzenco) Moverman, she had lived in Providence and Warwick for many years before moving to Florida in 1976.

Mrs. Dauer was a graduate of Central High School.

She leaves a daughter, Diane Brosofsky of Warwick; three sons, Edward Dauer of Denver, Colo., Steven Dauer of Mansfield, Conn., and Richard Dauer of St. Paul, Minn.; two sisters, Jean Jaffa of Cranston and Evelyn Finger of Bristol; a brother, Gerald Moverman of Warwick; and five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Mollie Blumenthal, Estelle Friedman and Phyllis Salk.

The funeral will be private.
December 3, 2012

ELSEWHERE

DAVID, ISABEL (HODOSH), 92, died on November 30, 2012. She was the wife of the late Samuel C. David. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Samuel & Eva (Shonfeld) Hodosh, she had been living in Pennsylvania since 2005.

Mrs. David was a member of Temple Beth El.

She is survived by her children, Marjorie Victor and her husband Steven of Lansdale, PA and Dr. Jeffrey W. David and his wife Janice of Butler, PA; her grandchildren, David (Tara), Jennifer (Dan), Jessica (Bill), Becca (Luke) and Jared; and her great-grandchildren, Samantha, Abigail, Alex, Lila, Josh and Maddie.

A graveside service will be held on Tuesday, December 4th at 2:00 PM in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to The American Cancer Society, 931 Jefferson Blvd., Warwick, RI 02886. Shiva will be observed in PA. For information and condolences SugarmanSinai.com.
OBITUARY

NATHAN DAVID

Funeral services were held last week from the Touro Synagogue in Newport, for Nathan David, prominent business man, one of the directors of public aid in Newport, and for 15 years president of the Congregation Jeshuat Israel.

At the services were numerous city officials and various business associates. The service at the synagogue followed a service at the home at Whitfield Place, and was conducted by Rabbi Morris Gutstein of the Congregation Jeshuat Israel.

Burial was in the family plot in the cemetery where delegations from Judah Touro Lodge B'nai B'rith of which Mr. David was first president, Excelsior Lodge of Odd Fellows and Newport Lodge of Elks, paid their last tribute.
OSCAR M. DAVID, 78, of 25 Glen View Drive, an attorney at the office of Oscar M. David Attorney & Counselor at Law in Providence for 40 years, retiring six years ago, died Monday at Roger Williams Medical Center, Providence. He was the husband of Dolores (Caroselli) David.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Michael and Gertrude (Yosolowich) David. He had lived in Cranston for 44 years, previously residing in Providence and Woonsocket.

He was a World War II Army veteran serving in the European theater.

He was a graduate of Brown University, Class of 1950, with a bachelor's degree, and received his J.D. degree from Boston University in 1954.

He was a past master of Doric Lodge of the Masons, a member of the Brown Faculty Club, the Elks Club, and the Rhode Island Bar Association. He was a Cranston West Little League coach for many years.

He was a military history buff and sports fan.

Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Michael N. David of Great Falls, Va., Andrew O. David of Cranston, and Oscar A. David of Winnetka, Ill.; a daughter, Christine F. David of Chicago; a sister, Mary (David) Baker of Brockton, Mass., and three grandchildren. He was father of the late Lisa Mary David and brother of his late twin sister, Annie David.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. Burial with military honors will be held in Rhode Island Veterans Cemetery, Exeter.
Samuel C. David

David & Hodosh meats company co-owner, hospital volunteer

CRANSTON — Samuel C. David, 66, of 40 Sachem Drive, co-owner of David & Hodosh Wholesale Meats for 30 years until he retired in 1978, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Isabel (Hodosh) David.

Born in Newport, he was a son of the late Morris and Rose (Basil) David. He had lived in Cranston about three years and previously had lived in Warwick for 25 years. Mr. David was a graduate of Bentley College.

He was a volunteer at Rhode Island Hospital, and was a member of Roosevelt Lodge of Masons, B’nai B’rith and Temple Beth El. Mr. David was a Navy veteran of World War II.

Besides his his wife, he is survived by a son, Dr. Jeffrey David of Gardner, Mass.; a daughter, Marjorie Rahn of Cherry Hill, N.J.; a brother, Dr. Wilfred David of Birmingham, Ala.; six sisters, Martha Kaufmann of Somerset, Mass., Shirley Correia of Newport, Beverly Alberts of Putney, Vt., Estelle Dembert of Altoona, Pa., Edith Siletnichik of Del Ray Beach, Fla., and Miriam Klein of Orange, Conn., and five grandchildren.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
BARBARA DAVIDSON, 75, of Fishing Cove Road, died Tuesday at Miriam Hospital, Providence. She was the wife of Oscar Davidson.

Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Abraham and Helen (Tarnopol) Blotcher, she lived in North Kingstown and Lauderhill, Fla., for the last 20 years.

Besides her husband, she leaves three sons, Jeffrey Davidson of Nashville, Tenn., Peter Davidson of Greenlawn, N.Y. and Richard Davidson of Seattle, Wash.; a sister, Jacqueline Teverow of Cranston; and two grandchildren. She was sister of the late Robert J. Blotcher.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Sinai, 30 Haven Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.

DAVIDSON, Barbara (Blotcher)

June 18, 1996. Residence: 283 Fishing Cove Rd., North Kingstown. Beloved wife of Oscar Davidson. Devoted mother of Jeffrey Davidson, Nashville, TN; Peter Davidson, Greenlawn, NY; and Richard Davidson, Seattle, WA. Dear sister of Jacqueline Teverow of Cranston and the late Robert J. Blotcher. Loving grandmother of Danielle and Nicole Davidson. Funeral services Friday at 11 a.m. at Temple Sinai, 30 Hagan Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 40 Broad St., Pawtucket. Shiva will be observed at her late residence, Sunday and Monday, 2-4; 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.), Providence, RI.
MRS. ISADORE DAVIDSON

Funeral services for Mrs. Gussie Davidson, 76, of 95 Bogman Street, who died on Feb. 16, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The widow of the late Isadore Davidson, she was born in Russia, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mehlman.

Her only survivor is a son,

Bernard Davidson of Cranston.
Morris S. Davidson

Morris S. Davidson of 101 Gallatin St., president of the Barbett Photo Engraving Co. of Providence, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after a short illness. He was the husband of Mrs. Eva (Fineman) Davidson.

Born in Russia, Oct. 5, 1890, a son of the late Isaac and Eva (Krasnow) Davidson, he came to Providence 56 years ago.

He was employed by the Journal-Bulletin for 16 years in the photo engraving department, leaving in 1926 to help form the Providence Photo Engraving Co.

Mr. Davidson was former secretary of the Photo Engravers' Union, a member of B'nai B'rith, the Miriam Hospital Association, the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Survivors, besides his wife, include two sons, Oscar L. Davidson of Pawtucket and A. Edward Davidson of Warwick; a daughter, Mrs. Martin Greenwald of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Saul Treistman and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today at 10:30 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 458 Hope St. Rabbi Aaron Golden of Pawtucket officiated. Delegations were present from the Providence Photo Engraving Union and the Providence Journal-Bulletin. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
OSCAR L. DAVIDSON, 83, of Fishing Cove Road, Wickford, the owner of the former Barbett Photo Engraving Co. before retiring 20 years ago, died Wednesday at Holy Cross Hospital, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He was the husband of the late Barbara (Blotcher) Davidson.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Morris and Eva (Feinman) Davidson, he had lived in Cranston and Warwick before moving to Wickford 15 years ago. He was a winter resident of Lauderhill, Fla.

He was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II.

Mr. Davidson was the founder of Temple Sinai and a member of its Brotherhood. He was a member of the Redwood Lodge of Masons.

He leaves three sons, Peter Davidson of Greenlawn, N.Y., Jeffrey Davidson of Nashville, Tenn., and Richard Davidson of Seattle, Wash.; a sister, Celma Greenwald of Warwick; and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late A. Edward Davidson.

A graveside service will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. in Sinai Memorial Park, Harrison Avenue, Warwick.
AARON DAVIS, 85, of Summit Drive, a founder of the former United Camera Inc., now UNICOM, died Sunday at home.

He was the husband of Muriel (Zelniker-Sutton) Davis, and previously of the late Bertha Jagolinzer Davis. Born in New Bedford, Mass., a son of the late Harry and Eva (Cohen) Davis, he had lived in Cranston since 1940.

Mr. Davis had been working as an executive with the UNICOM Technology Group, formerly United Camera Inc., since helping to found the company in 1938.

A 32nd-degree Mason with the Redwood Lodge 35, AF&AM, in East Providence, he was a recipient of the Grand Lodge 50-year service medal.

He was a member of B'nai Brith.

Mr. Davis was a member and founder of the former Cranston Jewish Center, now Temple Torat Yisrael, where he was an honorary life member of the board of trustees and a member of the Men's Club. He also was the first keeper of records for the temple's cemetery, which he had maintained for more than 40 years.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Mark Davis of Warwick and Robert Davis of Grafton; a daughter, Clare Yaffe of Milford; a stepson, Dr. Jeffrey Sutton of Lake Worth, Fla.; a stepdaughter, Marcia Sutton, Rochester, N.Y.; and a brother, Ira Davis of Warwick; 10 grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

He was the father of the late Harold Alan Davis, and a brother of the late Philip Davis.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Temple Torat Yisrael. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DAVIS, ALBERT, 87, died peacefully on March 22nd at the Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center. He was the beloved husband of Shirley (Chorney) Davis, loving father of Joel Davis of California and Nancy Davis of New York. Dear brother of Hannah Feibelman, and her husband, Jack, of Cranston, the late Irving Kotler, Rabbi Maurice Davis, Ruby Kotler, and Carlie Zimmerman. Cherished uncle of many nieces and nephews.

Albert spent a lifetime in the jewelry industry until his retirement in 1991. He was founder and president of Best Plastics, Inc. as well as Fernando Originals.

Funeral services will be held in Temple Sinai, 30 Hagen Avenue, Cranston, at 1:00 p.m. on Friday, March 25th. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to Home and Hospice Care of Rhode Island, 1085 North Main Street, Providence, RI 02904 would be appreciated. Arrangements by Shalom Memorial Chapel, Cranston.
Ann Davis

PROVIDENCE — Ann Davis, 81, of 124 Blackstone Blvd. died today at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Dr. Harry T. Davis.

Born in New York City, she was a daughter of the late Nathan and Jean (Davis) Gordon. She had lived in Providence most of her life.

Mrs. Davis was a member of Temple Emman-El and its Leisure Club, the Roger Williams Chapter of the B'nai B'rith Women and the Senior Adults of the Jewish Community Center. She was a volunteer at the Jewish Home for the Aged.

She leaves a son, Peter Davis of Los Angeles; a daughter, Vida Barron of West Hartford, Conn.; a brother, Dr. Philip Gordon of Providence; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DAVIS, David

August 5, 2001. Beloved Husband of Ruth (Seltzer) Davis, Residence: Elmhurst Extended Care Facility, Providence. Devoted Father of Donald Davis, Santa Monica, CA and Helene Davis, Somerville, MA. Loving Brother of Jeanette Herman, Stoughton, MA, Sally Rifkin, Cranston and the late Frank Davis. Funeral Service 10:00 AM Monday at SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., Providence. Relatives and Friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Jewish Eldercare of Rhode Island, 401 Elmwood Ave., Providence, RI 02906. Shiva will be private.
OBITUARIES

Fannie Davis, ex-president of Jewish war vets' auxiliary

MARBLEHEAD — Mrs. Fannie (Paster) Davis, 96, 12 Mystic Road, died Monday at her home after a brief illness. She was the wife of the late Herman M. Davis.

She was born in New York City and lived in Lynn and Marblehead since 1936.

She was the first national president of the Jewish War Veterans auxiliary, having been elected to that office in the 1920s.

During World War II she was a volunteer for the Red Cross.

She was a member of Temple Emanuel-El and a former member of Temple Beth El, Swampscott, and a member of the Kernwood Country Club, Salem.

Mrs. Davis leaves a son, Robert P. Davis of Marblehead, two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Stanetsky-Hymanson Memorial Chapel, 10 Vinnin St., Salem. Burial will be in Temple Beth El Cemetery, Peabody.

FANNIE DAVIS

ENTERED INTO REST:
July 22, 1991

SERVICES AT:
Stanetsky-Hymanson Memorial Chapel
10 Vinnin Street
Salem-Swampscott Line
Wednesday, July 24, 1991 at 1:00 P.M.

OFFICIATING:
Rabbi Robert W. Shapiro

INTERMENT AT:
Temple Beth El Cemetery, Lowell St.
Peabody, MA.

MEMORIAL OBSERVANCE:
At her late residence Wednesday evening and Thursday from 1:00 to 9:00 P.M.,
12 Mystic Rd., Marblehead, MA
CRANSTON — Frank Davis, 66, of Ausdale Road, manager of the Cohen Heating Supply Co., Providence, for 30 years, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Evelyn (Lightman) Davis.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Alfred and Ethel (Bell) Davis, he lived in Cranston for 27 years.

Mr. Davis attended the New England Tech School.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Suzanne E. Davis of Cranston; three sons, Michael A. and Paul L. Davis, both of Cranston, and Mark A. Davis of East Greenwich; two sisters, Sally Reffkin of Cranston, Jeanette Herman of Stoughton, Mass., and a brother, David Davis of East Providence.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Funeral services for Mrs. Harriet (Weisman) Davis, 49, of 154 Emeline Street, who died unexpectedly on Sept. 25, were held the same day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The wife of Murray Davis, she was born in Providence on May 31, 1915, a daughter of Julius and Esther (Dayis) Weisman, of Providence. She was a lifelong resident of Providence. She was a graduate of Hope High School and a member of the Roger Williams Chapter of B’nai B’rith Women, and had served as secretary for several years.

Besides her parents and husband, she is survived by two sons, Stewart and Jeffrey Davis, both of Providence; one sister, Mrs. Felix Baer of Springfield, N.J., and one brother, Joseph Weisman, of Providence.
DAVIS, GLADYCE, of West Shore Health Center, died Friday at the center. Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Nathan and Rebecca (Goldsmith) Davis. She had lived in Warwick since 1976, previously living in Providence. She was a supervising social worker for the State of RI. An honors graduate of Pembroke College, Gladyce was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael, a lifemember of the Womens Association of Miriam Hospital and the former Jewish Home for the Aged. She was a member of Hadassah and the Council of Jewish Women. She was an avid bridge and Mah Jongg Player and enjoyed travel.

Dear sister of Judge Louis Davis of Kansas City, MO, Ruth Gershman and Miriam Feinstein, both of Warwick and the late Dinah Sholovitz and Sylvia Kirshenbaum. She is also survived by many loving nieces and nephews.

A funeral service will be held Monday at a time to be determined (please call 463-7771 for the time) in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at Tamarisk, 3 Shalom Dr., Warwick, Mon. 6:30-7:30 and Tues. 2-4 and 6:30-7:30 p.m.
DAVIS, HADASSAH
93, passed away Wednesday, December 28, 2016. She was the wife of Philip Davis; they were married for 72 years. She was born in New York, NY, a daughter of the late Rabbi Louis Finkelstein and Carmel Forsyte.

She earned a Master's Degree in History from Brown University and had a continuing interest in RI history, on which she wrote several books.

Besides her husband, she is survived by her daughter Abby Davis; sons Frank, Ernest, and Joseph Davis; siblings Rabbi Ezra Finkelstein and Emunah Katzenstein; and grandchildren Leon, Miranda, and Ruthie.

Funeral services will be held TODAY, Thursday December 29th at 2PM at Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St, Providence, RI with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the charity of your choice. For information and condolences, www.SugarmanSinai.com
DAVIS — Entered into rest, May 27, 1990
Dear grandfather of Dianna Nielsen and Nancy Davis and great-grandfather of Benjamin and Daniel Nielsen and Laura Borash. Services at STANETSKY-HYMANSON Memorial Chapels, 10 Vinnin St., Salem-Swampscott line today at 2 p.m. The family will be at his late residence, 12 Mystic Road, Marblehead, Wednesday and Thursday 3-5, 7-8 p.m.
Harry Davis

PROVIDENCE — Harry Davis, 92, a resident of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., a former dairy products company co-owner, died yesterday at the home. He was the husband of the late Sarah (Landerman) Davis.

Born in Lithuania, he was a son of the late Jacob and Dina (Shepard) Davis. He lived in Providence 78 years.

Mr. Davis co-owned Davis Dairy Products Co. on Hope Street for 50 years before retiring 25 years ago. The company previously had been located on North Main Street.

He was a charter member of Congregation Mishkan Tefilah. Mr. Davis was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Miriam Hospital, the Providence Hebrew Day School and the Jewish Community Center.

He leaves a daughter, Pearl Kaufman, and a son, Joslin I. Davis, both of Providence; a brother, Saul Davis of Stoughton, Mass.; a sister, Rebecca Bello of Boston; five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Out of respect to the memory of HARRY DAVIS
DAVIS DAIRY PRODUCTS

will be closed
Thursday, February 23, 1989
DAVIS, IRA 78, of 650 East Greenwich Ave., Bldg. 6, died Monday at home. He was the beloved husband of Sema (Pollack) Davis. They were married for 55 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Harry and Eva (Cohen) Davis, he had lived in Cranston for 27 years before moving to West Warwick 21 years ago. He was in sales at the former United Camera Inc. in Providence for 59 years before retiring 11 years ago. Ira was a graduate of the Progressive School of Photography in New Haven, Class of 1950. He was a WW-II Army veteran serving in the Pacific Theater. Ira was a board member, past vice president and recently an honorary trustee of Temple Torat Yisrael. He was a member of Touro Fraternal Association and the former Roosevelt Lodge #42 AF & AM. Devoted father of Jeffrey Davis and his wife Cynthia of East Greenwich and Helene Hanna and her husband Cameron of Warwick. Dear brother of the late Aaron and Phillip Davis. Loving grandfather of Evan, Melanie, Brooke and Chelsea. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 12:00 noon in TEMPLE TORAT YISRAEL, 330 Park Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Torat Yisrael. Shi'va will be observed at his late residence Thursday 7-9, Friday 2-4, Saturday 7-9, Sunday through Tuesday 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
DAVIS, Mark Allen, Jr.
Rabbi M. Davis, 72, scholar, civic leader

PALM COAST, Fla. — Rabbi M. Davis, 72, of Classic Court S. died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Marion (Cronbach) Davis.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Jacob and Sadie (Marks) Davis. He had been a summer resident of Narragansett for many years.

Rabbi Davis attended Brown University before moving to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he received a bachelor of arts degree from the University of Cincinnati, and a master's degree in Hebrew letters from Hebrew Union College, where he was ordained in 1949. While there he organized the Hillel Foundation of the University of Cincinnati, and served as its first director.

He moved to Lexington, Ky., in 1951, where he began a five-year service as rabbi of Congregation Adath Israel, director of the Hillel Foundation at the University of Kentucky, government chaplain for the U.S. Public Health Service (Prison) Hospital for drug addicts, and regional director of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations for the Ohio Valley and Kentucky/Tennessee areas.

During this time, he helped create the Kentucky Committee of Desegregation and was instrumental in desegregating the University of Kentucky.

Moving to Indianapolis, Ind., in 1956 as rabbi of the Indianapolis Hebrew Congregation, he became president of the Indianapolis Council on Human Relations, served on the Mayor's Commission on Human Rights, helped create Community Action Against Poverty, appointed to the City Housing Commission, and headed the Indianapolis/White House Conference on Adequate Housing.

In the area of inter-racial activities, he served on the board of the United Negro College Fund, was twice named honorary chairman of the NAACP, received the medal of St. Martin de Porres from the Catholic Inter-racial Council, and marched with Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. from Selma, Ala., to Montgomery, Ala.

In 1967, he became the senior rabbi of the Jewish Community Center of White Plains, N.Y. There he was involved in a variety of activities ranging from the United Farm Workers (board member) to the Police Benevolent Association, and served as chaplain of the White Plains Police and Fire Departments. He served as president of the Westchester Board of Rabbis, and for 13 years, he was on the faculty of Manhattan College.

Rabbi Davis has been honored by Marian College (Doctor of Humane Letters), Hebrew Union College (Doctor of Divinity), and Evansville University (Medal of Honor). In 1972, he began a career of combating cults, founding and serving as the first president of Citizens Engaged in Reuniting Families. In 1988, he received the Congressman Leo Ryan Award for his anti-cult activities, and at the time of his death, he served as a director of the American Family Foundation, and on the advisory board of the Cult Awareness Network and the National Committee of Cults and Missionaries.

In 1987, he became rabbi-emeritus of the Jewish Community Center. Following his retirement, he continued his rabbinic activities as visiting lecturer and member of the Presidential Council of the Academy for Jewish Religion in New York, a member of the board of the Jewish Federation of Volusia and Flagler Counties, rabbi of Congregation Shalom Aleichem of Kissimmee, Fla., and a columnist for the National Jewish Post and Opinion.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Rabbi Jay R. Davis, rabbi of Temple Beth Shalom, Vero Beach, Fla., and Rabbi Michael A. Davis, rabbi of Temple Beth El, Fort Pierce, Fla.; two sisters, Hannah Feibelman, and Carlie Zimmerman; a brother, Albert Davis, all of Cranston, and three grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at Temple Beth El, Orchard Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.
Obituaries

Nathan D. Davis

PROVIDENCE — Nathan D. Davis, 96, a resident-member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., and founder of Davis Dairy Products Co., died last night at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Rebecca (Goldsmith) Davis.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Jacob and Dina (Shepard) Davis, he lived in Providence most of his life.

Mr. Davis retired in 1965 from the business he opened on North Main Street and is now on Hope Street. A life member and honorary treasurer of Congregation Mishkan Tefilah, he was a founder of the original Ohawe Sholom Synagogue and the Providence Hebrew Sheltering. He was a former board member of Chesed Schel Emess and also a member of Temple Beth Sholom and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Mr. Davis leaves four daughters, Mrs. Miriam Feinstein of Cranston, Mrs. Ruth Gershman and Gladys Davis, both of Warwick, and Mrs. Dina H. Sholovitz of West Hartford, Conn.; a son, Judge Louis Davis of Kansas City, Mo.; two brothers, Harry Davis of Providence and Saul Davis of Boston; four sisters, Mrs. Belle Rubin of New London, Conn., Mrs. Rebecca Bellow of Boston, Mrs. Ruth Silverman and Mrs. Rose Davis, both of Los Angeles; 11 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p.m. at Mt. Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DAVIS, RACHAEL (Rosner),
63, of North Providence, died Sunday. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Hyman and Rose Rosner.
Everyone who knew her considered her a wonderful, loving and giving person. Dear mother of Mark Davis of Pawtucket and Jacqueline Christianson, North Providence, loving sister of Sandra and Gilda Rosner and Sharon Corveno, all of North Providence. Devoted grandmother of Sarah, Christina and Autumn and the late Mark Davis Jr. Caring aunt of Daniel Rosner. Funeral services will be held on Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. The Priest Chapel at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
PROVIDENCE

DAVIS, ROBERTA
(LESHNER) 75, died Wednesday, March 27, 2013. She was married to Joslin Davis for 52 years. Born in Brookline, MA, she was the daughter of the late Myer and Frances (Waters) Leshner. Mrs. Davis was a graduate of Lesley College.

She is survived by her children, Donna and Steven Goliger, Marjorie Davis, Lori and Mark Glazer; her grandchildren Sarah and Michelle Goliger and Jennifer and Matthew Glazer. She was the sister of Sandra Isaacson of Florida, Edythe Smith of California, and the late Martin Leshner. She also leaves behind several nieces and nephews.

A graveside service will be held on Friday, March 29, 2013 at 9:00 AM in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in her memory to the charity of your choice. Due to the Passover holiday, Shiva will be observed at her late residence, 100 Upton Avenue, Providence. Wednesday and Thursday April 3 and 4, 2-4 and 7:30-9:30; Friday April 5, 2-4 and Sunday April 7, 2-4 and 7:30-9:30. For information and condolences, www.SugarmanSinai.com.
Rosalie S. Davis, 78
BOCA RATON, Fla. — Rosalie S. Davis, 78, died May 2. She was the wife of Seymour Davis. Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Adolph and Florence (Marshock) Levy. She attended Hope High School. She resided in Providence and West Warwick before retiring to Boca Raton. She leaves two sons, Alan Davis of Warwick and Frank Davis of Sharon, Mass; two daughters, Ellen Graboyes of Lake Worth, Fla., and Marilyn Glantz of Cranston, and eight grandchildren, Sheri, Heather, Jessica, Andrew, Leslie, Evan, Joshua and Daniel. She was the sister of the late Oscar Levy and Bernard Levy. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
RUTH DAVIS, 84, of 50 Maude St., died Thursday at Roger Williams Hospital.

She was the wife of the late David Davis. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Barney and Annie Seltzer, she had moved to East Providence in 1986 and moved back to Providence this year.

She leaves a son, David Davis of Santa Monica, Calif.; a daughter, Helene Davis of Somerville, Mass.;
three sisters, Claire Winkelman in Florida, Florence Cohen of Warwick and Lilian Kessler of West
Palm Beach, Fla.; and a brother,
Benjamin Seltzer of Warwick.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 12:30 p.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458
Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

DAVIS, Ruth (Seltzer)
November 15, 2001. Residence: 50 Maude St., Providence. Beloved Wife of the late David Davis. Devoted Mother of Donald Davis, Santa Monica, CA, and Helene Davis, Somerville, MA.

Loving Sister of Claire Winkelman, Florida, Florence Cohen, Warwick, Lilian Kessler, West Palm Beach, FL, Benjamin Seltzer, Warwick. Funeral Services
Sunday at 12:30 p.m. at
SUGARMAN-SINAI
MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458
Hope St., Providence, RI. In lace of flowers, contributions may be made to JERI, 401 Emsgrove Ave., Provdence, RI 02906. Services will be private.
DAVIS, SEMA
85, died Saturday, September 9, 2017 at home surrounded by her family. She was the beloved wife of the late Ira Davis for 55 years. Born in Providence, the daughter of the late Charles and Bessie (Shapiro) Pollack. She had lived in Cranston for many years before moving to West Warwick. Serna was a former employee of Pollack's Delicatessen, Ross Simons, and a Senior Sales Representative at Judaic Traditions. She was also a member of Temple Emanu-El and a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael and its Sisterhood. She was an avid Curves member and a Mah Jongg maven. Devoted mother of Jeffrey Davis (Cynthia) of West Warwick and Helene Hanna (Cameron) of Warwick. Dear sister of David (Linda) Pollack of Plainville, NY and the late Phyllis Grebstein. Loving grandmother of Evan (Tara), Melanie, Brooke and Chelsea. Cherished great grandmother of Aiden. Funeral services will be held Monday at 1:00 p.m. in Temple Emanu-El, corner of Sessions St. & Morris Ave., Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Temple Emanu-El - Shabbat Chai Fund, 99 Taft Ave. Providence, RI 02906 and Hope Hospice and Palliative Care, 1085 North Main St. Providence, RI 02904. Shiva will be observed at her late residence, Quaker Valley Condominiums, 650 East Greenwich Ave., Bldg 6, Unit 405, West Warwick, Monday – Thursday & Sunday from 2-4 & 7-9, Friday 2-4 and Saturday 7-9 p.m. For online condolences, please visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
DARTMOUTH, MASS. — Dr. Sheldon E. Davis died April 13. He was the husband of the late Marilyn (Johnson) Davis. Born in New Bedford, a son of the late Harry and Bessie (Falk) Davis, he had been a lifelong resident of the New Bedford area.

Receiving a doctorate from Northwestern University in 1954, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Davis was a fellow at the Lahey Clinic, a resident physician at Boston City Hospital and a practicing physician in New Bedford for over 50 years. He was a member of Tifereth Israel Congregation.

Davis was the father of Harry J. Davis and William T. Davis; the brother of Elaine Bernstein and her husband, George; grandfather of Karen and Andrew Davis; and great-grandfather of Caitlyn Audette. He was the brother of the late Steven N. Davis and Gertrude Gollis.

Contributions in his memory may be made to Tifereth Israel Congregation or New Bedford Jewish Convalescent Home, 200 Hawthorn St., New Bedford, MA 02740.
CRANSTON

DAVIS, SHIRLEY J.
92, died Saturday, April 8, 2017 at Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center. She was the beloved wife of the late Albert Davis. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Louis and Rose (Sack) Chorney, she was a longtime resident of Cranston. Shirley was a founding member of Temple Sinai and a member of its Sisterhood. She was also a life member of Hadassah. Devoted mother of Nancy Davis (Sheila) of New York City, NY and Joel Davis of Los Angeles, CA. Dear sister of Beverly Abowitt (Morton) and the late Melvin Chorney. Loving sister-in-law of Marion Chorney and Hannah Fiebelman (Jack). Adored grandmother of Rebecca (Marvin). Cherished great-grandmother of Adina. Proud aunt of Jeffery (Jaine), Barbara (Ken), Caryl, Lisa (Ronnie), Dana (Eric), Bruce, Louis, Ira, Robbie (Delores), Jay, Michael, and Kay, and great aunt of Justin, Daniel, Rachel, Leah, Audrey, Andrew (Elaine), Marcy, Matthew, Clare (Jake), Talia (Daniel), and Ronin. Lifelong best friend of Anna Mignanelli. Funeral services will be held Monday at 11:00 a.m. in Temple Sinai, 30 Hagen Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Hope Hospice and Palliative Care, 1085 North Main St., Providence, RI 02904. Shiva will be private. For online condolences, please visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
Lucy Dawidowicz Dead At 75; Famed Holocaust Historian

by Susan Birnbaum

NEW YORK (JTA) — Lucy Dawidowicz, one of the premier historians of the Holocaust, died in her New York apartment recently of liver cancer. She was 75 years old.

"I really believe her loss is immeasurable," said Nobel Laureate Elie Wiesel, who knew Dawidowicz for 30 years. "She was among the first to teach the history of that tragedy with passion, lucidity and objectivity. Her contribution to the cause of remembrance is incomparable."

In the preface of her best-known work, The War Against the Jews, 1933-1945, which has become a classic text of the Holocaust, Dawidowicz wrote, "The Final Solution transcended the bounds of modern historical experience. Never before in modern history had one people made the killing of another the fulfillment of an ideology."

A personal memoir published last year, From that Place and Time, A Memoir 1938-1947, won the National Jewish Book Award for 1990 in the autobiography/memoir category.

Dawidowicz, born Lucy Schildkret in New York on June 16, 1915, was a lifelong Yiddishist. A product of the Sholem Aleichem Institute schools, she was a graduate of Hunter College and received her master's degree from Columbia University.

Dawidowicz was also the author of The Golden Tradition: Jewish Life and Thought in Eastern Europe; Politics in a Pluralist Democracy, an analysis of ethnic voting in the 1960 presidential election; co-editor of For Max Weinreich on his 70th Birthday: Studies in Jewish Languages, Literature and Society; The Holocaust Reader; The Jewish Presence, a collection of essays; On Equal Terms, a History of America's Jews; and The Holocaust and The Historians.
Funeral services for Norman Dean, 58, of 2015 Broad Street, Cranston, who died Saturday, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was the husband of Minnie (Goldstein) Dean.

Born in Brockton, Mass., Nov. 1, 1908, he was a son of the late William and Elizabeth (Swersky) Dean. He had been a resident of Cranston for the last two years and previously of Warwick for five years and of Providence for 23 years.

He had been employed by the Broad Street Cab Company as a driver, and was a member of Congregation Sons of Abraham, the Fraternal Order of Police, Touro Fraternal Association, the United Commercial Travelers and the Elks.

Besides his wife he is survived by two sons, William L. Dean of North Kingstown and Charles E. Dean of Middletown, Conn., and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Kaplan of Silver Springs, Md., and Mrs. Toby Dean of Astoria, Long Island, N.Y.
ADELE RUTH DECOF, 71, of Marine Avenue, died yesterday at the Philip Huitiert Hospice Center in Providence.

She was the wife of Leonard Decof. She was born in Woonsocket, daughter of the late Louis Mayer and Esther C. (Cohen) Birenbaum, and lived in Cranston for 30 years before moving to Newport 10 years ago.

Mrs. Decof was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island. She was a member of Temple Beth El, Touro Synagogue and B'Nai Israel.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Mark B. Decof of Swansea, Mass.; a daughter, Andrea B. Decof of Westwood, Mass.; and four grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Robert C. Byron.

The funeral will be held at 11 a.m. tomorrow at Temple Sinai, 30 Hagan Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Temple Beth El Cemetery, Providence.

In Memory of Adele R. Decof
the Law Firm of DECOF & GRIMM, P.C.
Will Be Closed on Wednesday, August 23, 2000

One Smith Hill
Providence, RI 02903

130 Bellevue Avenue
Newport, RI 02840
DECOF, LEONARD, 86, a resident of Providence, RI and Palm Beach Gardens, FL, died Friday, December 31, 2010. He was the beloved husband of Veda I. (Gross) Decof and the late Adele R. Decof. Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Morty and Rose (Metz) Decof. Mr. Decof was a captain in the United States Marine Corp. and served during WWII in the Pacific Theatre Operations in Guam from 1943-1946 and also served stateside in Parris Island, SC 1950-1952. Mr. Decof was a 1948 graduate of Yale University and Harvard Law School in 1953.

Mr. Decof practiced law in Providence, Rhode Island for over 50 years and was recognized locally, nationally, and internationally for his accomplishments as a trial lawyer. He established the first law firm devoted to plaintiffs' causes in 1975. His son, Attorney Mark B. Decof, became his partner in 1980, and Mr. Decof practiced law until his death.

Mr. Decof was a member of the American Bar Association, Rhode Island Bar Association, and the R.I. Association for Justice. He was a Fellow and past Dean of the International Academy of Trial Lawyers, a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers, the International Society of Barristers, and a Fellow of the Inner Circle of Advocates. He was a Diplomate of the American Board of Trial Lawyers, and was a two time recipient of the RI Bar Assoc. Award of Merit for Outstanding Services.

Mr. Decof established many precedents, both in RI and nationally, in the areas of medical malpractice, product liability, insurance, punitive damages, pharmaceutical liability, antitrust, civil rights, and sports litigation.

Mr. Decof was an avid golfer and sports enthusiast. He combined his two passions of golf and law by representing several of the world's largest golf equipment manufacturers, Ping, Callaway, and Nike Golf, as well as professional golfers such as Adam Scott, Greg Norman, Sam Snead, Billy Casper and Gardner Dickenson. He served as General Counsel for the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) and was the lead lawyer in an antitrust case against the PGA Tour and the United States Golf Association on behalf of Karsten Manufacturing Co., the maker of Ping golf clubs. As a result of his legal work in the world of professional golf, Mr. Decof was named one of the ten most powerful people in the world of golf by Golf Digest and Golf International Magazine.

In 1991, he was asked by Governor Bruce Sundlun to represent the State of Rhode Island to prosecute the major civil claims arising from the credit union failure and crisis in Rhode Island. On behalf of DEPCO, he recovered hundreds of millions of dollars and was publicly and officially commended for his work by Governor Lincoln Almond in February 2001. In 1986, Mr. Decof was chosen by the President of the Superior Court of RI and by unanimous vote of all the Justices of the Superior Court to serve as special prosecutor for the investigation of certain conduct of the Office of the...
Morty Decof

PROVIDENCE — Morty Decof, 89, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., owner of the former Morty Luncheonette for 32 years before retiring 24 years ago, died yesterday at the home. He was the husband of the late Rose (Metz) Decof.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Rabbi Louis Dichowski, and Mary Dichowski.

Mr. Decof was a member of Shaare Zedek Synagogue, the Jewish War Veterans and the Providence Fraternal Association. He was an Army veteran of World War I.

He leaves a son, Leonard Decof of Cranston; a daughter, Arlene Zisser of Seekonk; seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Irma F. Long
DeGRASS, Minnie (Horowitz)

Warwick

MINNIE (HOROWITZ) DEGRASS,
93, of 10 Ennis Place, died Thursday at Brentwood Nursing Home.

She was the wife of Charles H. DeGrass. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Samuel and Ida (Gronofsky) Horowitz, she had been a resident of Warwick for over 50 years.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Dennis DeGrass of Wakefield; a sister, Anne Garber of Providence; a brother, Jerome Horowitz of Providence; and three grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Lena Re- back, Susan Baker, Ethel Walsh, Charles Hurwitz, and Phil and William Horowitz.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence.
ROSE DEITCH, 94, of the Oakwood Terrace Nursing Home, North Miami Beach, Fla., who, with her husband, owned the former West Warwick Theatre and the former Cranston Drive-In, died yesterday at the nursing home. She was the widow of William Deitch.

Born in New York City, a daughter of the late Osha and Elka (Jelinsky) Berman, she lived in Lauderhill, Fla., for 21 years, previously living in Cranston and Providence.

Mrs. Deitch had been president of Hadassah in Cranston. She was a volunteer worker at Miriam Hospital for many years.

She leaves a daughter, Elaine Stone of Lauderhill; two sons, Gerald Deitch of Providence and Perry Deitch of West Warwick; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Burial will follow.

DEITCH, Rose (Berman)
August 31, 1996. Beloved wife of the late William Deitch. Resident of Lauderhill, FL; formerly of Cranston and Providence. Dear mother of Elaine Stone, Lauderhill, FL; Gerald Deitch, Providence and Perry Deitch, West Warwick. Devoted grandmother of seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Graveside Funeral Service 1 p.m. Tuesday at LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Post Rd., Warwick. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Memorial Observance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Deitch, 197 Greenbush Road, West Warwick Tues. 7-9 p.m. and Wed.-Thurs. 2-4; 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL.
ANN DEITSCH, 95, of Water­view Villa, and formerly of Providence, died Tuesday at home.

She was the wife of the late Benjamin Deitsch. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Hyman and Fannie (Aronson) Sheiner, she had lived in Providence most of her life.

Mrs. Deitsch was a graduate of the Providence public school system.

She leaves two grandchildren, Robert Lubin and Zipporah Sandler; and a great-grandson. She was the mother of the late Norma Lubin, and the sister of the late Ida Gregerman and Rose Turco.

A graveside service will be conducted tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Sinai Memorial Park, 100 Harr­ison St., Warwick.
Cranston

DELEON, THELMA "TOMMIE", 93, of 575 Seven Mile Rd., died Wednesday at Cra-Mar Meadows, Cranston. She was the beloved wife of the late Ben Sinel and the late Benjamin Deleon.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Abraham and Ida (Taber) Abrich, she had lived in Cranston for 25 years, previously living in Providence. Tommie was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island. She was a treasurer of the Miriam Hospital Women’s Association and the former Women’s Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged. She was also a volunteer and officer of many civic and religious organizations.

Devoted mother of Alec Sinel and his wife Donna of North Kingston, Sharon Sinel of Newton, MA and Ina Katzman and her husband Norman of Marblehead, MA. Dear sister of the late Morris, Israel, George, Jacob, Arthur and Rose Abrich and Sadie Deleon. Adored grandmother of Daniel, Stacy, Sarah, Ariana, Sophie and the late Benjamin Feldman. Cherished great grandmother of Alexa.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Home and Hospice Care of Rhode Island, 169 George St., Pawtucket, RI 02860. The funeral and Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.
LOWELL DELERSON
TAMARAC, Fla. — Lowell Delerson, 73, of 5819 Swordfish Ct. (B), died Jan. 26 at the Pompano Beach Medical Center, Pompano Beach, Fla. He was the husband of Florence (Berman) Delerson.

Born in Providence, R.I., he was the son of the late Bertha (Davison) Delerson Keller Kahn and Meyer Delerson. He lived in Tamarac, Fla., since 1985.

He was a member of the Providence Fraternal Organization, the Sackin Shockin Post and the American Association of Kidney Patients. He served in the navy during World War II.

He was a former member of the Congregation Shaare Zedek — Sons of Abraham in Providence, R.I.

He is survived by three sons, Marc Delerson of Tamarac, Fla., Neil Delerson (Audrea) of Plano, Texas, and Alan Delerson of San Jose, Calif.; and his sister, Zelda Rodyn of Dania, Fla.
Lila Delman, 73; founder of Lila Delman Real Estate

By GERALD S. GOLDSTEIN
Journal Staff Writer

NARRAGANSETT — Lila Delman, 73, of 41 Ocean Rd., who founded the realty company that bears her name and whose dynamic style turned her into a public personality, died on Thursday at South County Hospital, Wakefield, after an extended illness.

She was the wife of Clement Delman.

Mrs. Delman, successful in real estate at a time when few women had entered the business, began in the early 1960s by searching out rentals — at no commission — for out-of-town friends who longed to summer by the sea.

"I said to myself, you might as well make money at it," she once recalled. Soon, with her daughter Stephanie, she had begun to corral major listings — including one oceanfront mansion designed and built by McKim, Mead and White, the designers of the State House and Narragansett's most noted landmark, the Towers.

As the rental part of her business expanded, Mrs. Delman took a special interest in finding apartments for minorities, at a time when housing discrimination was not uncommon in Rhode Island.

She continued to operate Lila Delman Real Estate — now run by a daughter and son-in-law, and expanded to Newport — until illness forced her retirement in 1988.

A government watchdog through the years, Mrs. Delman frequently attended Town Council meetings and was a key member in the 1960s of a citizens' group that made headlines by discovering inequities in the municipal tax roles.

Once described in a Journal story as "a magnificently big woman," Mrs. Delman accented her presence with trademark, flowing dresses in floral patterns and bright colors; chartreuse and coral were favorites.

In fact, Mrs. Delman once drew the enmity of her neighbors when she had her rambling, 19th-century home on Ocean Road — neighboring the Towers — painted coral.

"Everybody hated it," recalled her husband — but not Mrs. Delman, whose taste also ran to ornate antiques that she bought at estate sales whenever a local mansion went on the block.

Her love for the community and its history resulted in a lawn replete with classical statuary from old mansions, and a home office crammed with an astonishing array of period carvings, lamps and clocks.

For years, Mrs. Delman swam daily, even into December, at her beloved town beach — she once served as a beach commissioner — and she was also a familiar site on the bicycle she rode around town.

The Delman name, now familiar in real estate circles, was originally neither hers nor her husband's.

Born Lila Pearlman, Mrs. Delman descended from an orthodox Jewish family that ran the former Sterling shoe store in downtown Providence.

She met Clement Delucia, an Italian-Catholic toolmaker from Providence, on Narragansett Beach. When they were married in 1947, the couple decided to merge their last names, taking the "DeL" from Delucia and the "man" from Pearlman to form Delman.

Mrs. Delman was a daughter of the late Israel and Ida (Mines) Pearlman of Providence.

In addition to her husband, she leaves three daughters, Melanie Delman and Pamela Hodnett, both of Narragansett, and Stephanie Baden of Cathedral City, Calif.; a son, Brian Delman of Newport and Narragansett; five brothers, Alan, Thomas, Marc and Leonard Pearlman, all of Providence, and Ben Pearlman of Cape Cod; four sisters, Adele Curhan of Narragansett, Alice Mandel of Washington, D.C., Anna Shabalowitz of Fall River, and Caroline Leighton of Sherman Oaks, Calif., and four grandchildren. She was also a sister of the late Elaine Barron.

The funeral was private.
DELUCA, SHARON LYNN,
62, died Tuesday, October 28, 2014, at Rhode Island Hospital.
She was the beloved wife of the late Carl E. Veyera.
Born in Providence, a daughter of Laurel "Libby" (Pass) DeLuca of Warwick and the late Anthony DeLuca, she had lived in Wakefield for 12 years, previously residing in East Greenwich. Sharon, who earned degrees in MS, RN, and CNS, was Director for Emergency Medicine and Behavioral Health at South Kingstown Hospital and Psychiatric Consultant and Adjunct Instructor of Nursing at URI. She formerly practiced as a Clinical Nurse Specialist in the Department of Medicine at Women & Infants Hospital.
Devoted mother of Michael DeLuca and his fiancé, Paula Gallo, of Wakefield and Greg DeLuca and his fiancé, Susan Barabino, of Ellicott City, MD.
Dear sister of Joe DeLuca and his wife, Beth, of Jacksonville, FL and Michelle Ferrara and her husband, Bill, of Clarendon Hills, IL. Loving grandmother of Alexandra, Max and Bella.
Funeral services will be held Friday at 10:00 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Community Cancer Center at South County Hospital, 100 Kenyon Ave., Wakefield, RI 02879. Shiva will be observed at the home of Libby DeLuca, Saturday, 7-9 p.m. For online condolences, visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
DESMOUTH, Doris P. (Viner)

December 24, 1996. Residence: 39 Greylock Ave., Cranston. Beloved wife of Jerome Desmith. Devoted mother of Harris Deluty, Fairfield, CT; Edward Deluty, Cranston; and Maxine Roberts, Wellesley, MA. Dear sister of Beverly Baron, Brockton, MA and Marilyn Rose, Atlanta, GA. Adored grandmother of five. Funeral Services Friday at 12 Noon at MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (Corner Doyle Ave.), Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Temple Torah Yisrael, 330 Park Ave., Cranston 02905. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Saturday 7-9; Sunday and Monday 2-4; 7-9.

DORIS P. DESMOUTH, 70, of 39 Greylock Ave., an investigator for the State Department of Labor for many years, retiring nine years ago, died Tuesday at Delray Medical Center, Delray Beach, Fla. She was the wife of Jerome Desmith.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Max and Sarah (Markoff) Viner, she moved to Cranston 45 years ago.

Mrs. Desmith was a graduate of the former Pembroke College, now Brown University. A member of Hadassah, she was a member of Temple Torah Yisrael, president of its former Sisterhood, and a member of its board of trustees. She was also a member of the Women's Association of the former Jewish Home for Aged.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Harris Deluty of Fairfield, Conn., and Edward Deluty of Cranston; a daughter, Maxine Roberts of Wellesley, Mass.; two sisters, Beverly Baron of Brockton, Mass., and Marilyn Rose of Atlanta, Ga.; and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
DEUTZ, JEROME, 88, of Cedar Point Blvd., Boynton Beach, FL and Cranston, died peacefully Saturday, Dec. 27th, in Hospice of Palm Beach County, Delray Beach. He was the beloved husband of the late Doris (Viner) Deluty.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Louis and Sadie (Garlick) Deluty, he had lived in Cranston for 58 years. Jerome was a graduate of Hope High School, Class of 1937 and Brown University, Class of 1941. He was a WW-II Army veteran serving in the South Pacific. He was a member of Touro Fraternal Assoc. and Temple Torah Yisrael and its Men's Club.

Devoted father of Edward Deluty and his wife Karen of Cranston, Harris Deluty and his wife LiYing of Singapore and Maxine Roberts of Wellesley, MA. Dear brother of Gertrude Stein Nelson and her husband Sam, Lenore Edenbaum and her husband Jesse and Helene Klein and her husband Richard, all of Cranston. Loving grandfather of Melissa, Alana, Daniel, Evan and Sarah. Cherished companion of Anne Mushnick of Narragansett and Boynton Beach.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Home and Hospice Care of RI, 169 George St., Pawtucket, RI 02860. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Deluty, 90 Sheffield Road, Cranston Tuesday 7-9 and Wednesday 2-4 & 7-9 p.m.
Louis Deluty

PROVIDENCE — Louis Deluty, 94, of the Jewish Home For the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., died yesterday at the home. He was the husband of the late Sadie (Garlick) Deluty.

Mr. Deluty was owner and operator of Louis' Men Shop, East Providence, for more than 20 years until retiring in 1964.

He was a member of Temple Sinai; Temple Torat Yisrael; the Touro Fraternal Association; the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association; the Moes Chitim Society, and was a resident member of the Jewish Home For the Aged.

He was born in Poland, a son of the late Zalman and Rachel Deluty. He was a resident of Providence for more than 50 years, previously living in Cranston and Warwick.

He leaves a son, Jerome Deluty of Cranston; three daughters, Mrs. Lenore Edenbaum of Cranston, Mrs. Gertrude Stein of Woonsocket, and Mrs. Helene Klein of Cranston; nine grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DEMBER, CLAIRE BLANCHE
(KLITZNER), 86, of 116 Upton Ave., died Saturday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the beloved wife of Irving Dember. They were married for 57 years.

A lifelong Providence resident, she was a daughter of the late Harry and Frances (Pocker) Klitzner. She was a graduate of Columbia University School of Nursing and as an assistant supervisor of the District Nurses of Providence, retiring in 1949. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Leisure Club and a past member of the Chopin Club.

Devoted mother of James and Lynn Dember. Dear sister of the late William and Robert Klitzner and Thelma Ross.

Graveside services will be held Sunday at 1:00 p.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Post Road, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Temple Emanu-El. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
EDWARD DEMBER, 77, of 6211 Scituate Vista Drive, a former salesman, died yesterday at Roger Williams Medical Center.

He was the husband of the late Adelaide (Klein) Dember, and the former husband of Eileen Rechter. Born in Providence, a son of the late Albert and Fannie (Cohen) Dember, he lived in Cranston for 10 years previously living in Warwick.

Mr. Dember was employed at the former Outlet Co. for 25 years. He was a Coast Guard veteran of World War II and had served in Europe.

Besides his former wife, he leaves two brothers, Irving Dember of Providence and Jerome Dember of Tucson, Ariz.

A graveside service will be held today at 11:30 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

DEMBER, Edward
April 6, 2000. Residence: 6211 Scituate Vista Dr., Cranston. Beloved husband of the late Adelaide (Klein) Dember. Dear brother of Irving Dember of Providence and Jerome Dember of Tucson, AZ. Former husband and friend of Eileen Rechter. Graveside funeral service Friday at 11:30 AM at LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Emunu El or Jewish Family Service. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.
DEMBER, IRVING

98, died Saturday, May 13, 2017 at home. He was a gentle and generous man, and he knew how to make everyone he met smile and feel good. He was the beloved husband of the late Blanche (Klitzer) Dember. They were married for 57 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Albert and Fany (Cohen) Dember, he was a lifelong Providence resident. He was the former owner of the Providence Badge Co. Irving was a WWII Army veteran, serving in India. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and a member of the Masons & Shriners for 60 years. Devoted father of James Dember of Providence and the late Linda Lynne Dember. Dear brother of the late Jerry and Bernie Dember. Cherished uncle of Lynn, Dyan, Michael, Dayle, Alan, Mark, and Barry.

Graveside services will be held Monday at 2:30 p.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Emanu-El, 99 Taft Ave., Providence, RI 02906 or the Shriners Children’s Hospital, 51 Blossom Street, Boston, MA 02114. Shiva will be private. For online condolences, please visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
DEMBER, LINDA "LYNN", 60, of Upton Avenue, died Saturday, 12/19/09, in Rhode Island Hospital.

A lifelong Providence resident, she was the beloved daughter of Irving Dember of Providence and the late Claire Blanche (Klitzner) Dember. Lynn was a graduate of American University and was a dealer of art & antiques.

Dear sister of James Dember of Pawtucket.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in the PRIEST CHAPEL in Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Road, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to the American Heart Association or Temple Emanu-El. Shiva will be observed at the Marriott Hotel, Orms Street, Providence, Tuesday, 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
CRANSTON — Celia DeMarco, 81, of 184 Laurens St. died yesterday at the Hospice Care of Rhode Island, In-Patient Center, Maude Street, Providence. She was the widow of Silvio DeMarco.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Abraham and Fannie (Dronkoff) Silverman, she moved to Cranston 50 years ago.

She leaves two daughters, Anita Simons of Cranston, and Fay Abrahamson of Kissimmee, Fla.; eight grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held today at 10 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DENHOF, DONALD GARY, 66, formerly of Providence, passed away peacefully at home in Charleston, SC, on Tuesday, November 13, after a long illness.

He is survived by his wife, Joie Kirkland Denhoff, two sons, Scott and Dakota, mother, Sylvia Denhoff, sister, Barbara Denhoff Dworkin and brother Joseph Denhoff. He was the son of the late Dr. Eric Denhoff.

Funeral Services were held in Charleston, SC.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the Charleston Jewish Federation, 1645 Wallenberg Blvd., Charleston, SC 29407, or a charity of your choice.
DR. ERIC DENHOFF

PROVIDENCE — Dr. Eric Denhoff, 69, of 8 Morrison St., cofounder and medical director of Meeting Street School, died Monday at Miriam Hospital after a long illness. He was the husband of Sylvia (Brooklyn) Denhoff.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a son of the late Joseph and Lillian (Linsky) Denhoff, he came to Taunton as a young man.

Dr. Denhoff earned his medical degree in 1938 from the University of Vermont and served internships at St. Luke's Hospital in New Bedford, and Boston City Hospital.

In 1941, he joined the staff of the Emma Pendleton Bradley Hospital, where he began specializing in the neurological and psychiatric diseases of children. For his internship, he studied children with cerebral palsy. In 1941, the Easter Seal Society asked Dr. Denhoff to be the medical director of what would become Meeting Street School. He was cofounder with Margaret Langdon.

His main interest was in discovering abnormalities before the problem became severe. In recent years he had become best known for his research concerning hyperactive children.

He was the recipient of many awards, including the 1981 Leydorf Medical Clinic National Service Award, the American Medical Association's Physician's Recognition Award in Continuing Medical Education in 1973, 1976 and 1979. He also received an Honorary Doctor of Science from Brown University in 1980 and the Rhode Island Division of Vocational Rehabilitation Ben Fish Award for Outstanding Leadership for Handicapped Children in 1967. He was also the author of many books and professional articles.

Dr. Denhoff also held academic appointments at Rhode Island, Miriam, Women & Infants, Roger Williams General and Newport Hospitals.

He was a member of Temple Emanuel and Congregation Agudeth Achem in Taunton.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Donald Gary Denhoff of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Joseph Ira Denhoff of Wickford R.I.; a daughter, Barbara Laurie Denhoff, of New York City; and a sister, Mrs. Florence Feldman of Pawtucket.

The funeral service was held on Tuesday at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial was in Mt. Nebo Cemetery in Taunton. Funeral arrangements were by the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence.
DENHOF, SYLVIA BROOKLYN

was born in Passaic, New Jersey on May 6th 1918. She died January 2nd 2018 at her home in Providence. She was 99.8 years old, and proud to reach her centennial year. Her parents, Alice Zacharevitz Brooklyn and Alexander Brooklyn were Russian Jewish immigrants. They had four children; Mil, Syl, Lil and Ed. Millie, the eldest sister, set the standard that they should all, regardless of gender, become educated. Sylvia went to Syracuse University, and graduated from the College of Home Economics in 1940.

A professor recommended her for a job with the Providence Gas Company as the "Girl in White." She hadn’t a clue where Providence was, but packed her bags and got on the train from New York to Providence to begin her new life, living in a boarding house on Olney Street for $3 a week. Her job was to teach new brides how to cook on their new gas stoves. She also instructed a Food and Nutrition course for the Red Cross.

In 1941 she met her late husband, Dr. Eric Denhoff on a blind date. Expecting a visit from her sister, she almost cancelled, but later changed her mind – it was Beshert. After seeing one another three times, Eric left for the South Pacific to serve as a medic in the war. While away, the two corresponded by letter and she mailed him fruitcakes—"because fruitcakes don't go stale."

During WWII she worked as a food columnist for the liberal-leaning daily newspaper, PM Magazine, providing recipes for nutritious meals on a tight budget, and explaining how to efficiently use leftovers. Eric and Sylvia married in New York City on July 8th 1945. The bride picked a blue dress from her wardrobe; wearing a new dress was considered unfashionable during wartime.

Over their thirty-six years together, they traveled the globe. They had three children; the late Donald "Beagle" Denhoff, Joseph Ira Denhoff and Barbara (Bidi) Denhoff.

Sylvia pioneered a cooking course at Governor Center School. She felt strongly that boys should have confidence in the kitchen. She was a longtime board member at Meeting Street School which was co-founded by her husband Eric. There she taught sewing classes and read to children in the library until recently. She was a member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association, Temple Emanu-El and The National Council of Jewish Women. She swam three times a week at the JCC—well into her nineties. She was revered for her signature cookies, kugels and cakes (recipe below).

She is survived by brother Edwin Brooklyn and and sister-in-law Carol, son Joseph Denhoff and daughter-in-law Amy, daughter Bidi Dworkin and son-in-law Jeremy, and her grandchildren Erica, Leah, Eli, Chase, Scott, and Dakota. She cherished her extended family and friends, including those at Wingate on the East Side.

When asked how she’d managed to age so gracefully she said "I roll with the punches." She celebrated the arrival of 2018, her centennial year, at a New Years Eve Party.

Recipe from the kitchen of Sylvia.

Almond Cookies

½ cup butter or margarine
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 tsp. almond extract
2 cups flour
2 tsp. baking powder
Salt to taste

Cream butter and sugar. Add egg and almond extract, sift together dry ingredients and add. Mix well.
Form into 2 or 3 rolls. Wrap in waxed paper or plastic wrap, chill in refrigerator overnight, or 2 or 3 days. Slice, and place on a greased cookie sheet, top each cookie with \( \frac{1}{2} \) almond, skin removed. Bake about 15 minutes or until lightly browned at 350\(^\circ\). Enjoy!

Funeral services will be held Sunday, January 7th at 10AM at Temple Emanu-El, 99 Taft Ave, Providence with burial in Mt. Nebo Cemetery, Taunton, MA. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to The Sylvia Denhoff Library Fund at Meeting Street, 1000 Eddy St., Providence, RI 02905 or www.meetingstreet.org. Further inquiries, SugarmanSinai.com
Bristol

LUCY (RESNICK) DERECHIN, 61, of North Farm Drive, died Saturday at St. Anne's Hospital, Fall River.

She was the wife of Michael Derechin. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a daughter of the late Aaron and Mildred (Abelson) Resnick, she had lived in Rehoboth for 20 years before moving to Bristol in 1990, and had wintered in Sanibel, Fla., since 1995.

Mrs. Derechin was a graduate of Chatham College, Pittsburgh, where she received a bachelor's degree. She also did postgraduate work at Rhode Island School of Design.

Besides her husband, she leaves four sons, Adam Derechin of Tarrytown, N.Y., Joshua Derechin of Charleston, W.Va., Matt Derechin of Jacksonville Beach, Fla., and Daniel Derechin of Chicago; a sister, Jessica Lamb of Longmeadow, Mass.; and three grandchildren.

The funeral service will be private.
Sidney Charles Derman

PROVIDENCE — Sidney Charles Derman died May 24. He was the husband of Sheila Derman.

He was the father and father-in-law of Susan and Duncan Yaggy, Donald and Kaye Derman, Lisa Derman and David Lambert, and Ruth and Jonathan Fain.; he leaves seven grandchildren; Dale and Jake Epstein, Brooke and Dana Lambert, and Daniel and Gregory Fain; and a sister, Elaine Spanier.

Burial was in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence.

Contributions may be made to the Miriam Hospital Foundation Oncology Research Fund, 164 Summit Ave., Providence, RI, 02906.
Sheila Derman

DERMAN, SHEILA

90. Passed away August 30, 2017. A woman of spirit and determination, she returned to college and then law school while raising four children and served as an attorney for many years. She touched the hearts of all who knew her with her warmth, humor, and extraordinary generosity of spirit.

She was married for 59 years to the late Sidney Derman. Beloved mother of Susan Yaggy (Duncan), Donald Derman (Kaye), Lisa Derman (David), and Ruth Fain (Jonathan). Adored grandmother of Dale Epstein, Jake Epstein (Brittany), Brooke Lambert, Dana Lambert, Daniel Fain, and Gregory Fain.

Memorial service TODAY, Friday, September 1st, at 1:00PM at the Redwood Chapel at Swan Point Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be sent to the Rhode Island Philharmonic. Shiva will be held at Laurelmead, Saturday 7-9PM and at the home of Ruth and Jonathan Fain, Sunday 2-4PM. For information, www.SugarmanSinai.com

Funeral Home
Funeral services for Harry Dermer, 67, of 222 Thurbers Avenue, who died Monday after a long illness, were held Wednesday at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. He was the husband of Ida (Bernstein) Dermer.

He was born in Austria, Sept. 1, 1899, a son of the late Richard and Faye (Gaster) Dermer, and he had been a resident of this city for the last 35 years. He was a member of the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association and the Miriam Hospital Association.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Zigmund Dermer of Pittsburgh; a daughter, Mrs. Ralph Stoddard of Long Island, N. Y.; a brother, Morry Dermer of Bayonne, N. J.; two sisters, Mrs. Leon Schechter and Mrs. Martha Bisberg, both of Brooklyn, N.Y., and eight grandchildren.
DERMER, Ida C.
(Bernstein)

August 13, 1992. Residence
1 Shalom Dr., Warwick. Beloved wife of the late Harry Dermer. Devoted mother of Zigmund L. Dermer, Pittsburg Pa and Anne Stoddard, Manhasset NY. Dear sister of Frieda Bassow of Provdence. Loving grandmother of eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Graveside Funeral Service
Sunday 2 p.m. at LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Post
Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by THE MAX SU­ GARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St.,
(corner of Doyle Ave.) Michael D. Smith, Associate.

WARWICK — Ida C. Dermer, 90, of 1 Shalom Drive, a fitter in the ladies alterations department at the former Outlet Company for over 30 years, retiring in 1969, died Thursday at home. She was the wife of the late Harry Dermer.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Sigmund and Anna (Kreitman) Bernstein, she had lived in Provdence most of her life before moving to Warwick 12 years ago.

Mrs. Dermer was a member of the Pioneer Women and the Cranston Senior Guild. She was active in many Jewish organizations.

She leaves a son, Zigmund
Dermer of Pittsburgh; a daughter, Anne Stoddard of Manhasset, N.Y.; a sister, Frieda Bassow of Provdence; eight grandchildren and two great-granddaughters.

A graveside funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road.
Obituaries/Funerals

Marion Desotnek

NEWPORT — Marion Desotnek, 84, of Ayrault St. died Thursday, Sept. 3, 1992, at Newport Hospital. She was the wife of the late Dr. William Desotnek, who died in 1950.

Born in Chicago, Aug. 25, 1908, she was the daughter of the late George and Nettie Kaminsky Grossman.

Mrs. Desotnek came to Newport in 1935. She was a dedicated piano teacher, and taught until July of this year. She was the past president of the Newport chapter of Hadassah, and was active in many musical organizations.

She leaves a daughter, Joyce Rosenthal of Newport, two grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter.

Her funeral will be Sunday, Sept. 6, 1992, at 2:30 p.m. in the Hoffman Jewish Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue, Newport. Burial will be in the Jewish Cemetery, Farewell Street, Newport. Donations may be made to the charity of one's choice.

Deaths

DESOTNEK - In Newport, RI, September 3, 1992, Marion B. (Grossman) Desotnek, wife of the late Dr. William Desotnek, mother of Joyce Rosenthal, grandmother of Marian Richter, William Richter, and great-grandmother of Emma S. Richter. Residence Ayrault Street, Newport. Funeral services will be held Sunday, September 6, in the Hoffman Jewish Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue, Newport, at 2:30 p.m. Contributions may be made in her memory to the charity of one's choice.
Funeral services for Mrs. Dora Deutch, 87, of 1357 Wampanoag Trail, East Providence, who died Wednesday, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The widow of Samuel N. Deutch, she was born on Nov. 10, 1881 in Russia, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cohen. A former resident of Sumter Street in Providence, she had lived in that city for more than 80 years.

Mrs. Deutch was a charter member of Temple Beth Israel and honorary vice president of its Sisterhood. For many years she was admissions chairman of the Jewish Home for the Aged. She also was a member of the Brandeis University Hospital’s Women’s Association, Touro Fraternal Association and the Providence Fraternal Association.

Mrs. Deutch is survived by a son, Edward Deutch of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. Ira Blum of East Providence, four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.
EDWARD DEUTCH

EDWARD DEUTCH UNIFORMS

349 BROADWAY

PROVIDENCE

WILL BE CLOSED

ALL DAY WEDNESDAY,

SEPTEMBER 21

OUT OF RESPECT FOR

Edward Deutch

EAST PROVIDENCE — Edward Deutch, 74, of 300 East Shore Circle, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital after a brief illness. He was the husband of Bess (Rosen) Deutch.

He was the owner and operator of the Edward Deutch Uniforms of Providence for 15 years. He was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Men's Club; a past master of the Roosevelt Masonic Lodge and a 32nd degree mason; a member of B'nai B'rith; a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and a member of the Ledgemont Country Club.

He was treasurer of the Providence Fraternal Order of Police, an honorary member of the Rhode Island Association of Police Chiefs and an honorary member of the New England Association of Police Chiefs.

He was born in Providence Feb. 27, 1903, a son of the late Samuel and Dora (Cohen) Deutch, and had lived in Providence most of his life until he moved to East Providence four years ago.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Dr. Richard Deutch of Bay Harbor Island, Fla.; a daughter, Mrs. Herbert Field of Jamaica Way Tower, Boston; a sister, Mrs. Janet Blum of East Providence, and six grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.
HERMAN DEUTSCH

TAUNTON — Herman Deutsch, 88, of 8 Pierce Ave., Taunton, Mass., died Sept. 13 at the Morton Hospital & Medical Center in Taunton. He was the husband of Hazel (Duffen) Deutsch. Born in Baltimore, Md., he was a son of the late Morris and Ida (Gold) Deutsch. He had resided in Taunton for more than 60 years.

He was co-founder and partner with the late Frank Emord of the former D&E Auto Parts store in Taunton. He owned the business for 60 years, retiring in 1988.

He was a member of Congregation Augudas Achim in Taunton and was a life member of the Taunton Lions Club.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three brothers, Meyer Deutsch of Taunton, Louis and Harry Deutsch of Baltimore, Md.; three sisters, Shirley Weinstein of Hartford, Conn., and Frances Deutsch and Louise Gold of Baltimore and numerous nieces and nephews.

A graveside funeral service took place Sept. 16 at Mount Nebo Cemetery in Taunton and was coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Providence.
Funeral services for Samuel N. Deutch of 143 Sumter Street who died Nov. 26 at his home after a seven-month illness, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Dora (Cohen) Deutch, he was born in Russia the son of the late Solomon and Rachel Deutch and had been a resident of the city for more than 65 years.

The retired president of the former Leader Clothing Shop on Broadway, he was a charter member of Temple Beth Israel and was on the board of directors of the Jewish Home for the Aged. He belonged to the Touro Fraternal Association and the Providence Fraternal Association.

Besides his widow, he is survived by a son, Edward of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. Ira Blum; a sister, Mrs. Celia Pliner, both of Providence; a brother, Jacob Deutch of New York City; four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

SAMUEL N. DEUTCH

ISADORE M. ROBERTS
JOSEPH DEUTSCH, OF WESTERLY, DIES

Was Active in Jewish Circles There

Joseph Deutsch of 125 Canal street, Westerly, husband of Mrs. Ruth M. Suzman Deutsch died last Monday at his home following an illness of several months. He was 29 years old.

Mr. Deutsch was born in Westerly August 7, 1907, the son of the late Louis and Mrs. Rebecca Deutsch. He attended the local grammar schools and graduated from Westerly High School in the class of 1925. He attended Rhode Island State College for two years, until the death of his father in 1926 when he took over a grocery business which he operated lately as one of a chain in the I. G. A. System.

Mr. Deutsch was a member of the Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity at Rhode Island State college, and was a past master of the Westerly order of the Knights of Pythias.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth M. Suzman Deutsch, formerly of Bristol, to whom he was wed November 15, 1933; his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Deutsch; a sister, Miss Esther Deutsch, and three brothers, Myer Deutsch of South Norwalk, Conn., and Rueben and Samuel of Westerly. The latter was associated with him in the grocery business.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Congregation Sharah Zedek Synagogue on Union street, Westerly. Rabbi Samuel Ruderman of New London, Conn., was in charge of burial services. Burial was in the Hebrew Benevolent Cemetery, Preston, Conn.
Diamant, Fay Lipton, 99 passed away peacefully with her family by her side on August 22, 2017. She was born in Brooklyn, NY to Pearl and Morris Bricker. Sister of the late Betty Rubin and Paul Bricker. She was married during World War II to her late husband Meyer Lipton for 40 years and later married Daniel Diamant, whom she was married to for 20 years, before his passing at age 92. She was a legal secretary during World War II and continued this career until she retired to Florida in 1974. An avid golfer, a yoga instructor, her passion was painting and she continued to paint into her 90s, getting inspiration for her subjects through her many travels and family. Fay is survived by her daughter Barbara Halzel and her husband, Leonard, of Providence, her daughter Sherry Andretta and her husband, John, of Miami Beach, Florida. She also leaves her grandsons Michael Halzel and Eric Halzel and his wife, Abby. Her great-grandchildren, Sabrina and Griffin, brought her much joy. Graveside services will be held in Wellwood Cemetery in New York. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Thyroid Cancers Survivors Association at THYCA.org or Hope Hospice & Palliative Care of RI, 1085 North Main Street, Providence, RI 02904. Shiva will be observed at Wingate of the East Side, 1 Butler Avenue, Providence on Sunday from 12-4 & 6-8 p.m.
George Diamond

PROVIDENCE — George Diamond, 70, of 670 N. Main St., died today in the Summit Medical Center after an illness of five months. He was the husband of Sylvia (Holster) Diamond.

Mr. Diamond was a real estate salesman for the S. H. Wilk Realty Co.

He was born in Pennsylvania
Oct. 26, 1900, a son of the late Oscar and Rachel (Cohen) Diamond, and had lived in Providence for more than 50 years.

He was a member and past president of the Providence Fraternal Association, the Congregation of Shaare Zedek and the Rhode Island Realtor's Association.

Besides his wife, survivors are two daughters, Mrs. Jeanne Feldman of Pawtucket and Mrs.
Harriet Adlbarg of Grinell, Iowa; three brothers, Morris Diamond of Delray Beach, Fla., Robert Diamond of California, Md., and Harry Diamond of the Bronx,
N.Y.; four sisters, Mrs. Edith Markowitz of Warwick, Mrs.
Fay Goldwyn of St. Louis, and Mrs. Julia Katz and Mrs. Sara Cohn, both of Providence, and six grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Funeral services for Mrs. Ida (Sherman) Diamond, 80, formerly of 279 Ward Street, Woonsocket, who died Tuesday after an illness of more than two years, were held the same day at B'nai Israel Synagogue with Rabbi Pesach Krauss officiating. Arrangements were under the direction of the Chevra Kadisha. Burial was in B'nai Israel Cemetery.

She was the widow of Max Diamond, former operator of the Diamond Fruit Company in Woonsocket.

A Woonsocket resident for about 60 years, Mrs. Diamond was born in Russia on Aug. 15, 1883, a daughter of the late Harry and Mary (Feinberg) Sherman. She was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel, Woonsocket Chapter of Hadassah and the congregation's Sisterhood.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Arthur Melnick of Boston, and Mrs. Charles Kaufman of Pawtucket; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Performing the funeral rites were Mrs. Max Wasserman, Mrs. Herman Levinson and Mrs. S. Robert Sadwin, all members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Chevra Kadisha.

Bearers, all members of the Chevra Kadisha, were Jacob Yanow, Nathan Swartz, Nathan C. Goldfine, Alexander Brenner, Benjamin Macktaz and Aaron Block.
DIAMOND, Jeanette

February 21, 2000. Residence: 1485 High St., Central Falls. Beloved daughter of the late Charles and Hannah (Grosanofsky) Diamond. Dear sister of Sylvia Diamond of Coventry, Ruby Glass of Los Angeles, and the late Ida, Mollie and Natalie Diamond; Lillian Miller, Sophie Botvin and Fay Archler. Graveside funeral service Thursday at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Hospice Care of R.I. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHOLOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.

Central Falls

JEANETTE DIAMOND, 83, of 1485 High St., a retired jewelry worker, died Monday at Memorial Hospital of Rhode Island.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., a daughter of the late Charles and Hannah (Grosanofsky) Diamond, she had lived in Cranston for 17 years before moving to Central Falls four years ago. She had also lived in Providence for many years.

Miss Diamond was employed at Bri-er Jewelry Mfg. Co. for 25 years, before retiring 21 years ago.

She leaves two sisters, Sylvia Diamond of Coventry and Ruby Glass of Los Angeles, Calif.; and several nieces and nephews. She was the sister of the late Ida, Mollie and Natalie Diamond, Lillian Miller, Sophie Botvin and Fay Archler.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Jessie E. Diamond

CRANSTON — Jessie E. Diamond, 76, of 315 Park Ave., founder and proprietor of Jessie Diamond Catering Service, died today at Miriam Hospital. She was the wife of Larry Diamond.

Mrs. Diamond established the catering firm in 1950 and retired in 1977.

She was a member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association and the Women's Association of the Jewish Home For the Aged.

She was born in Fall River, Mass., a daughter of the late Joseph and Rebecca (Ofsevit) Yoken. She lived in Providence most of her life before moving to Cranston five years ago.

Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Susan Capuano and Miss Anne Diamond, both of Providence; two sons, Philip Diamond of Sherman Oaks, Calif., and Joseph Diamond of West Orange, N.J., and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be Sunday at a time to be announced at the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
LARRY DIAMOND, 87, of the Rosewood Manor, 140 Pitman St., died yesterday at the manor. He was the husband of the late Jessie (Yoken) Diamond.

Born in Sheffield, England, a son of the late Joseph and Esther Diamond, he lived in Providence for many years.

Mr. Diamond was a sales representative for several chemical manufacturing companies for 15 years before retiring in 1976. He had been owner of the former Diamond Cleansers for 10 years. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association.

He leaves two daughters, Susan Capuano of Providence, and Anne Diamond of Cranston; two sons, Philip Diamond of Arleta, Calif., and Joseph Diamond of Livingston, N.J.; five grandchildren, and one great-grandson.

The funeral service will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at the chapel of the Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Burial will follow.

DIAMOND, Larry

Arrangements by MT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
MARY EDITH DIAMOND
DELRAY BEACH, Fla. — Mary Edith (Slosberg) Diamond, of Delray Beach, died on Jan. 16. She was the widow of Maurice Diamond.

She was born in Lynn, Mass., and was 91.

She moved to Delray Beach, Fla., approximately 20 years ago, but had lived in Providence for many years. She worked for many years in the millinery department of Jean's Department Store in downtown Providence, until retiring.

She is survived by a daughter, Eleanor Sugerman of Narragansett, R.I., and Delray Beach, a son-in-law, Everett Sugerman of Narragansett and Delray Beach; two sisters Lee Slosberg and Margie Cohen of Delray Beach; four grandchildren, Michael and Susan Sugerman of Cranston and Mark and MaryKay Sugerman of Warwick, and four great-grandchildren, Jonathan, Jared, Rory and Ryan.

Burial was on Jan. 20 in Delray Beach. Arrangements were by Beth Israel Memorial Chapel in Delray Beach.
Maurice D. Diamond

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. — Maurice D. Diamond, 86, of 13718D Via Flora, a designer for International Insignia Co. in Providence for 30 years before retiring in 1972, died Sunday at home. He was the husband of Mary (Schlossberg) Diamond.

Born in Russia, he lived in Providence for more than 70 years before moving to Florida 15 years ago.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Eleanor Sugerman of Warwick; three sisters, Edith Markowitz and Sarah Cokin, both of Providence, and Fay Goldwyn of Boca Raton; two brothers, Robert Diamond of Silver Spring, Md., and Harry Diamond of Cocoa Beach; two grandsons and two great-grandsons.

The funeral service and burial will be tomorrow in West Palm Beach.
Morris Diamond

Native of Russia, Owner of Grocery, Liqueur Store.

Morris Diamond, M., 87 Wellington St., died yesterday at the Park View Nursing Home, Providence. He was the husband of the late Rebecca (Segelman) Diamond.

Mr. Diamond ran the Diamond Grocery and Liqueur Stores on Pine Street for 40 years until he retired 15 years ago. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association.

Born in Russia, he was the son of the late Zalman and Sarah (Pliskin) Diamond. He came to Providence in 1906.

He is survived by a brother, Dr. Samuel Diment of Chattanooga; and two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Hodosch and Mrs. Jacob Lake, both of Providence.

A funeral service will be held today at 11 a.m. at the Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., with burial in Highland Park Cemetery, Warwick.
NATALIE DIAMOND, 71, of 825-B Pontiac Ave., a clerk for the Emblem & Badge Co. in Providence for 53 years before retiring six months ago, died yesterday at home.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Charles and Hannah (Grodzanofsky) Diamond, she moved to Cranston 14 years ago.

She leaves three sisters, Ruby Glass of Los Angeles, Calif., and Sylvia and Jeanette Diamond, both of Cranston.

She was the sister of the late Molly Diamond.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.
PHILIP ALAN DIAMOND, 58, of Arleta, Calif., died Friday in California. He was the husband of Patricia A. Diamond.

Born in New York, he was a son of Larry and Jessie Diamond of Rhode Island.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Mathew Diamond of Northridge, Calif.; two daughters, Susan Diamond of Hollywood, Calif.; and Julie Diamond Thornton of Simi Valley, Calif.; two stepsons, Randy Terry of Van Nuys, Calif., and Michael Terry of Arleta; a stepdaughter, Claire Terry of Tarzana, Calif., and two grandchildren. He was father of the late Gregory Diamond.

A memorial service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Cabrillo Yacht Club, San Pedro, Calif.
SAHIE B. (GOLDENBERG) DIAMOND, 95, of Sayles Hill Road, Manville, a legal secretary for 25 years before she retired in 1971, died yesterday at The Holiday.
She was the wife of the late Norman Diamond, and the late Henry Levy. Born in Philadelphia, a daughter of the late Asher and Miriam (Sa-mier) Goldenberg, she moved to Florida in the late 1950s and returned to Rhode Island in 1986.

Mrs. Diamond was a graduate of Central Falls High School.

She leaves many nieces and nephews, including Marvin Heller of Raleigh, N.C., and Leo Heller of Port Charlotte, Fla. She was the sister of the late Irene Rosishum and Benjamin Goldenberg.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 4:30 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Temple
Beth Shalom, P.O. Box
30, Milford, MA 01757 or Jewish Elderly of Rhode Island, 401 Elm Grove Ave,
Providence, RI 02906. Shiva will be private. The Family was assisted with the arrangements by the
SUGARMAN-SINAI
MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
DIAMOND, SOPHIE (LIPET), 94, died December 7, 2010. She was the wife of the late Louis Diamond. Born in Pawtucket, she was a daughter of the late Louis and Bessie (Cokin) Lipet. She is survived by her daughter Caren Trachtenberg of West Warwick; 2 Grandchildren and 4 Great-Grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Mollie, James, Hyman and Joseph Lipet.

Graveside services will be held Thursday, December 9th, at 1:00 PM in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Home & Hospice Care of RI. Shiva will be held at the home of Caren Trachtenberg on Thur 7-9, Fri 1-3 and Sat 7-9 PM. Arrangements by Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel.
DIAMOND, Sylvia
(Holster)

SYLVIA DIAMOND, 89, of the Mayflower Home, Grinnell, Iowa, formerly of Providence, a retired credit department worker, died Sunday at Grinnell Regional Medical Center. She was the wife of the late George M. Diamond. Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a daughter of the late Jacob and Bella (Bogan) Holster, she had lived in Providence for 50 years before moving to Grinnell more than 2 years ago.

Mrs. Diamond worked in the credit department of the former Peerless store for several years, retiring 20 years ago. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El and the Women's Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged. She was also a member of Congregation Shaare Zedek and past president of its Sisterhood.

Mrs. Diamond was a former member of Hadassah.

She leaves two stepdaughters, Jeanne Feldman of Cranston and Harriet Adelberg of Grinnell; a brother, Leon Holster of Yellow Springs, Ohio; a sister, Marjorie Levine of West Palm Beach, Fla.; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held to-
Charlotte S. Dick

PROVIDENCE — Charlotte S. Dick, 69, of 195 Sessions St. died yesterday at home. She was the wife of E. Harold Dick.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Albert and Esther (Rice) Weiner.

Mrs. Dick was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Sisterhood. She was a member of the Providence Chapter of Hadassah, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the B'nai B'rith, a 30-year volunteer at Miriam Hospital, and a member of the Miriam Hospital People. She was also a gray lady in the American Red Cross.

She leaves two sons, Robert A. Dick of New York City and Stanley R. Dick of Mill Valley, Calif.; a brother, Harold Weiner of North Miami Beach, Fla.; two sisters, Elsie Pressman of East Providence, Lucille Irving of Palm Beach, Fla., and three grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
SAMUEL DICK

Funeral services were held last Sunday morning from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home for Samuel Dick of 54 Adelaide avenue, who died suddenly after a brief illness at the St. Joseph's Hospital. Rabbi Morris Schussheim officiated and Cantor Joseph Schlossberg sang. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. Albert Weiner, Abe Abrams, Samuel Bomes, Thomas Uffer, Jake Oransky, Samuel Einstein and Harry Sherman were pall bearers.

Mr. Dick, who had come to the United States in 1902, and to Providence in 1910, was born in Russia in 1879, the son of Max and Esther Dick. He operated and owned the Canadian Fur Trading Co. and Sam Dick's Fur Shop on Westminster street.

He was active in many charitable organizations, being a member of Bichar Cholom Lodge, I. O. B. A., Providence Lodge, B. P. O. Elks, No. 14, the Jewish Home for the Aged, the Hebrew Free Loan Association, and many others.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. Rose Dick, two daughters, Miss Lillian Dick and Mrs. Sylvia Abrams; and a son, E. Harold Dick.
E. Harold Dick dies at age 79; Providence lawyer for 55 years

PROVIDENCE — E. Harold Dick, 79, of 195 Sessions St., a lawyer in Providence for 55 years, and a partner in the firm of Dick-Hague Ltd. for the past 20 years, died Friday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Charlotte S. (Weiner) Dick.

Born in Medway, Mass., a son of the late Samuel and Rose (Friedman) Dick, he lived in Providence for 70 years.

Mr. Dick was a member of Temple Emanu-El, and a past president of its Men's Club.

He was a 1934 graduate of the former Rhode Island State College, now the University of Rhode Island, and a 1937 graduate of the Boston University Law School. He was a member of the Ledgemont Country Club, the Aurora Civic Club, and the Turks Head Club.

Mr. Dick was a member of the Rhode Island Bar and the American Bar Associations. He had been counsel for the Providence Teachers Union. He was involved in many civic and philanthropic organizations.

He leaves two sons, Bob of Laguna Beach, Calif., and Stanley of Mill Valley, Calif.; a sister, Lillian Bomes of Providence, and three grandchildren. He was brother of the late Sylvia Abrams.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Abraham Dickens

PROVIDENCE — Abraham Dickens, 67, of 161 Everett Ave., a realtor, died yesterday at home after illness. He was the husband of Evelyn (Gever) Dickens.

Mr. Dickens had owned A. Richard Dickens Co. in Providence for about 20 years. He also was the Rhode Island representative of Sun Temp Industries of New Jersey.

He was a member of the Greater Providence Board of Realtors; St. Andrew's Lodge, AF&AM; Liberty Royal Arch Chapter; Webb Council; Massachusetts Consistory; the Shriners Aleppo Temple of Boston; Tall Cedars of Lebanon Lodge; the Jewish Home for the Aged; and Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club.

A lifelong resident of Providence, he was born March 6, 1910, a son of the late Harry and Martha (Schmuger) Dickens.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Sandra Oster of Barrington and Mrs. Marcia Miller of Atlanta; a brother, Charles Dickens, and a sister, Mrs. Lillian Goldstein, both of Providence, and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
BERNICE DICKENS, 82, of Taunton Avenue, co-owner with her husband of Belwing Turkey Farm, died Saturday at Miriam Hospital, Providence.

She was the wife of the late Irving L. Dickens. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Samuel and Jessie (Marcus) Bookbinder, she lived in Seekonk since 1941. Mrs. Dickens owned the turkey farm since 1944.

She had been employed by Helene's Bridal Shop, East Providence, and had been a bookkeeper at Retail Stores Delivery, Providence, for several years.

She was a former Girl Scout troop leader in Seekonk and a co-founder of the Seekonk School PTA.

She leaves a son, Stuart Dickens of North Kingstown; two daughters, Roslyn Dickens of New York and Phyllis Dickens of Seekonk; and two grandchildren and a great-grandchild. She was the sister of the late Charlotte Jacobs, Rose Forbstein, Sophie Cooperman, Sadie Rottenberg, Fannie Gold, Louise Sina, Mary Winnick, Edith Merson, and Ben and Albert Bookbinder, and grandmother of the late David Dickens.

The funeral service will be held today at noon in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
CRANSTON — Charles Dickens, 87, of 315 Park Ave., died at St. Joseph Hospital today. He was the husband of the late Sophie (Gordon) Dickens.

He was born in Russia a son of the late Harry and Martha (Schmuger) Dickens. He came to Providence in 1903 where he lived most of his life.

He was founder and president of the International Supply Co. and the former R.I. Products Company. He was a member of the board of directors emeritus and past chairman of the board of directors of Congregation Shaare Zedek-Sons of Abraham and for 30 years was president of the congregation.

He was vice president of the Chesed Schel Emess; vice president of Vaad Hakashruth; a member of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association; the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Majestic Guild.

He leaves a son, Joseph Dickens of Warwick; a sister, Mrs. Lillian Goldstein of Providence; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

HEREBY CERTIFY That The Foregoing Is A True Copy Of A Record On File.

Place Where Information is Filed: CITY OF PROVIDENCE, Rhode Island

This Copy Issued: MAY 31, 1985
EVELYN S. DICKENS
WARWICK — Mrs. Evelyn S. Dickens, 67, of 1403 Warwick Ave., Warwick, died at Roger Williams General Hospital in Providence on Monday, June 20, 1988. She was the wife of Joseph Dickens and was born in Revere, Mass., a daughter of the late Maurice and Anna (Cohen) Cohen.

She resided in Warwick for the past 20 years, previously living in Cranston for 20 years.

She was current President of the Jewish War Veterans Post 23 Auxiliary. She was a member of Temple Am David, its sisterhood, Majestic Senior Guild, Women's Association of Jewish Home for the Aged.

For three years she was manager of Uniform Plus in Cranston, retiring in 1986 due to illness. Previously she had been manager for five years of the former Uniform III that had been in Warwick.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Roberta L. Dickens, Cranston; a son, Dr. Michael S. Dickens, Bergenfield, N.J.; a sister, Helen Green, Chelsea, MA; and a brother, Harry Wellinger, Roslindale, MA; and two grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick, R.I.
EVELYN (GEVER) DICKENS, 90, of Wampanoag Trail, died Friday at Epoch, Blackstone Boulevard, Providence.

She was the wife of the late Abraham Dickens. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Harry and Ann Gever, she had been a lifelong resident of Providence before moving to East Bay Manor.

Mrs. Dickens was a member of Temple Emanu-El, Miriam Hospital Women's Association, Hadassah, and the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island.

She leaves two daughters, Marcia Miller of Sarasota, Fla., and Sandra Oster of Barrington, and five grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Gladys Gever.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. in Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue at Sessions Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
IRVING L. DICKENS, 82, of the Belwing Turkey Farm, 773 Taunton Ave., a retired plumber, and owner of Belwing Turkey Farm since 1944, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Bernice (Brookbinder) Dickens.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Maurice and Rose (Solomon) Dickens, he lived in Seekonk since 1941. Mr. Dickens was a construction plumber with the former Plumbers Union Local 28, now Local 51, before retiring.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Stuart Dickens of North Kingston; two daughters, Roslyn Dickens of New York, N.Y., and Phyllis Dickens of Seekonk; three brothers, Richard Dickens of New York, and Robert Dickens and Arnold Dickens, both in Florida; and a granddaughter. He was the grandfather of the late David Dickens.

The funeral service will be held today at 1 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Isabelle F. Dickens, 98

WARWICK, R.I. - Isabelle F. Dickens died April 26 at Kent County Hospital. She was the beloved wife of the late Robert C. Dickens. Born in Central Falls, a daughter of the late Harry and Martha (Sigal) Fruit, she had lived in Warwick for 12 years, previously living in Pembroke Pines, Florida.

She graduated from Pawtucket High School, Class of '36 and Rhode Island College of Education (now RIC), Class of '40. Isabelle was an elementary school teacher and junior high math teacher in Pawtucket, Seekonk and Attleboro. She was a life member of the National Council of Jewish Women and the Jewish Seniors Agency Women's Association, as well as a member of the Massachusetts Teachers Association. Isabelle enjoyed knitting, cross-stitch, reading, mahjong, and sudoku puzzles.

She was the devoted mother of Michael Dickens and his wife, Kathy, of Preston, Connecticut; and Harold Dickens and his wife, Linda, of Brentwood, California. She was the dear sister of the late Gertrude Pansey. She was the loving grandmother of Katie, Molly, Benjamin, Rebecca, Daniel, Rachel and Leah. She was the cherished great-grandmother of Donovan, Ethan, Ripley, Ezra and Iggy. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Alzheimer's Association, 245 Waterman St., Providence, RI 02906.
ELSEWHERE

DICKENS, JOSEPH, 91, of Poinciana Drive, Lake Worth, FL, formerly of West Warwick, RI, died Saturday, July 28, 2012, at home. He was the beloved husband of the late Evelyn (Cohen) Dickens and the late Dorothy (Bardfield) Dickens. Born in Providence, RI, the son of the late Charles and Sophie (Gordon) Dickens, he had lived in Lake Worth for 15 years.

Mr. Dickens was Vice President of Rhode Island Products Co. for over 40 years. He was a graduate of Classical High School and Bentley College. Joseph was a WW-II Marine veteran serving Stateside. He was a past President of the Plumbing and Heating Wholesalers of New England, past Master of Roosevelt Lodge #42 A.F. & A.M., a member of Touro Fraternal Assoc., past Commander of Post 23 of the Jewish War Veterans, past Board Member of the National Jewish War Veterans, former Board Member of the Poinciana Condo Assoc. and President of the Poinciana Men's Club.

Devoted father of Michael Dickens and his wife Ronnie of Brewster, MA and Roberta Dickens of Quincy, MA. Loving grandfather of Kirstin and Bryan and his wife Sandy. Cherished great grandfather of Layla and Carter. Dear companion of Rita Bruck of Lake Worth.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be private.
Stuart Michael Dickens, 75
NORTH KINGSTOWN, R.I. - Stuart Michael Dickens died Feb. 14. He was the husband of Beverly (Smith) Dickens. Born in Providence, a son of the late Irving and Bernice (Bookbinder) Dickens, he had been a resident of Rhode Island for the past 51 years. He was a journeyman plumber in the construction industry and the founder of BESTCO Ent., a manufacturing company. He was in the Air Force in the early '60s, serving in Germany. He was an honorary member of the Rhody Fly Rodders and an avid fly fisherman.

Besides his wife, he is survived by his children, Alisa Boisclair and her husband Guy of Palm City, Fla., and Michelle Dickens of North Kingstown; his sisters, Roslyn Dickens of New York City and Phyllis Dickens of Seekonk; his granddaughter Ashley; and his great-grandson Justus. He was the father of the late David Scott Dickens.

Contributions in his memory may be made to the American Heart Association, 1 State St., Ste. 200, Providence, R.I. 02908.
Former Journal reporter Bruce DeSilva remembers the poignant images Dickerman captured in the early 1980s of residents at the Ladd School in Exeter which once warehoused the mentally handicapped. DeSilva credits Dickerman’s powerful images of an elderly woman huddled in a jail-like cell with helping to shut down that institution.

Much of his work focused on protecting the environment and aiding the disadvantaged. He traveled to Alaska for stories on endangered whales. Closer to home, he photographed challenges in the classrooms and the overflowing landfill. In his spare time, he mentored many young photographers interested in journalism. He was an ardent member of the Newspaper Guild.

In 2008, Dickerman survived cancer and a few years later a serious bicycle crash; he made it through those struggles supported by his family and many friends. He enjoyed running, bicycling, sailing and had his pilot’s license. Andy taught his daughter how to bake and often bragged about the ribbons he won for his bread and pies at the fair on the Vineyard.

Dickerman, who grew up in Manhattan, is predeceased by his parents Abraham and Dorothy Dickerman. He is survived by his amazing daughter Ariel Summer Dorothy Dickerman and her partner, Bob Sommer; a sister, Linda Dickerman and her wife Barbara Hirsch; and cousin, Arlene Iozia. He has so many kind friends scattered in Providence, Martha’s Vineyard and where ever Andy journeyed.

To honor Andy’s generous spirit, his family suggests donations to Common Hope (www.commonhope.org), which fosters education for kids in Guatemala (where Andy and his daughter have volunteered) or that you mentor a developing mind or befriend an immigrant or a traveler.

There will be a service Sunday, February 28th at 4 p.m. at Congregation Agudas Achim, at 901 N Main St, Attleboro, Ma. which will be followed by dinner in the synagogue’s social hall.

Former Journal reporter Bruce DeSilva remembers the poignant images Dickerman captured in the early 1980s of residents at the Ladd School in Exeter which once warehoused the mentally handicapped. DeSilva credits Dickerman’s powerful images of an elderly woman huddled in a jail-like cell with helping to shut down that institution.

Much of his work focused on protecting the environment and aiding the disadvantaged. He traveled to Alaska for stories on endangered whales. Closer to home, he photographed challenges in the classrooms and the overflowing landfill. In his spare time, he mentored many young photographers interested in journalism. He was an ardent member of the Newspaper Guild.

In 2008, Dickerman survived cancer and a few years later a serious bicycle crash; he made it through those struggles supported by his family and many friends. He enjoyed running, bicycling, sailing and had his pilot’s license. Andy taught his daughter how to bake and often bragged about the ribbons he won for his bread and pies at the fair on the Vineyard.

Dickerman, who grew up in Manhattan, is predeceased by his parents Abraham and Dorothy Dickerman. He is survived by his amazing daughter Ariel Summer Dorothy Dickerman and her partner, Bob Sommer; a sister, Linda Dickerman and her wife Barbara Hirsch; and cousin, Arlene Iozia. He has so many kind friends scattered in Providence, Martha’s Vineyard and where ever Andy journeyed.

To honor Andy’s generous spirit, his family suggests donations to Common Hope (www.commonhope.org), which fosters education for kids in Guatemala (where Andy and his daughter have volunteered) or that you mentor a developing mind or befriend an immigrant or a traveler.

There will be a service Sunday, February 28th at 4 p.m. at Congregation Agudas Achim, at 901 N Main St, Attleboro, Ma. which will be followed by dinner in the synagogue’s social hall.
LORRAINE DICKINSON, 64, of High Head, North Truro, a reporter, copy editor and columnist for the Journal-Bulletin, and Hartford Courant for several years before retiring in 1988, died Saturday at home. She was the wife of Ernest Dickinson.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Dr. Maurice Adelman, and Eleanor Adelman, she lived for several years in New York and Vermont before moving to Cape Cod in 1991.

Mrs. Dickinson attended Lincoln School, Providence, and was a 1950 graduate of Vassar College, Poughkeepsie, N.Y. She received a master's degree in French from Middlebury, Vt., College, and a master of science degree from the School of Journalism, Columbia University, New York.

She was a clerk and administrative aide in the Chappaqua, N.Y., School District for 17 years. She wrote humorous columns for the Patent Trader, a Westchester County, N.Y., newspaper, and the column "Cape Views" for The Cape Codder. She was president of the board of directors of the AIMS Thrift Shop, Wellfleet, and was a volunteer for the Truro Historical Museum.

Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Ann Scalley of Wellfleet; a son, Thomas Dickinson of Millwood, N.Y.; a stepdaughter, Irene Goff of Vienne, Maine, and seven grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.
Lorraine Dickinson, 64

Lorraine Dickinson of North Truro, a newspaper columnist, died February 26 at her home on High Head after a long illness. She was 64.

A newspaper reporter, copy editor and columnist, she worked on the staffs of the Providence Journal-Bulletin and the Hartford Courant. She wrote humorous columns for the Patent Trader, a Westchester County, N.Y., newspaper and for The Cape Codder. She also worked as clerk and administrative aide in the Chappaqua, N.Y., school district for 17 years.

Born in Providence, R.I., Mrs. Dickinson was the daughter of Eleanor and Dr. Maurice Adelman. She attended the Lincoln School and was graduated from Vassar College in 1950. She received a master's degree in French from Middlebury College and also a master's degree from Columbia School of Journalism.

After her marriage in 1957, Mrs. Dickinson spent a few years at home raising her children. She then went to work for the Chappaqua School District.

In September, 1988, more than 200 people paid tribute to her at a retirement party in her honor.

Mrs. Dickinson and her husband, Ernest Dickinson, moved to North Truro in 1991. From that time on, she wrote the column, "Cape Views." She served as president on the board of directors for the AIM Thrift Shop in Wellfleet. Mrs. Dickinson also worked as a volunteer for the Truro Historical Museum.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Dickinson is survived by a daughter, Ann Scalley of Wellfleet; a son, Thomas Dickinson of Millwood, N.Y.; a stepdaughter, Irene Goff of Vienna, Maine; and seven grandchildren.

A memorial service will be held at a later date. Memorial gifts may be made to the Truro Rescue Squad, Truro, MA 02666.
TERRENCE P. DIFFLEY

WARWICK — Terrence P. Diffley, 41, of 2 Collingwood Drive, president of Guaranteed Personnel, Jefferson Boulevard, for the past 12 years died Wednesday, May 16, 1990, at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Marlene (Resnick) Diffley.

Born in Providence, a son of Kathleen (Marker) Diffley of West Warwick, and the late James Diffley, he lived in Cranston before moving to Warwick 12 years ago.

Besides his wife and mother he leaves two sons, Marcus Nathan Diffley and Jamie Michael Diffley, both at home; five brothers, Michael Diffley and Kevin Diffley, both of Warwick, Timothy and Danny Diffley, both of West Warwick, Dennis Diffley of Cranston, and three sisters, Kathleen Diffley and Colleen Achim, both of Providence, and Patricia Carpenter of Cranston.

The funeral was held Friday, May 18, at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
Funeral services for Mrs. Bessie (Novitz) Dimond, 88, of 99 Hillside Avenue, formerly of Douglas Avenue, who died Feb. 13, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. She was the widow of the late Abraham Dimond.

A daughter of Chaim and Chaya
Novitz, she was born Nov. 1, 1877, in Lithuania. She was a member of Congregation Anshei Kovno and the Jewish Home for the Aged.
She had lived in Providence since 1905.

Mrs. Dimond is survived by a son, Dr. Harry L. Dimond of Pawtucket; two daughters, Mrs. Edward Priest and Mrs. Abraham Saunders of Providence, eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.
DIMOND, DORA A., 96, died Wednesday at home. She was the beloved wife of the late Dr. Harry L. Dimond. Born in Austria, a daughter of the late Max and Ernestine (Goltz) Bazar, she had lived in Pawtucket for 65 years.

Devoted mother of Marcia Dimond Stein and her husband Myron and Rabbi Avis Dimond Miller and her husband Ralph. Loving grandmother of 8. Cherished great-grandmother of 13.

Funeral services Sunday at 1:00 p.m. in TEMPLE EMANU-EL, corner of Morris Ave. and Sessions St., Providence. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Sunday and Monday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m., concluding the week in her daughters' homes. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
OBITUARIES

Dr. Harry Dimond, retired dentist, Mason, dies

PAWTUCKET — Dr. Harry L. Dimond, 81, of 40 Lafayette St., a dentist who practiced in Providence for more than 52 years before retiring four years ago, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Dora A. (Bazar) Dimond.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Abraham and Bessie Dimond, he lived in Pawtucket for 45 years.

Dr. Dimond was a graduate of Tufts University, Medford, Mass., and its Dental School. He was a past president of the Rhode Island Academy of Dentistry and a member of the Rhode Island and American Dental Associations.

He received a 50-year membership pin from Redwood Lodge, F & AM, and was a member of the board of directors of Temple Emanu-El, Providence. He was also a gabbai of the temple, and a member of the Touro Fraternal Association. He was a staff member of Miriam Hospital for more than 40 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Marcia J. Stein, director of Special Services for Aging in New York City, and Rabbi Avis B. Miller of Chevy Chase, Md., associate rabbi of Congregation Adas Israel, Washington, D.C.; a sister, Pauline Priest of Providence, and eight grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Harry Dimond

ROCKLEDGE, Fla. — Harry Dimond, 89, of 1212 Three Meadows Drive, a wholesale poultry dealer in New England for more than 40 years before retiring in 1983, died Wednesday at Cape Canaveral Hospital in Titusville, Fla. He was the husband of the late Alma (Gederman) Dimond.

Born in Harrisburg, Pa., he was a son of the late Oscar and Rachel Dimond. He lived in Florida for five years and previously had lived in New Jersey and New England.

Mr. Dimond was a member of the Rhode Island National Guard. He was a member of the Congregation Sons of Jacob, Providence.

He leaves three daughters, Ramola "Bobo" Vander of Rockledge, Fla.; Phylene Symonds of Bayville, N.J., and Leslie Kliegmen of North Bergen, N.J.; two sisters, Sarah Cokin of Providence and Fay Goldwin of Deerfield, Fla.; a brother, Robert Dimond in Maryland; nine grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be Sunday at 10 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope Street, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
I'm D. A. 2-6-11.

Please c. some coffee in 8-11

(1) November 2023

Reference: D. D. 9-5-11
I wouldn't recommend it for someone who's not used to it, and it's not a particularly safe place to be. However, I've always felt like it's a good place to raise a family and make new friends. It's an interesting mix of old and new, and it's a great place to explore and learn about the culture and history.

In 1984 or 1985, I was visiting the area for the first time and I was really impressed by the amount of old buildings and interesting architecture. I couldn't help but feel a sense of nostalgia as I walked through the streets and gardens, imagining what it must have been like to live there in the past.

Although there were some negative aspects, I think overall it's a great place to live and work. I think it has a unique character that makes it stand out from other places in the area.

As for my personal experiences, I have a lot of fond memories of spending time here. I still go back every chance I get, and I always look forward to seeing the changes that have taken place.

Overall, I think it's a great place to raise a family and make new friends. It's a bit of a hidden gem, but I'm glad I found it and I hope others will too.
LEOPOLD DIMOND,
HEAD OF BIG STORE,
YIELDS TO ILLNESS

Death Comes to Senior Member of Well-Known Business Firm.
Confined to His Bed Since Early in September.—Friend of His Employes.

Confined to his bed since early in last September, Leopold Dimond died about 9 o'clock last night in his home, 230 Lexington avenue. He was head of the firm of L. Dimond & Sons, Inc., and one of the best-known merchants in the State. He had been in failing health for a long time. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Monday at his late home.

Mr. Dimond had been engaged in the dry goods business for the greater part of his life, much of the time in this city. He was born in New York city on Jan. 1, 1846, and came to Providence 18 years later. He first engaged in business on a small scale, and then developed his enterprise until he became partner owner in one of the city's largest stores.

His first venture was in the Hedley block, on Chalkstone avenue and Charles street. As trade increased he soon erected and occupied a building on Hanford square.

When the O'Gorman Company entered business in this city in 1888, the firm known as L. Dimond & Sons, Inc., leased the departments of women's garments of all sorts. It had similar interests in Boston. Three years ago the Dimond firm assumed entire control of the business. Mr. Dimond had relinquished all active duties during the past year owing to failing health.

Although active in public affairs, Mr. Dimond never aspired to office except during his one term of service in the State Legislature in 1894. In store matters he was perhaps better known as a friend than as an employer, having a smile and pleasant word for all.
RAISA DINABURG

PROVIDENCE — Raisa Dinaburg, 91, of 50 Park Row West, died Dec. 17 at home. She was the widow of Zinovy Dinaburg.

Born in Tomsk, Russia, a daughter of the late Israel and Miriam Kijberg, she lived in the Orient most of her life, and in Providence for the past three years.

She was active in the Women’s International Zionist Organization.

She leaves a daughter, Ellie Elbaum of Providence, and five grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Isabel Taylor.

The funeral was held Dec. 18 at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

DINABURG, Raisa

(Kijberg)

December 17, 1994. Residence 50 Park Row West, Providence. Beloved wife of the late Zinovy Dinaburg. Devoted mother of Ellie Elbaum of Providence and the late Isabel Taylor. Loving grandmother of 5 grandchildren. Funeral services today at 2 pm at the MAX SU-
Abraham Diner

PROVIDENCE — Abraham Diner, 84, of the Jewish Home for the Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., a former Warwick resident, died yesterday at the home. He was the husband of the late Anna (Miller) Diner.

Mr. Diner was a custodian for the Providence School department for 10 years before retiring 15 years ago.

Born in London, England, he was a son of the late Harris and Sarah Diner. He had lived in Providence three years.

Mr. Diner was a member of Shaare Zedek Synagogue and its Men's Club. He served in the Marine Corps from 1919 to 1920.

He leaves a son, Robert Diner of Warwick; three daughters, Frances Licker of Warwick, Harriet Levi of Portland, Maine, and Arlene Hoyle of Coventry; a sister, Rebecca Fox of Brooklyn, N.Y.; 16 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DINER, NEIL M.
52, of Warwick, died Sunday, May 31, 2015, at Cherry Hill Manor in Johnston, after a courageous battle with Parkinson’s Disease. Born in Providence, a son of Robert Diner of Warwick and the late Blanche (Pauline) Diner. He had lived in Warwick for 9 years. Neil was on the Board of Directors of the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association. Dear brother of Michael Diner of Warwick, Susan Harris of Johnston, Robert Ponte of Ocala, FL, James Ponte of Chepachet, Richard Ponte of Arden, NC and the late John Ponte and Donna Howcroft. Loving uncle of many nieces and nephews. Best friend to his dog, Teddy. Graveside services will be held Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the National Parkinson Foundation, Inc., 200 S.E. 1st St., Suite 800, Miami, FL 33131. Shiva will be private. For online condolences, visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com
DINERMAN, Abraham

Dear father of Harvey Dinerman, Niantic, Conn.; Steven Dinerman, Cranston; Lori DiDomenico, Framingham, Mass.; Norman Dinerman, Scituate, R.I.; Paul Dinerman, Cranston; and Eida Koplovsky, Duxbury, Mass. Loving brother of Nathan Dinerman, San Diego, Calif.

Devoted grandfather of Jason, Josh, Donna, Jennifer, Rebecca, Max, Jacob, Felicia, Madison and Noah. Funeral service 1 p.m. Tuesday at SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., Providence. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Temple Am David, 40 Gardiner St., Warwick. R.I. 02886

ABRAHAM DINERMAN, 75, of Dartmouth Road, a retired businessman and a Holocaust survivor, died Sunday at Rhode Island Hospital, Providence.

He was the husband of Hilda (Lewis) Dinerman. Born in Poland, a son of the late Max and Ida (Gamzer) Dinerman, he came to this country in 1947, arriving in New York City, and had lived in Connecticut before moving to Scituate in 1960 and Cranston in 1986.

Mr. Dinerman was the owner of Dinerman's Modern Egg Farm, which he founded in 1960 and operated from its founding until his retirement in 1986. He was an active member of The Farm Bureau.

He also was a dowser, locating underground water for wells.

A Holocaust survivor, he assisted Russian immigrant families who relocated to Rhode Island. His family describes him as a generous man who gave of himself, both physically and financially, to strangers in need.

Mr. Dinerman was a member of Sons of Abraham Synagogue.

Besides his wife, he leaves four sons, Harvey Dinerman of Niantic, Conn., Norman Dinerman of Scituate, and Steven and Paul Dinerman, both of Cranston; two daughters, Lori DiDomenico of Framingham, Mass., and Eida Koplovsky of Duxbury, Mass.; a brother, Nathan Dinerman of San Diego, Calif.; and 10 grandchildren.

The funeral service will be today at 1 p.m. in the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
BERTHA DININ, 86, of 44 Sargent Ave. died yesterday at the Tockwotton Home. She was the wife of Jack Dinin.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Harry and Leah Schneiderman, she lived in Providence since 1956. She previously lived in New York.

Mrs. Dinin was a member of Congregation Ahavath Sholom-Sons of Zion. She had been president of the Sisterhood of Temple Beth Shalom. She was a member of Hadassah.

Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Vita Smith of Providence; a son, Howard Dinin of Boston, and a granddaughter.

The funeral will be held today at 10 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Mount Judah Cemetery in Ridgewood, N.Y.

DININ, Bertha
(Schneiderman)
March 20, 1996. Beloved wife of Jack Dinin. Residence 44 Sargent Ave. Dear mother of Vita Smith, Providence and Howard H. Dinin, Boston. Devoted grandmother of Deborah McGowan, Providence. Funeral Service 10 a.m. Thursday at MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope at 4th St. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Memorial observance at her late residence Sunday thru Wednesday, 2-4; 7-9pm.
JACK DININ, 93, of 44 Sargent Ave., a salesman at J.B. Lippincott Medical Book Publishers, retiring 20 years ago, died Sunday at Kent County Memorial Hospital. He was the husband of the late Bertha (Schneiderman) Dinin.

Born in Russia, he lived in Providence for 43 years.

Mr. Dinin was a graduate of Columbia University College of Pharmacy, and an honorary life member and past president of Congregation Beth Sholom. He was a member of Kiever Brotherhood and the Providence Hebrew Loan Association.

He leaves a daughter, Vita Smith of Providence; a son, Harold Dinin of Cambridge, Mass.; and a granddaughter. He was the brother of the late Alex Dinin.

The funeral service will be held today at 10 a.m. in Congregation Beth Sholom, Camp Street. Burial will be in Mt. Judah Cemetery, Queens, N.Y.
DITTELMAN, ELEANOR, 86, of South Angell St., died Friday at Bethany Home of RI, Providence. She was the beloved wife of the late Elliott Dittelman. Born in Boston, MA, a daughter of the late Morris and Irene (Richmond) Coplelof, she had lived in Providence for 24 years, previously living in Warwick and Cranston.

Eleanor was a life member of Hadassah and a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael. She was a Tournament Duplicate Bridge Player and a life member of the American Contract Bridge League. Devoted mother of Irene Kornfeld and her husband William of Las Vegas, NV, Lewis Dittelman and his wife Catherine of Westboro, MA and Helen Dittelman-Dolan and her husband William Dolan of North Attleboro, MA. Loving grandmother of Mark, Eric and Rachael. Funeral services will be held Sunday at 11:00 a.m. in the PRIEST CHAPEL in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Bethany Home of RI, 111 S. Angell St., Providence, RI 02906 or Home and Hospice Care of RI, 169 George St., Pawtucket, RI 02860. Shiva will be observed in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Martin Dittelman, 93 Crestwood Rd., Cranston, Mon. 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
ELLIOTT E. DITTELMAN, 77, of Chatham Circle died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Eleanor (Copelof) Dittelman.

Born in New York, a son of the late Louis and Helen (Simmons) Dittelman, he lived in Warwick and Boynton Beach, Fla., for seven years. He previously lived in Cranston.

Mr. Dittelman was a partner in the Laventhal & Horwath International for 37 years before retiring 12 years ago. He was an Army captain in World War II, and served in Australia and the Philippine Islands. He was a 1938 graduate of the former Rhode Island State College, now the University of Rhode Island. He was a certified public accountant.

He was a board member and officer of Temple Torat Yisrael, Cranston, and chairman of its building committee. He was a member of Redwood Lodge AF & AM, the Council of American Institute of CPAs, a past member of the Crestwood Country Club, and a past president of the Rhode Island Society of CPAs. He was an honorary director of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, a Cranston area vice president of the Jewish Federation, and he was an honoree of the Bonds of Israel Campaign.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Lewis J. Dittelman of Westboro, Mass.; two daughters, Irene Sacks of New York and Helen Dittelman-Dolan of Foxboro, Mass.; two brothers, Martin I. Dittelman of Cranston and Judge Harold J. Dittelman of Scarborough Manor, N.Y., and three grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Torat Yisrael, Park Avenue, Cranston. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.
WARWICK, R.I. — Martin Dittelman died peacefully and surrounded by family on Feb. 8. He was the beloved husband of See-na (Kovitch) Dittelman for 64 years. Born in Ossining, New York, he was the son of the late Lewis and Helen (Simmons) Dittelman and the youngest brother of the late Elliot and Harold Dittelman.

Martin and Seena had recently moved to the Phyllis Siperstein Tamarisk Assisted Living Residence, which he had an active role in helping to build with the Jewish Seniors Agency of Rhode Island. He had previously lived in Cranston for 54 years in a home that brought love, joy and great food to anyone who stepped through the door.

Martin had a long and successful career as an accountant and his work brought him around the world, most often with Seena by his side. Among his long list of accomplishments he was Navy Veteran, an active senior member of the Jewish community and commodore of the East Greenwich Yacht Club. His most beloved role was that of the patriarch of his family. He was a rock and a port in a storm and was always there with wise words, unconditional love and a good bottle of wine.

Besides his devoted wife Seena, he leaves behind son Jason Dittelman (Cathy Buchanan) and daughter Lori Gibson (Mark). He was the grandfather of Heather Dittelman Conover (spouse Ray), Max Dittelman (spouse Sarah), Ingrid Suprock and Jeremy Martini (spouse Daryl). He was especially proud that he also got to be (in his words) a "genuine great-grandfather" to Calvin Conover, Natalie Conover, Ellie Dittelman and Charlotte Dittelman.

Martin would have been 90 on June 26. The family is planning a celebration of his life that weekend.

Contributions in his memory may be made to Jewish Seniors Agency, 100 Niantic Ave., Providence, RI 02907 (or online at jsari.org/donate)
DIUTSH-BOSLER, Helen

(Cohn)

Beloved wife of the late Lewis I. Bosler and the late Leo Diutsh. Devoted mother of Erwin M. Bosler of Cranston, Claire L. Goodman of Warwick, and the late Marjorie Bosler Lachman. Loving grandmother of 8 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren. Funeral services Sunday 1 p.m. at the SUGARMAN-SMITH MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.). In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Jewish Home for the Aged. Shiva will be Observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodman, 104 Osage Drive, Warwick, 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.
DEENA S. DIWINSKY, 93, of Haven Health Center, South Windsor, Conn., formerly of Warwick, a retired bookkeeper, died yesterday at home.

She was the wife of the late Morris Diwinsky. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Harry and Anna Metz, she had lived in Providence, Cranston, and in Warwick for 35 years before moving to South Windsor six years ago.

She had worked as a bookkeeper for various jewelry companies and auto dealerships until her retirement.

She graduated from Central High School and was a member of the former Jewish Home for the Aged, the Majestic Guild, and the Cranston Seniors.

She leaves a son, Gordon Diwinsky of South Windsor two grandchildren and a great-grandchild. She was the mother of the late Phyllis Cerio and the sister of the late Jennie Rosen.

A graveside funeral service will be held on tomorrow at noon at Lincoln Park Cemetery.
GERTRUDÉ DIWINSKY, 78, of 100 W. Kingsbridge Rd., Bronx, N.Y., died Tuesday at the Montefiore Hospital in the Bronx. She was the wife of the late Jerome Diwinisky.

Born in Montreal, a daughter of the late Oscar and Fannie (Tennenhouse) Cohen, she had lived in Providence for most of her life before moving to New York three years ago.

She had been a financial consultant and accountant in Providence for many years. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El where she had taught Sunday school for many years. She was a member of the Providence Hebrew Day School, Hadassah, and the Pioneer Women.

She leaves three daughters, Lynne Diwinsky of New York, Rhea Diwinsky in Israel and Faye Yemini of Los Angeles, Calif., and nine grandchildren.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.
Leo Devens
CRANSTON — Leo Diwinsky-Devens, 67, of 97 Grace St., a delicatessen wholesaler for many years, who was semi-retired for about six months, died last night at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Frances (Cohen) Diwinsky-Devens.

A World War II Army veteran who served in Europe, he was a member of Overseas Masonic Lodge, Scottish Rite, Knights of Pythias, the Shriners, Simcha Santha and Hope Link of the Order of the Golden Chain. He was a past Rajah of DOKK.

Born Dec. 5, 1909, in Hartford, he had lived in Cranston for more than 40 years. He was a member of Temple Beth-El, Providence. The late Louis and Fannie (Katz) Diwinsky were his parents.

Besides his wife he is survived by a brother, Jerome J. Diwinsky of Providence.

The funeral service was to be held today at 2:30 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial was to be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Jerome Diwinsky, 67, dies; served on three Jewish boards

PROVIDENCE — Jerome "Jerry" Diwinsky, 67, of 175 Sessions St., died at home yesterday. He was the husband of Gertrude (Cohen) Diwinsky.

He was born in Providence, a son of the late Louis and Franny (Katz) Diwinsky.

He was associated with Miller's Delicatessen for more than 20 years. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club; a member of the board of directors of the Providence Hebrew Day School; the Jewish Community Center and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan.

He attended both Providence College and Bryn Mawr College. He was an Army veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife he leaves three daughters, Lynne M. Diwinsky of New York City, Rhea Diwinsky of Ramat Gan, Israel, and Faye S. Yemini of Los Angeles, Calif.

The funeral service will be held at a time and day to be announced at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel.
MONTIFIORE CLUB
SECRETARY DEAD

Mrs. Louis Diwinsky Succumbs
Mrs. Louis Diwinsky Succumbs
Operation.

Mrs. Louis Diwinsky of 22 Glenham street, financial secretary of the Montifiore L. H. B. A., died at the Miriam Hospital this morning. She had gone to the hospital a few days ago and failed to recover from an operation.

Mrs. Diwinsky was born in Russia 36 years ago and came to Providence when two years of age. Seven years ago she married Louis Diwinsky, who survives her, as does a daughter, Ruth, by a former marriage.

Besides her membership in the Montifo-

MRS. LOUIS DIWINSKY.

lore, she was affiliated with Sisterhood of Temple Beth-El, the Providence Section, National Council of Jewish Women, and the Jewish Home of the Aged. She also was a prominent worker in Community Chest drives.

She was a member of the Jewish Orphanage Home and was a prominent worker in all Jewish social and charitable affairs.

She is also survived by two brothers, Samuel and Abraham Rabiner, and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Lurie and Jean Rabiner.

Funeral services were held late this afternoon, with Rabbis David H. Borchard and Chaim Portile officiating. Burial was at Lincoln Park Cemetery.
MORRIS DLUTY

Funeral services for Morris Dluty, 60, of 34 Third Street, who died following an operation in Boston, were held last Sunday morning from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, Doyle Avenue and Hope Street.

Mr. Dluty, for 36 years a dealer in scrap metal in Providence, was active in many Jewish organizations. He was a member of Touro Fraternal Association, the Hebrew Free Loan Association, the Jewish Home for Aged and the Ahavath Sholom Synagogue.

He leaves a wife, Mrs. Esther (Zawatsky) Dluty, six daughters: Mrs. Myer Rosen, Providence; Mrs. Max Bloom, Brookline, Mass.; Mrs. Samuel Reader, Arlington, Va.; Mrs. Mrs. Louise Siegel, New York City; Mrs. Samuel Horvitz, Houston, Tex.; Mrs. Samuel Shuman, Quincy, Mass.; two sons, Charles and William Dluty of Boston; two brothers, David and Louis, of Providence; and 14 grandchildren.
ROSE DOBBS

PROVIDENCE—Rose Dobbs, 90, of the Tockwotton Home, a writer and editor of children's books in New York City for many years before she retired, died June 24 at the home.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Isaac and Ethel Dobbsowitz, she had lived in East Providence and New York City before she moved to Providence.

She leaves a sister, Ida Levitt of East Providence, and a niece, Nancy Levitt-Vieira of Providence. She was the sister of the late Gussie Finkelstein.

A graveside service was held June 26 at Baron Hirsch Cemetery, Staten Island, N.Y. The service was coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.
EDWARD DOBREIN

PROVIDENCE — Edward Dobrein, 94, retired president of M. Dobrein & Son, a Boston shoe wholesaler, died Dec. 12 at the Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Martha (Pritsker) Dobrein.

Dobrein was born in Boston and had been a longtime resident of both Newton and Brockton, Mass. He moved to East Providence 3½ months ago.

He was a graduate of Boston University and a member of its varsity football team.

For 60 years, Dobrein was affiliated with M. Dobrein & Son, the shoe wholesale and distributing company founded by his father. He retired as president 12 years ago.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Marian Andrews of Downers Grove, Ill.; three step-children, Sybil Simon of Warren, Alan Blackman of Brookline, Mass., and Lenard Blackman of Westport, Conn.; a brother, Herbert Dobrein of Newton, Mass.; 13 grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren. He was also the husband of the late Bertha (Stone). He was brother of the late Benjamin Dobrein, Anna Goldstein and Freida Pearlstein.

Graveside funeral services were held Dec. 13 in the Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick. Services were coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.
MARTHA (PRITSKER) DOBREIN, 97, of Dawn Hill, and formerly of East Providence and Providence, a native of Russia, died Sunday at home.

She was the wife of the late Edward Dobrein, and of the late Abraham Blackman. Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Aaron and Gertrude (Prebluda) Pritsker, she had moved to Bristol in July. She previously had lived in East Providence, Newton, Mass., and Providence.

Mrs. Dobrein was a graduate of the former Commercial High School, in Providence.

She was a member of Temple EmanuEl and its sisterhood, the Brandeis University Women's Association, and the National Conference of Jewish Women. She was a former member of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association and a the Jewish Home for the Aged.

She leaves a daughter, Sybil Simon of Bristol; two sons, Alan Blackman of Newton, Mass., and Lenard Blackman of Bonita Springs, Fla.; a stepdaughter, Marion Andrews of Tucson, Ariz.; seven grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and eight step-great-grandchildren. She was the stepmother of the late Richard Dobrein, and also had been predeceased by nine siblings.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will follow in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.

DOBREIN, Martha (Pritsker)

Funeral services will be Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. at SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL 458 Hope St., Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Hospice Care of R.I., 169 George St., Pawtucket, R.I. 02860. Shiva will be observed at the home of Sybil Simon, 12 Weetamoe Farm Dr., Bristol, Wednesday 7-9 and Thursday 2-4 p.m.
Michelle Dogon

LAUDERDALE LAKES, Fla. — Michelle Aileen Dogon, 39, died Jan 9.

A daughter of Sid and Judith Dogon of Boynton Beach, Fla., she lived in East Providence until 1993 when she and her family moved to Florida.

She graduated from East Providence High School in 1981 and Rhode Island College in 1985.

Ms. Dogon met the challenge of living with multiple sclerosis bravely.

Besides her parents, she is survived by a brother, Alan Dogon; two nephews and a niece, all of Coventry.

Contributions may be made to the Multiple Sclerosis Society.
MRS. CHARLES DOLBERG

Funeral services for Mrs. Clara (Bretvetz) Dolberg of 24 Parker Street, Lincoln, formerly of Providence, who died June 19, after an illness of three weeks, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

A Providence resident for 65 years, she moved to Lincoln about five years ago. Born in Romania, she was the daughter of the late Carroll and Caroline Bretvetz. She was the widow of Charles Dolberg.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Leon Glantz of Lincoln, with whom she made her home, and Mrs. Leon Merson of Waterbury, Conn.; two sons, Max Dolberg of Hempstead, L. I., and Carroll Dolberg of Philadelphia; a brother, Arthur Britwood of Colorado; two grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.
ANNI DONATH, 89, of Beechwood at Laurelmead, also known as Anne­liese Rosenbaum, a former business­woman, died Sunday at Beechwood. She was the wife of the late Henry Donath.

She was born in Breslau, Germany. In 1939, she and her husband escaped the Nazis by obtaining visas to Ecuador. She moved to Atlantic City, N.J., New York City, and to Providence in 1995.

She received a degree in bookkeeping. She opened a dress shop in Ecuador, owned a small hotel in Atlantic City and owned RoseMary Dolls in New York City. She was an avid seamstress.

She leaves a daughter, RoseMary Lowenstein of Barrington, and three grandchildren.

Burial was held in Cedar Park Cemetery, Paramus, N.J.
Jennie Dorenbaum

Graduate of BU Law School in 1916, ex-head of B’nai B’rith, District 1

PROVIDENCE — Mrs. Jennie Dorenbaum, 82, of 65 Intervale Rd. died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Dr. Philip D. Dorenbaum.

Born in Boston, Sept. 24, 1895, she was a daughter of the late William and Annie Shaine.

Mrs. Dorenbaum graduated from Girls Latin School, Boston. She was one of the first of three women to graduate in 1916 from Boston University Law School. She was a presidential fellow of Boston University, and a member of the Brandeis Women’s Association.

She was president of the Springfield Photo Mount Co., Holyoke, Mass., from 1951 until 1978. Until 1961, she was president of Distinctive Embedments. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Sisterhood. She was a former president of District One, B’nai B’rith.

Mrs. Dorenbaum was a national executive board member of the Anti-Defamation League of B’nai B’rith, and a board member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island. In 1975, she was named Rhode Island Woman of the Year by the Rhode Island Israeli Bonds Drive.

She leaves a stepson, Melvin Dorenbaum of Philadelphia; a daughter, Mrs. Frances Shaine of Manchester, N.H.; two brothers, Edward Shaine of Springfield and Samuel Shaine of Longmeadow, Mass., and four grandchildren.

The funeral was to be held today at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial was to be in Beth-El Cemetery, West Springfield, Mass.
Dr. Philip Dorenbaum, Dentist, Dies at 68

Dr. Philip Dorenbaum, 68, of 65 Intervale Rd., who practiced dentistry here for many years, died yesterday at Jane Brown Memorial Hospital after a short illness.

He was the owner of Distinctive Embedments, Inc., on Gano St. He was the husband of Jennie (Shaine) Dorenbaum.

Dr. Dorenbaum, who retired in 1951 after 35 years in dentistry, went into business because, as he put it, "you can't fish all the time."

Before he got into the embedding field, he developed a successful memo pad and various tools for dentistry.

In the embedding field, Dr. Dorenbaum "planted" such items as diminutive trout lures, sea horses and shells inside clear blocks of lucite.

He was born in Springfield, Mass., July 7, 1893, a son of the late Morris and Etta Dorenbaum. He was a graduate of Tufts Medical School.

Dr. Dorenbaum was a member of B'nai B'rith and the National Friends of Hillel. Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Melvin of Alden, Pa., and a daughter, Frances Evelyn Shaine of Manchester, N.H.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2 at the Beth-El Cemetery in Springfield. The services will be conducted by Rabbi Eli A. Bohnen of Temple Emanu-El, Providence, and Rabbi Samuel Dresner of Temple Beth-El, Springfield.
Sidney Dorfman, 40, of 141 Lenox Avenue, office manager at Hasenfeld Bros., Inc. died March 20 in Miriam Hospital. He had been ill a week.

Funeral services were held March 22 in the Kirchenbaum Bros. Westminster Chapel, Brooklyn, N. Y. Burial was in Beth David Cemetery, Elmont L. I.

A native of New York City, Mr. Dorfman joined the Central Falls firm six months ago and moved to Providence in January. He was the husband of Mrs. Sylvia (Dumbroff) Dorfman.

Mr. Dorfman was born Feb. 28, 1923, a son of the late David and Ann Dorfman. He was a member of Temple Beth Israel and the Jewish Community Center. He was an Army veteran of World War II.

In addition to his widow, he leaves three sons, Phillip, Michael and David Dorfman, all of Providence, and a sister, Mrs. Jerry Scharf of Brooklyn.
FREEDA DORINA, 77, of 75 East Ave., an engineer in the building industry in Russia before she retired, died yesterday at home.

She was the wife of Anatoly Geyshes. Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Georgy and Golda (Dorina) Dorin, she immigrated to Providence in 1992.

Mrs. Dorina was a member of Temple Emanu-El, the Jewish Family Service, and the Jewish Community Center.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son, Igor Geyshes of Pawtucket; a sister, Mila Demidov in Israel; a brother, Georgy Dorin in Russia; and a grandson.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 10:30 a.m. in the Sugarman-Sinal Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
HAROLD L. DORKIN

NEWPORT — Harold Louis "Hal" Dorkin, 60, of 59 Harrison Ave., a retired engineer, died Sunday, July 31, 1988, at his home. He was the husband of Evelyn "Pat" Mines Dorkin.

Mr. Dorkin served with the Naval Underwater Systems Center for 30 years until retiring in 1982. More recently, he was director of the New England division of Columbia Research Corp.

Mr. Dorkin was born in Bridgeport, Conn., a son of the late Samuel H. and Anna M. Dorkin. He had lived in Newport since 1934 and also owned a home in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

A 1945 graduate of Rogers High School, he received a bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering from Brown University in 1949. He earned his master's degree in public administration from the University of Northern Colorado in 1978.

He was on active duty with the Army during the Korean War, from November 1950 to November 1952.

During his high school and college years, Mr. Dorkin was a prominent baseball athlete, participating in Newport's Sunset League as well as the Brown University and Rogers High School varsity teams. An passionate and highly regarded golfer, he was the New England Left-Handed Champion in 1960.

He was a past president of the Brown Club of Newport County and a member of Temple Shalom, the Wanumetonomy Golf and Country Club, the Eastpointe Country Club of Palm Beach Gardens, the Redwood Library, Friends of the Newport Public Library, the Preservation Society of Newport County and the Newport Art Museum.

Besides his wife, Mr. Dorkin leaves two daughters, Amy B. Dorkin of Portsmouth and Judith Dorkin Pendergraft of Danville, Calif.; and a sister, Marilyn Millman of Trumbull, Conn.

His funeral was held in Temple Shalom, Middletown. Burial was in Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown. The memorial observance was at Mr. Dorkin's home.

The Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence, was in charge of arrangements.
DORNBERG, MARILYN
84, died on May 25, 2016, at Brookdale South Bay in South Kingstown with her husband at her side. She was the daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Parsons) McAlpin.

She was born in Kenton, Ohio. She started her teaching career at 18 with a provisional certificate due to the shortage of teachers at the time. She received her degree from Ohio State University. She taught in several places, including Columbus, Ohio, Germany, Boston and Wickford before leaving the profession to devote her time to raising her daughter.

She moved to Rhode Island in 1964 after marrying her husband of 52 years, Professor Emeritus Otto Dornberg. She is also survived by their daughter Natasha Dornberg and her husband Ami Ginsburg of Tel Aviv, Israel and three grandchildren, Yoav 15, Ofri 12 and Sofie 6.

Marilyn was an active member of the League of Woman Voters and the Kingston Improvement Association. She enjoyed traveling, especially cruises and visits to her daughter and her family in Israel. She loved the theater, especially Trinity and the London stage. Crossword puzzles and duplicate bridge were among her passions. She enjoyed giving parties inside their home in the winter and in their airy outdoor gazebo in the summer and fall.

A Celebration of her Life will be held at a later date. Donations in her memory may be made to the Dornberg Study Abroad Scholarship in the URI Foundation, 79 Upper College Road, Kingston, RI 02881 or to South County Hospital, 100 Kenyon Avenue, Wakefield, RI 02879. For guest book and condolences averystortifuneralhome.com.
PROVIDENCE

DOWD-SURASKI, HEDY

(DOWD), 36, died May 8, 2012. She was the wife of David Suraski. Born in Warwick, Rhode Island, the daughter of Patrick and Lisa (Robinson) Dowd, she returned to Rhode Island in 2011. Hedy received her Master’s Degree from Bennington College in Vermont and was a writer of literary fiction and a teacher.

Besides her husband and parents, she is survived by her children, Ruby, Celia and Wolfie; and her brother, Ryan Dowd.

Funeral services will be held Friday, May 11th at 10:00 AM at Sugarman-Sinaí Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to The Rhode Island Food Bank, 200 Niantic Ave., Providence, RI 02907. Shiva will be observed at her late residence on Sunday from 2-6 PM. For information and condolences, SugarmanSinai.com.
LENA CORNELL DRAZEN, 93, of Reston, Va., and formerly of Cranston and Providence, a teacher's aide and sales representative before retiring, died Monday at Cameron Glen Nursing Center, Reston.

She was the wife of the late Milton Drazen. Born in Fall River, a daughter of the late Louis and Lizzie (Hochman) Cornell, she had lived in Providence and Cranston before returning to Fall River in 1968. She moved to Virginia in 1981.

Mrs. Drazen had been a saleslady at the former Cherry & Webb department store, in Fall River, and the former Pinkerson’s and Casual Corner stores in Providence. She also had been a teacher's aide in the Fall River School Department before retiring.

She was a member of Congregation Olam Tikvah, in Fairfax, Va., and a former member of Congregation Adas Israel, in Fall River.

Mrs. Drazen was a member of Hadassah and of the Jewish War Veterans Ladies Auxiliary.

She leaves a daughter, Judith D. Schretter of Reston; a sister, Mary Burstein of Teaneck, N.J.; two grandchildren; and two great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Gussie Blume and Herman, Joseph, David and Melvin Cornell.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at noon in the Samuel Priest Chapel of Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
Rabbi Moshe Drazin dies at 91

Teacher, shochet, founder of Chevra Kadisha

LOS ANGELES — Rabbi Moshe Drazin, 91, formerly a shochet (ritual slaughterer) in Providence, died Aug. 30 in Los Angeles.

A son of the late Rabbi Moshe ben Zvi Hirsh and Sora Mina Drazin, he was married to the late Busia (Bertha) Halperin, who died in 1990.

He was born in 1913 and grew up in Globoka, Poland. He attended several yeshivas, among them the Lubavitcher Yeshiva in Warsaw.

World War II found Drazin and his wife trapped in Poland. They fled just before the Nazis raided their house. For three years, they hid in White Russia in woods, barns and graves. When the war ended, they returned to Vilna barefoot and dressed in rags, only to find their home ransacked and destroyed.

They ended up in Ferenwald, a displaced persons’ camp near Munich, where they remained until they were able to secure passage on a ship to America. They landed in New York on July 15, 1946.

Drazin and his wife settled with relatives in Worcester, Mass. He responded to an ad looking for a shochet, and moved to Providence.

Over the next 42 years, Rabbi Drazin served the Providence community as a shochet for the Vaad HaKashrut and later for Greylaw Poultry, Baal Koreh and Baal Tefilah of Congregation Anshe Kovna. He also served as rabbi of Congregation B’nai Zion and Congregation B’nai Yakov.

Rabbi Drazin was a mashpia (mentor), congregational rabbi, teacher, sofer (scribe), mashgiach (kashrut supervisor), cantor and Torah reader.

He was a yeshivah student of the Previous Rebbe, Rabbi Yosef Y. Schneerson.

He volunteered as the unofficial chaplain of The Miriam Hospital in Providence, visiting patients and monitoring the kashrut of the kitchen. He also served as the unofficial chaplain of the Jewish Home of Rhode Island. He was one of the founders of the Chevra Kadisha of Rhode Island.

In 1988, he and his wife moved from Providence to live near their son in Los Angeles. In California, Drazin became a respected member of the Chabad community.

He leaves a son in Los Angeles and was also the father of Sarah Shulie, who died in 1952.
Meredith E. Drench, Ph.D., P.T., 63

EAST GREENWICH — Meredith (Merry) Drench died May 17. A graduate of Boston and Northeastern universities, she earned her doctorate at Union Institute and University and was a professor of physical therapy at Northeastern. She was an author and a popular lecturer.

Known for her sharp wit, she worked with many healthcare entities, including the VA in Boston.

She was born in New York City and grew up in New Jersey. She wrote “Red Ribbons Are Not Enough” about health professionals caring for people with AIDS, published many articles and co-authored three editions of “Psychosocial Aspects of Health Care.” As a physical and behavioral therapist, she worked and taught all over the world.

A president of Western New England Region Hadassah, she was a past president of the Rhode Island Hadassah chapter and a member of Hadassah’s national board. A judge for national and Rhode Island academic decathlons, she participated in BU’s alumni affairs, and the Meredith E. Drench Lecture Series, Rhode Island Project AIDS and the AIDS Seder.

Daughter of the late Daniel and Madeline Drench of New Jersey, she is survived by her partner Paula Hurd of East Greenwich; brother Peter Drench and sister-in-law Anne Ferguson; nephew Zachary Drench and nieces Jessica Drench and Sarah Ferguson of Massachusetts and extended family, including many friends and colleagues.

Donations may be made to Home & Hospice Care of Rhode Island, 1085 North Main St., Providence, RI 02904, the Dr. Meredith Drench Memorial Scholarship, c/o WNER Hadassah, 200 Reservoir St., Suite 103, Needham, MA 02494 or Westminster Sharing Locker, 119 Kenyon Ave., East Greenwich, RI 02818.
WEST WARWICK

DRESCHER, LILLIAN C., 87, of East Greenwich Ave., passed away on Monday, September 16, 2013 at home, after a long and courageous battle with leukemia. Lillian is especially thankful for the unselfish devotion and sacrifice her daughter, Michelle Lawson, made on behalf of her mother during this battle. Lillian was born in Providence at Jane Brown Hospital on March 20, 1926 in a very special setting to her parents, the late Meyer and Kate (Freedman) Goldstein.

Beloved wife of Walter O. Drescher, married for 31 years, mother of Michelle Lawson, Diane Talan Aronson, Robin Justice, the late Robert Talan and 2 grandchildren.

Lillian earned a degree in interior design from La Salle University and utilized those skills in all aspects of her life. She was a loving mother, a devoted spouse and a loving friend to many. She was a proud member of Temple Am David and its former Sisterhood.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. in SHA-LOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Temple Am David, 40 Gardiner St., Warwick, RI 02888. Shiva will not be observed due to the Jewish Holidays. For condolences:

ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
David Dress, 80; retired newsdealer

PAWTUCKET — David Dress, 80, of 75 Dartmouth St., a newsdealer with a stand at Exchange and Westminster Streets, Providence, for 43 years until retiring, died Friday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Marion (Sondler) Dress.

Born in New York, a son of the late Samuel and Libby Dress, he lived in Providence before moving to Pawtucket 18 years ago.

After retirement, Mr. Dress worked in the photocopy department of Rhode Island Hospital Trust Bank for five years. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Mens Club, the Touro Paternal Association and the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island. He was an Army veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Janice Paull of Warwick; two brothers, Jack Dress of Pawtucket and Al Dress of Miami Beach, Fla.; two sisters, Etta Kessler of Cranston, Bessie Goldman of Warwick, and two grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held today at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Funeral services for Donald Dress of Brooklyn, N.Y., who died on Tuesday, were held Thursday in New York. Mr. Dress was 28.

Mr. Dress, a former Providence resident, had attended Hope High School and was a son of Louis and Eva (Hahn) Dress of 130 Fifth Street. He was born in New Bedford on Dec. 7, 1935. After serving in the U.S. Marine Corps, he lived in North Haven, Conn., while in the employ of Pratt & Whitney.

He moved to Brooklyn two and one-half years ago and was a self-employed prepared foods distributor.

Survivors besides his parents are his wife, Mrs. Pauline (Cooper) Dress, an infant daughter, Michelle Dress, and a sister, Miss Arlyne Dress of Boston, Mass.
CRANSTON

DRESS, IDELLE GALE, 58, of 69 Community Drive, died Sunday, June 28 at Rhode Island Hospital. Born in Providence and residing in Cranston for over 30 years, she was the beloved daughter of Joseph Dress of Virginia Beach, VA, formerly of Providence and the late Frances (Malachowsky) Dress.

She received her Bachelors Degree from Rhode Island College in 1972 and her Masters from Providence College. Idelle was a special education teacher in the Providence school system for 30 years, retiring 4 years ago. She was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael and its Sisterhood and was a life member of Na Amat. Dear sister of Hy Dress of Virginia Beach, VA, Esta Karp of Cranston and Annette Dress of Warwick. Special aunt of Robert Karp, Rachel Dress and Josh and Jeff Dress. Cherished great-aunt of Connor Dress. Idelle loved her three faithful dogs, Ginger, Mitzi and Trouble. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston with burial to follow in Lincoln Park Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Temple Torat Yisrael, 330 Park Ave., Cranston, RI 02905. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Tuesday through Sunday with a Minyan service at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday through Thursday and Sunday.
DRESS, JOSEPH, 94, of Beth Shalom Nursing Home, Virginia Beach, VA, died Saturday, 1/2/10, at the Home. He was the beloved husband of the late Frances (Malachowsky) Dress.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Nathan and Ida (Friedman) Dress, he was a lifelong resident of Providence before moving to Virginia Beach 6 years ago. He was the owner of Joe Dress Fruit and Produce Company in Providence for 25 years, retiring many years ago. Joe was a WW-II Army Air Corps veteran, serving in the European Theatre. He was a life member of Touro Fraternal Association, a member of the former Majestic Senior Guild, Jewish War Veterans Post 23 and served on the board of Beth Sholom Synagogue.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Torat Yisrael, 330 Park Ave., Cranston, RI 02905. Shiva will be observed at the home of Ms. Esta Karp, 30 Haddon Hill Road, Cranston, Tuesday through Friday until sundown.
LOUIS P. DRESS, 88, of Roberts Health Center, North Kingstown, a self-employed fruit and vegetable truck retailer for many years, retiring 18 years ago, died Sunday at the center. He was the husband of the late Eva (Hahn) Dress.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Nathan and Ida Dress, he had lived in North Kingstown since 1994, previously residing in Warwick and Providence.

He was a member of the Cranston Senior Guild, the Shalom Tenants Association and the Providence Fraternal Association.

He leaves a daughter, Arlyne G. Tocman of Warwick; a sister, Betty Clark of Warwick; a brother, Joseph Dress of Providence; and two granddaughters. He was the brother of the late Mollie Rakatansky, Nettie Pattup, Sally Seltzer and Harry Dress. He was father of the late Donald P. Dress.

A graveside service will be held today at 1 p.m. at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick. Burial will follow.

DRESS, Louis P.

July 20, 1997, Beloved husband of the late Eva (Hahn) Dress. Resident of Roberts Health Center, North Kingstown. Formerly of Warwick and Providence. Dear father of Arlyne G. Tocman, Warwick and the late Donald P. Dress. Dear brother of Betty Clark, Warwick; Joseph Dress, Providence and the late Mollie Rakatansky, Nettie Pattup, Sally Seltzer and Harry Dress. Devoted grandfather of Debra and Michelle. Graveside Funeral Service 1 p.m., Tuesday at LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Post Rd., Warwick. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to American Cancer Society. Memorial Observance at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tocman, 33 Larchmont Rd., Warwick, Tuesday 7-9 p.m. and Wednesday 2-4; 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by MOUNT SION MEMORIAL CHAPEL.
Pawtucket

Dress, Marion, Marion, 91, of Whitebrook Terrace, Johnston, formerly of Pawtucket and Providence, died Friday at the Terrace. She was the wife of the late David Dress. Born in Central Falls, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Bessie (Singer) Sondler. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El. Devoted mother of Janice Paull and her husband Sidney of Cranston. Loving sister of the late Sydney Sondler, her twin, also Samuel, Eddie, Jack and Richard Sondler and Rose Segal. Cherished grandmother of Lauren Paull and Gary and his wife Carol Paull. Adored great grandmother of Matthew David and Sarah.

Graveside funeral service Monday at 2:00 p.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Post Road, Warwick. In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to the American Heart Association. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Paull, 455 Meshanticut Valley Pkwy., Cranston. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.

Marion, Correction: Dear friend of Louise Foeberg. Graveside service Monday, 2:00 p.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, Post Road, Warwick. Shiva will be observed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Paull, 455 Meshanticut Valley Pkwy., Cranston. Monday 7-9, Tuesday 2-4 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.
DRESS, Y. Martha
(Bezzan)

July 25, 2001. Beloved wife of the late Dr. Harry Dress. Residence, Johnston; formerly of Providence. Dear mother of Pauline and her husband Barry Cohen, Providence and Narragansett; Samuel Dress, Santa Monica, CA; Jeffrey Dress, Northborough, MA. Devoted grandmother of Lawrence, Holly, Mitchell and Shara Cohen; Brian and Ashley Dress and great-grandmother of Edward, Benjamin, Liberty and David. Funeral to be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva at the home of Pauline and Barry Cohen, 43 Cliff Dr., Narragansett, Wed. 7-9, Thur. 2-4 and 7-9; Fri. 2-4; Sat. 7-9.

The family was assisted with the arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

Y. MARTHA (BEZZAN) DRESS,
92, of Cherry Hill Road, a head payroll clerk, died Monday at Cherry Hill Manor.

She was the wife of the late Dr. Harry Dress. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Ida (Jacobs) Bezzan, she had lived in Providence most of her life before moving to Johnston more than 10 years ago.

Mrs. Dress worked as a head clerk in the payroll department of Speidel, Providence, for more than 15 years before retiring.

She was a member and past president of the former Pioneer Women's Club. She was a former member of the Majestic Seniors and Temple Sinai.

She leaves a daughter, Pauline Cohen of Providence and Narragansett; two sons, Samuel Dress of Santa Monica, Calif., and Jeffrey Dress of Northborough, Mass.; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral was private.
DRESSLER, ABBOTT

WALTER

77, of Providence & Jupiter, FL, died Sunday, November 16, 2014. He was the beloved husband of Phyllis (Bernstein) Dressler for 56 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Joseph and Sarah (Weisman) Dressler. He was a resident of both Providence, RI and Jupiter, FL.

Abbott was an owner and president of the former Colfax Inc. for many years until his retirement in 1999. He was a graduate of Providence Country Day School and the University of Miami, where he was a member of Tau Epsilon Phi Fraternity. Abbott was a past president of AFOA, past master of Redwood Lodge of the Masons, past chairman of Israel Bonds, an alumnus of Leadership RI, a member of Temple Beth-El and its Brotherhood and a member of Admirals Cove and Ledgemont Country Clubs. He was also past president of Admirals Cove Property Owners Association. He was proud to be a Cohein.

Devoted father of Sherri Dressler Klein and her husband, Gary, Gary Dressler and his wife, Susan, and Larry Dressler and his wife, Amy, all of Cranston. Dear brother of the late Maurice and Sidney Dressler and Joan Abrams. Loving grandfather of Joshua, Jared, Scott and Ross.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 10:00 a.m. in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Avenue, Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at the home of Gary and Sherri Klein, Thursday 2-4 & 7-9 and Friday 2-4 p.m. at 11 West Blue Ridge Rd., Cranston, RI. For online condolences, visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
EARL A. DRESSLER, 73, of 3521 Environ Blvd., Lauderhill, Fla., vice president of sales for Colfax in Providence for many years before retiring in 1975, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Doris (Rosener) Dressler.

Born in Norwich, Conn., a son of the late Hyman and Esther (Zuckerman) Dressler, he lived in Providence for many years, and in Cranston for 22 years before moving to Florida 22 years ago.

Mr. Dressler was an Army veteran of World War II, and served in the African and European Theaters. He was a member of Redwood Lodge AF & AM, and the Scottish Rite. He was a member of the Palestine Shrine and its Motor Corps.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Barry Dressler of East Greenwich, and Richard J. Dressler of Lincoln; two sisters, Ileanne Hammer of Pawtucket, and Laura Bernstein of Lauderhill; a brother, Max Dressler of Warwick, and two grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Priscilla Baker and Naomi Keller.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery in Warwick.
DRESS, FRANCES E., 87, of Beth Shalom Nursing Home, Virginia Beach, VA, formerly of Providence, died Wednesday at the home. She was the beloved wife of Joseph Dress. They were married for 63 years.

A lifelong Providence resident before recently moving to Virginia Beach, she was a daughter of the late Hyman and Rose (Herskovitz) Malachowsky.

She was a receptionist at Rhode Island Hospital for 16 years, retiring in 1982. She was a life member of the Women’s Association of the former Jewish Home for the Aged and a former member of the Majestic Senior Guild.

Funeral service Friday at 11:00 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Avenue, Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Crohn’s and Colitis Foundation of America, 386 Park Avenue S., 17th floor, New York, NY 10016-8804 or Beth Shalom Nursing Home, 6401 Auburn Drive, Virginia Beach, VA 23464. Shiva will be observed at the home of Idelle Dress, 69 Community Drive, Cranston, Sunday and Monday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.
CRANSTON — Gloria Dressler died December 18 at the Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center in Providence. She was the wife of the late Maurice Dressler. Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Albert and Fannie (Konovsky) Friedlander. She grew up in Fall River, graduating from Durfee High School in 1942.

She moved to Providence after she was married and lived in Cranston for the last forty years. She is survived by her daughter Maureen (Barry) and her son Michael (Amy), seven grandchildren and ten great grandchildren. She was the sister of Marilyn Levine (Julius) and the late Wilbert Friedlander (Irma). Contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice.
DRESSLER, Janie G. (Fain)

July 26, 2000. Residence: 100 Signal Ridge Way, East Greenwich. Beloved wife of Barry Dressler. Devoted mother of Meryl Dressler at home. Dear sister of Nancy Fain of Warwick. Funeral Services Thursday 1 p.m. in TEMPLE TORAT YISRAEL, 330 Park Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to the Kent County Hospital Oncology Unit, c/o Development Office, 455 Tollgate Rd., Warwick, RI 02886 or your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Thursday 7-9, Friday 2-4 and Sunday 2-5 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston

JANIE G. DRESSLER, 47, of 100 Signal Ridge Way, a substitute teacher, died Wednesday after a long illness with breast cancer.

She was the wife of Barry Dressler. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Leonard and Frances (Alter) Fain, she had lived in East Greenwich for eight years and previously resided in Cranston.

She was a substitute teacher in the East Greenwich School District for three years. Previously, she was a purchasing agent for Fain’s Department Store in Providence, her family’s business, for 12 years.

Mrs. Dressler was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island, Class of 1975. She was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael, its sisterhood and its school board. She was a former treasurer of Myasthenia Gravis, and treasurer and vice president of the Rhode Island Jewish Bowling League.

She was a past president of Sigma Delta Tau, Alpha Beta Chapter, and was on the national board for one year.

She also did volunteer teaching in the East Greenwich School District.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Meryl, at home, and a sister, Nancy Fain of Warwick.

Funeral services were held yesterday in Temple Torat Yisrael, Cranston. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Funeral services for Joseph Dressler, 68, of 170 Slater Avenue, who died Saturday, were held the following day at Temple Emanu-El. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery. The husband of Sarah P. (Weisman) Dressler, he was president of Colfax Packing Company in Pawtucket.

Born in Austria on Dec. 25, 1896, a son of the late Max and Pesha (Herpst) Dressler, he had lived in Providence for the last 32 years. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its men's club, Redwood Lodge of Masons, Temple Beth David in Narragansett, the Jewish Community Center, the Jewish Home for the Aged Association and the Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Besides his wife, he is survived by three sons, Maurice M. and Sidney Dressler, both of Providence, and Abbott W. Dressler of Cranston; two daughters, Mrs. Robert Krasnow and Mrs. Justin Abrams, both of Providence; two brothers, Hyman and David C. Dressler, both of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Abraham Lechtman of West Warwick, and 12 grandchildren.
Lillian Dressler, 91
NORTHAMPTON, Mass. – Lillian Dressler of Northampton and Providence died Sept. 7 at the Overlook at Northampton. She was the wife of Manuel Lester, who died in 1953, and Joseph Dressler, who died in 2008.
She also leaves many friends and acquaintances, so many of whom came to know her as “a special lady,” from the Rockridge Retirement Community, where she resided for the last nine years, and from the Northampton and Providence communities.
Contributions may be sent to Rockridge Retirement Community, 37 Coles Meadow Road, Northampton, MA 01060 or the Overlook at Northampton, 222 River Road, Leeds, MA 01053.
Lisa C. Dressler; victim of slaying

PROVIDENCE — Lisa C. Dressler, 27, of 150 Carpenter St. was slain and found dead July 29 in woods in Smithfield. She was the widow of Robert Dressler.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of Olympia L. (Pine) Amitrano, and the late Vincent Amitrano.

Besides her mother she leaves a stepson, Alex Dressler of Providence; two brothers, Vincent Amitrano of Johnston, Kevin Amitrano of Providence, and six sisters, Beverly Verria, Linda Amitrano, Anita Amitrano, Diana Amitrano, Gina Amitrano all of Providence, and Valerie Sarchione of Johnston.

The funeral will be private.
DRESSLER, Marian "Miriam"
3-18-2016

Marian “Miriam” Dressler
WEST PALM BEACH, FLA. – Marian Dressler (also known as Miriam) of West Palm Beach, Fla., formerly of Cranston, passed away March 18. Beloved wife of Oscar Dressler. Loving mother of Lorna, Larry and Brian. Dear sister of Anna, Abraham and Jean. Cherished grandmother of Greff, Sara Dubinsky and Steven Dressler.

She lived most of her life in Rhode Island where she raised her family. She was a member of Hadassah and a lifelong mahjong player. In her younger years, she worked as a bookkeeper and volunteered at her temple.

Contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, American Cancer Society or Salvation Army.
Maurice M. Dressler; Headed Meat Company

Maurice M. Dressler, 52, of 670 Elmgrove Ave, Providence, president of Colfax Inc., of Pawtucket, died yesterday in The Miriam Hospital shortly after he suffered a seizure at the Jewish Community Center. He was the husband of Gloria (Friedlander) Dressler.

Mr. Dressler had been president of Colfax, a meat packing firm, since 1965. He had previously served the company as its vice president.

He was born in Providence July 15, 1919, a son of Sarah (Weisman) Dressler and the late Joseph Dressler.

He was a member of the board of directors of Temple Emanu-El, the section chairman of Special Gifts of the 1972 United Fund Campaign, and a founder of the Industrial Blood Bank of Southeast New England.

Mr. Dressler also was an officer of the United Arts, a member of the Slater Mill restoration committee, past president of the New England Wholesale Meat Dealers, past president of Crestwood Country Club, past vice president of the Jewish Community Center and a member of Redwood Lodge No. 55 AF & AM.

Besides his wife and mother, a Providence resident, he is survived by one son Michael Dressler of Providence; a daughter, Mrs. Maureen Doran of Cranston; two brothers, Sidney of Barrington and Abbott Dressler of Cranston; two sisters, Mrs. Priscilla Krasnow of Warwick and Mrs. Joan Abrams of Providence; and one grandchild.

Mr. Dressler was a veteran of World War II. He served in the Army with the Quartermaster Corps in the European theater and attained the rank of captain.

Funeral services will be held today at 1 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DRESSLER, OSCAR A., 91,
9 Lyndon Road, died Thursday at the Miriam Hospital, Providence. He was the beloved husband of Marian (Rubinstein) Dressler. They were married for 58 years.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Lawrence and Rose (Goldstein) Dressler, he had lived in Cranston for 48 years. He was the owner of Modern Glass Company in Pawtucket for 60 years, retiring 6 years ago. Oscar was a member of the Board of Directors of Temple Torat Yisrael and was a member of its Mens Club, Touro Fraternal Association, Post 23 of the JWV and the RI Glass Dealers Association. He was an avid bowler and swimmer.

Devoted father of Lawrence Dressler of New Orleans, LA, Brian Dressler of Cranston and Lorna Dubinsky of West Palm Beach, FL. Dear brother of the late Edgar, Shepley and Jerome Dressler. Loving grandfather of Gregg and Sara.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Torat Yisrael or Jewish Family Service. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Sunday 7-9, Monday and Tuesday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.
Robert P. Dressler

PROVIDENCE — Robert Paul Dressler, 35, of 3 Roger Williams Green, owner of Rhode Island Fleet Wash Co. for four years, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Lisa Amitrano Dressler.

Born in Providence, he was a son of Sidney and Yvonne (Goldstein) Dressler of Cranston.

Besides his wife and parents, he leaves a son, Alexander Joseph Dressler of Cranston, and a brother, Steven Dressler of San Diego, Calif.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 10 a.m. at Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DRESSLER, RUTH (BERMAN), 84, of Lauderhill, FL, formerly of Woonsocket, died Saturday, October 22, 2005 in University Medical Center, Tamarac, FL after a courageous battle with breast cancer. Born in Somerville, MA, she was the daughter of the late Louis and Rebba (Weisman) Berman.

She and her late husband of 55 years, Sheppie Dressler, founded Woonsocket Glass & Mirror, Inc. where she served as vice president and treasurer. They lived in Woonsocket for 40 years before moving to Lauderhill, FL in 1986 after retiring.

She was a member of Congregation B’Nai Israel in Woonsocket, RI where she was Sisterhood President from 1964-1966, treasurer 1980-1985, a life member of Sisterhood, and former member of the Board of Directors. She was also a life member of Hadassah, RI and Inverrary, life member of the Jewish Home for the Aged of RI, and former member of the Deborah Foundation Hospital of Inverrary, FL.

She was well known for her beautiful, blonde hair and sparkling blue eyes. Ruth enjoyed dancing, and she and her fiance were avid cruisers, winning many dancing awards on the cruise ships on which they sailed.
SHEPPIE DRESSLER, 86, of 7300 Radice Court, Lauderhill, Fla., founder of Woonsocket Glass and Mirror Co. in 1946, died Wednesday at Vitas Hospice Care in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He was the husband of Ruth (Berman) Dressler.

Born in Poland, a son of the late Marshal Leon and Sarah (Superfine) Dressler, he had lived in Woonsocket before retiring to Florida in 1985.

Mr. Dressler was an Army veteran of World War II, serving in North Africa and at the European front. He was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel, B'nai B'rith and the Shriners.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons, Mitchell L. Dressler of Dresher, Pa., and Stephen B. Dressler of Cranston; and a grandson.

The funeral was held yesterday at 1 p.m. in Congregation B'nai Israel Synagogue, Prospect Street. Burial was in B'nai Israel Cemetery.
Sidney Dressler, 69; president of Colfax

PROVIDENCE — Sidney Dressler, 69, of Alton Road, president of Colfax for the past 20 years, died yesterday at Bethesda Hospital, Boynton Beach, Fla. He was the husband of Yvonne (Goldstein) Dressler.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Joseph and Sarah (Wise­man) Dressler.

Mr. Dressler attended the University of Rhode Island. He was a past chairman of the Israel Bonds in the State of Rhode Island. He received the Man of the Year Award from the Boston Bakers Club. He was a member of the board of directors of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, and the Jewish Home for the Aged of Rhode Island. He was a member of Temple Beth-El and Temple Sinai.

He was a member of Ledgemont Country Club, the America Fats and Oils Association, and the American Bakers Association. He was a Miriam People founder, and a member of the Marathon House, R.I., the Jewish Historical Association, the Hebrew Free Loan Association of Providence, and Redwood Lodge 35, AF&AM. He was an Army veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Steven Dressler of North Kingstown; a brother, Abbott W. Dressler of Cranston; two sisters, Joan Abrams of Providence, Priscilla Krasner of Warwick, and three grandchildren. He was father of the late Robert P. Dressler, and brother of the late Maurice Dressler.

The funeral will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at Temple Beth-El, Orchard Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DRESSLER, YVONNE M. (GOLDSTEIN), 84, died peacefully Saturday, January 16, 2010, at Hallworth House in Providence. Her funeral service and burial were held Sunday, January 17, at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Rabbi L. Gutterman officiating.

Yvonne was born in Providence, the daughter of Louis and Jessie (Namerow) Goldstein and was the beloved wife of the late Sidney Dressler. Yvonne graduated from Hope High School, attended the University of Rhode Island and the Rhode Island School of Design, and formerly enjoyed a winter home in West Palm Beach, Florida. Though plagued with physical ailments most of her adult years, she found the strength to be active in many communal organizations in Rhode Island with her late husband, involving themselves in fundraising and charitable causes for many organizations. She was a vivacious and resilient woman, hosting many community-wide events for organizations, family and friends, and was considered the Pearl Mesta of her day, always finding time to express love and concern for her family and friends.

Yvonne is survived by her beloved son, Steven; her loving daughter-in-law Melaney Nichols, former wife of her deceased son, Robert; her dearest grandchildren and great-grandchild.

Contributions in her memory may be made to Home and Hospice Care of Rhode Island, 1085 North Main Street, Providence, RI 02906.
DREXLER, ALEXANDRA LEVIN), 83, of Benefit St., Providence, a former physician in Russia, died March 3, 2005 at Philip Hulitar Hospice Center. She was the wife of the late Vladimir Drexler.

Born in Odessa, Ukraine, a daughter of the late Isaiah and Ida (Moshes) Levin, she lived in St. Petersburg, Russia until coming to the United States in 1979, living in Pawtucket and Providence.

Mrs. Drexler was a graduate of the First Medical Institute in St. Petersburg. She was a former member of Ohawe Sholam in Pawtucket. Mrs. Drexler studied music in Odessa and played the piano her entire life.

She leaves two daughters, Sophia Herman of Pawtucket and Ludmilla Lifson of Swampscott, MA, a brother; Philip Levin of Brighton, MA, 2 grandchildren, Dimitri and Alex, and 6 great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope Street, Providence with burial in Temple Beth El Cemetery, Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Temple Beth El Cemetery Fund, 70 Orchard Avenue, Providence, RI 02906. Shiva is private.
VLADIMIR DREXLER, 79, of 150 Dartmouth St., a civil engineer in Russia before retiring 14 years ago, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital, Providence. He was the husband of Alexandra (Levin) Drexler.

Born in Russia, he was a son of the late Chaim and Sura Drexler. He had lived in St. Petersburg, Russia, before coming to Providence 14 years ago. He had lived in Pawtucket for the last 12 years.

Mr. Drexler was a graduate of the Civil Engineering College in St. Petersburg, Russia. He was a member of Congregation Ohavath Sholom of Pawtucket.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Sophia Herman of Pawtucket and Ludmilla Lifson of Swampscott, Mass.; a brother, Lazar Drexler of San Francisco, Calif., and two grandchildren.

A funeral will be held tomorrow at 1 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.
GUSTAV DREYFUSS

Funeral services for Gustav Dreyfuss, 72, of 76 Weetmoe Drive, Warwick, who died on Monday after a year's illness, were held on Wednesday at the Cranston Jewish Center. Burial was in Mount Carmel Cemetery, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Mr. Dreyfuss was the founder of the North American Shoe Co. of Providence. He lived in the Greater Providence area for 50 years before moving to Warwick two years ago.

The husband of the late Clara (Bryull) Dreyfuss, he was born in Baden, Switzerland, on Sept. 2, 1891, the son of the late Jacob and Sarah (Mossbacher) Dreyfuss.

He founded the shoe firm in Providence in 1918 and was actively engaged in its operation until his retirement three years ago.

Mr. Dreyfuss was a member of Temple Beth El for 25 years before moving to Cranston and became a member of the Cranston Jewish Center. He was a life member of Redwood Lodge, F. & A.M.

Surviving are a son, Dr. Jack B. Dreyfuss of Warwick; five sisters, Mrs. Raline Elsman of New York City, Mrs. Theresa Cohen and Mrs. Mimi Antmann, both of Israel, Mrs. Bertha Plaut of Frankfort, Germany, and Mrs. Henrietta Lowenstein of Toulouse, France; and two grandsons.
DR. JACK B. DREYFUSS

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. — Dr. Jack B. Dreyfuss, 76, Delray Beach, Fla., formerly of Warwick, R.I., died Sept. 16 after a long illness. He was the husband of the late Renee (Kahn) Dreyfuss.

He practiced dentistry in Providence for more than 35 years before retiring in 1980. He was a congregant of Temple Torat Yisrael in Cranston. He was active in community theater productions and was a member of the Barker Playhouse.

He leaves two sons, Stephen L. Dreyfuss of Warwick and Robert H. and Sue Dreyfuss of Catonsville, Md., and four grandchildren. Burial was in Eternal Light Memorial Gardens in Boynton Beach, Fla.
Obituaries

RENEE K. DREYFUSS

DELRAY BEACH, Fla. — Renee K. Dreyfuss, 68, of 5104 Foxpointe Circle, died unexpectedly May 5, 1989. She was the wife of Dr. Jack B. Dreyfuss.

Born in New York, she was the daughter of the late Samuel and Ida Kahn. She had lived in Cranston and Warwick before moving to Florida eight years ago.

Mrs. Dreyfuss was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island and received her Master's degree in education from Rhode Island College. She served as an elementary teacher and reading specialist for the city of Cranston for over twenty years. She was former Sisterhood president of Temple Torat Yisrael. While residing in Florida, Mrs. Dreyfuss continued her community service by serving as president of the South Palm Beach Chapter of Friends for Life, supporting continuing medical research at the University of Miami Medical Center. In addition, she provided voluntary tutorial assistance to the underprivileged and functionally illiterate.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Stephen L. Dreyfuss of Warwick, R.I. and Robert H. Dreyfuss of Catonsville, Md., and four grandchildren. Burial was in Eternal Light Cemetery, Florida.
Stephen L. Dreyfuss, 67

WARWICK, R.I. – Stephen L. Dreyfuss died Nov. 10 at Kent Hospital. Born in Providence, a beloved son of the late Jack and Renee (Kahn) Dreyfuss, he had lived in Warwick since 1960, previously living in Cranston. He spent more than 40 years working with schools, music educators and community groups providing on-site music recordings. He was a controller for several retail stores and an administrative director for R.I. Optometric Assoc.

He was the devoted father of Jillian Dreyfuss Marks of Cranston and Emily Dreyfuss of Warwick; brother of Robert Dreyfuss of Ellicott City, Md. Loving grandfather of Sophia.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to R.I. Music Education Assoc., 667 Waterman Ave., East Providence, R.I. 02914.
Dronzek, Marvin
82, of 140 Spencer Woods Dr., died Sunday, February 23, 2014, at Miriam Hospital. He was the beloved husband of Marcia (Wintner) Dronzek for 49 years.
Born in Cleveland, OH, a son of the late Joseph and Esther (Lansky) Dronzek, he had lived in East Greenwich for 35 years.
Marvin spent his career as a tax attorney. He was also a Navy veteran. Marvin was a member of Temple Sinai.
Devoted father of Ellen Orkin and her husband Jonathan of Canton, MA and Jeff Dronzek and his wife Jennifer of East Greenwich.
Dear brother of Donald Dronzek of CA and Eileen Turoff of OH.
Loving grandfather of Emily, Abigail, Amanda and Danielle.
Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 11:00 a.m. in TEMPLE SINAI, 30 Hagan Ave.,
Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Temple Sinai or Miriam Hospital Oncology Unit. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Tuesday 7-9, Wednesday and Thursday 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. For online condolences, go to ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
Louis Drucker, 93

PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Louis Drucker, originally of Brooklyn, N.Y., died July 28, at home surrounded by family and close friends. He was the husband of Mildred (Yellin) Drucker, a loving brother, father, grandfather and great-grandfather. He is described by his family as a sweet, gentle and always curious soul, as well as a fierce intellectual.

He had a long career as an analytical chemist, with a focus on printing ink.

He instilled the value of a strong education in his daughter, and then his seven grandchildren. He and his wife traveled on Elder Hostel trips throughout the world with wide-ranging educational focuses.

Louis was an avid bowler and golfer in his younger years, and enjoyed teaching his grandchildren to hit on the driving range. His other passions included listening to classical music and opera, and attending concerts and lectures with Mildred in New York, and then later in Providence.

He was a proud veteran, having served as a radio operator in WWII.

He was father to the late Marjorie Thompson, and is survived by his wife, Mildred (Yellin) Drucker; his son-in-law, Ian Thompson; his sister Marylin Bennett, and brother, Rubin Drucker; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Donations in his memory may be made to Hope Hospice and Palliative Care of R.I. or Temple Emanu-El.

---

PROVIDENCE

DRUCKER, LOUIS

93, originally of Brooklyn, New York, passed away Thursday, July 28, 2016 at home surrounded by family and close friends. Louis was beloved husband to his wife, Mildred; and a loving brother, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather. He was a man of great pride and routine, as well as great warmth and love. He is described by his family as a sweet, gentle, and always curious soul, as well as a fierce intellectual.

He was father to the late Marjorie Thompson, and is survived by his wife, Mildred (Yellin) Drucker; his son-in-law, Ian Thompson; his sister Marylin Bennett, and brother, Rubin Drucker; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held Monday, August 1st at 10:00 AM at Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Donations in his memory may be made to Hope Hospice and Palliative Care of R.I. or Temple Emanu-El. For complete information and condolences, www.SugarmanSinai.com.
THE EVENING BULLETIN

OBITUARIES

Joseph Dubin

Former supermarket owner was a founder of Hebrew Day School

HOLMENALE, Fla. — Joseph Dubin, 88, of South Ocean Drive, a former Providence resident and one of the founders of the Providence Hebrew Day School, died today after a four-month illness. He was the husband of Rose (Hoffman) Dubin. The late Paula (White) Dubin was his first wife.

Mr. Dubin was the former owner of the Auburn Super Market on Rolfe Street in Cranston for more than 25 years.

Mr. Dubin was an avid supporter of the Hebrew Day School for more than 40 years. He was presented the Amudim award by Torah U'Mesorah for his works in the Jewish community. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Florence Fischer of Pembroke Pines, Fla., and Eileen Winkler of Cranston; a son, Harold Dubin of Union, N.J., eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 1:30 at the Providence Hebrew Day School, 450 Elm Grove Ave., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Selma Dubey, 96
FREEHOLD, N.J. - Selma Dubey died May 7 at Wedgwood Gardens. She was the beloved wife of the late Harold Charles Dubey. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Morris and Gertrude (Broomfield) Kaufman, she had lived in New Jersey since 1978, previously living in Rhode Island for 50 years and California for four years.

She was an expediter at Brown & Sharpe in Providence for 20 years, retiring in 1978. Selma was an avid knitter, reader and storyteller.

She was the devoted mother of the late Steven H. Dubey and Barbara J. Bergen. She was the dear sister of John Kaufman of Coventry and Florida, Melvin "Marty" Kaufman of Cranston, Frances Rodynsky of Boca Raton, Florida, and the late Leo Kaufman, Sadie Shanfield, Evelyn Goldberg and Florence Cannon. She was the loving grandmother of Hillary Bergen, Alexander Dubey and Christina Morgan.
SIMON DUBIN, 79, of 1085 North Main St., a Holocaust survivor, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of the late Paula (Jackobovitch) Dubin.

Mr. Dubin, born in Poland, moved to Providence four years ago from Florida.

For many years before moving to Florida, he had operated Dubin's Bakery in Brookline, Mass. Mr. Dubin was a member of Temple Kehillath Israel in Brookline.

He leaves a daughter, Esther Weiner of Highland Park, Ill.; and two sons, Dr. Howard Dubin of Coventry and Marc Dubin of Washington, D.C.

A graveside service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Linwood Cemetery, Randolph, Mass.

DUBIN, Simon

May 15, 1997. Residence 1085 North Main St., Providence. Beloved husband of the late Paula (Jackobovitch) Dubin. Devoted father of Dr. Howard Dubin, Coventry; Marc Dubin, Washington, D.C.; and Esther Weiner, Highland Park, Ill. Adored grandfather of Jocelyn, Andrew, Seth and Justin. A Graveside Service will be held Friday at 2:00 pm at Linwood Cemetery, Randolph, MA. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to American Heart Association, 40 Broad St., Pawtucket, RI 02860. Shiva will be private. The family was assisted with the arrangements by The MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., (corner Doyle Ave.) Providence.
Bella R. Dubinsky

SILVER SPRINGS, Md. — Bella R. Dubinsky, 88, of Meridian Nursing and Rehabilitation Center, an employee at the former Doris Corset Shop, Providence, for 20 years before retiring 20 years ago, died yesterday at the center. She was the widow of Nathan Dubinsky.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Samuel and Eva Lukomnik, she had lived in Providence for 80 years before moving to Silver Springs six years ago.

Mrs. Dubinsky was a member of Hadassah and the Sisterhood of the Congregation Shaare Zedek-Sons of Abraham.

She leaves two sons, Carl Dubinsky of Roslyn Heights, N.Y., Robert Dubinsky of Rockville, Md.; four sisters, Ray Deitz, Pearl Lorsch, Ann Green and Jeanette Becker, all of New York City; a brother, Sid Lukomnik of Florida; 5 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

The funeral services will be held Sunday at 12:30 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Bella Dubinsky, 96
EAST PROVIDENCE, R.I. — Bella (Kroll) Dubinsky died Oct. 4 at home. She was the wife of the late Milton M. Dubinsky.
She was born and resided most of her life in Providence.
She was the daughter of the late George and Rose (Rothman) Kroll and sister of the late Sanford Kroll (Elaine).
She is survived by her loving family and her many friends. She was the mother of Esta S. Cohen (Gerald) of East Greenwich and Lenore B. Cohen (Richard) of Cranston. Grandmother of Rina Vertes (Roger) of Newton, Mass.; Amy Blustein (Howard) of Cranston; Marcy Rosenthal (Richard) of North Andover, Mass.; Ronald Cohen (Rachel) of Natick, Mass. and Daniel Cohen (Elizabeth) of Maplewood, N.J. Great-grandmother of Marissa and Joshua Vertes, Mitchell and Rachel Blustein, Matthew and Jessica Rosenthal and Jake, Alex, Milton and Nathaniel Cohen.
She was active in community and philanthropic activities, including at Temple Emanu-El, where she was a former board member, president of the Sister-hoo, and an honoree at Simchat Torah ceremonies; life member of the former Jewish Home for the Aged, where she organized and managed the gift shop for many years; Tamarisk Assisted Living; The Miriam Hospital; Jewish Federation of Rhode Island; Jewish Seniors Agency; and Hadassah. She was an avid golfer, and with her late husband, was a charter member of Crestwood Country Club.

She enjoyed winters at her residence in Longboat Key, Fla., She was the matriarch of her family.
Contributions in her memory may be made to the Milton and Bella Dubinsky Fund, at Temple Emanu-El, or Hope Hospice & Palliative Care of R.I., 1085 N. Main St., Providence, R.I. 02904 or the charity of your choice.
Funeral services for Benjamin Dubinsky, 88, a retired contractor, were held at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home on Sunday, Feb. 3. Rabbi Joshua Werner officiated. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Mr. Dubinsky was born in Russia and had been a resident of this city for 47 years. He was a member of the Tiferes Israel Synagogue, Independent Order of Brith Abraham, South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, Jewish Home for the Aged, and the South Providence Chevra Kadisha.

Surviving are his widow, Annie (Rakatansky) Dubinsky; three daughters, Mrs. Edith Cooper and Mrs. Peter Yosinoff of Providence and Mrs. Louis Krasnow of Fall River; two sons, Frank Dubinsky of Hartford, Conn., and Nathan Dubinsky of Providence; thirteen grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren.
Frank Dubinsky

PALM DESERT, Calif. — Frank Dubinsky, 90, of 73-373 Country Club Drive, head of the Chicago Annual Flower Show for 10 years before retiring 10 years ago, died yesterday at Desert Hospital, Palm Springs. He was the husband of the late Edith Dubinsky.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Boruch and Anna (Rakatansky) Dubinsky, he lived in Providence for many years before moving to California 13 years ago. Mr. Dubinsky was also publisher of the Jewish Ledger, Hartford, and a writer for the Providence Tribune more than 50 years ago. He was a member of Redwood Lodge AF & AM.

He leaves two sons, Alfred Dubinsky of Palm Desert and William Dubinsky of Huntington Beach; two sisters, Lena Yosinoff of Warwick and Rose Krasnow of Fall River, Mass.; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be private.
Milton M. Dubinsky

PAWTUCKET — Milton M. Dubinsky, 77, of 28 Cambria Court, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Bella (Kroll) Dubinsky.

Born in Providence, a son of the late Benjamin and Esther Dubinsky, he lived in Pawtucket for 20 years.

Mr. Dubinsky was founder and former president of Lincoln Controls, a division of Avnet Inc., Cranston, from 1947 until 1977. He was founder and former president of Die Tech Industries, Providence, since 1980. He was a past president of Temple Emanu-El, and a member of its Men's Club. He received the Man of Emanu-El Award and the Temple Emanu-El Thallit Award in 1968. He was a board member of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

He was a director of Sholam Apartments, Warwick. He was a member of Redwood Lodge 35 AF & AM, and the Touro Fraternal Association. He was a founding member and a former officer of the Crestwood Country Club, and president of the Tiffany Plaza Condominium Association, Longboat Key, Fla. He was an Air Force veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife he leaves his stepmother, Rose Dubinsky in Florida; two daughters, Esta Cohen of East Greenwich, and Lenore B. Cohen of Cranston; a brother, Sidney Dubinsky of Towson, Md.; a sister, Charlotte Shorter of Palm Coast, Fla., and five grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue, Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
ROSE DUBINSKY, 101, of the Riverview Jewish Home in Jacksonville, Fla., died yesterday at the Methodist Hospice Unit in Jacksonville. She was the widow of Benjamin Dubinsky.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Mr. & Mrs. Shmuel Siegel, she had lived in Woonsocket and Providence before moving to Florida in 1952.

She leaves a daughter, Charlotte Shorter of Palm Coast, Fla.; a son, Sidney Dubinsky of Towson, Md.; four grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

A graveside funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
DUBITSKY, Daisy
(Payton)

December 17, 1988. Beloved wife of the late Samuel Dubitsky, Resident of Ft. Lauderdale, Fl. Former resident of Providence, Barrington and Fall River. Dear mother of Sylvia and Harriet Dubitsky, Ft. Lauderdale and Ira Dubitsky, Miami. Dear sister of Ruth Brain, Delray Beach and the late Neda Logowitz, Florence Ostrow and William, Matthew and Bernard Payton. Devoted grandmother of Lori and Juli. Graveside Funeral Service 11 a.m. Wednesday at TEMPLE BETH EL CEMETERY, Fall River. Relatives and friends are invited. In lieu of flowers. Contributions may be made to American Heart Assn. Arrangements by MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.

DAISY DUBITSKY, 89, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., 2201 N.E. 66th St., died yesterday at the Imperial Point Medical Center in Ft. Lauderdale. She was the widow of Samuel Dubitsky.

Born in Brooklyn, a daughter of the late Harry and Sarah Payton, she lived in Providence, Fall River, Mass., and Barrington, before returning to Providence in 1968. She moved to Florida a year ago.

Mrs. Dubitsky was a member of Temple Beth-El in Fall River.

She leaves two daughters, Sylvia and Harriet Dubitsky, both of Ft. Lauderdale; a son, Ira Dubitsky of Miami, Fla.; a sister, Ruth Brain of Delray, Fla.; and two granddaughters. She was the sister of the late Neda Logowitz, Florence Ostrow, and William, Matthew and Bernard Payton.

A graveside service will be held Wednesday at 11 a.m. at Temple Beth-El Cemetery in Fall River.
Jacob Dubovick

PROVIDENCE — Jacob Dubovick, 75, of 156 Lancaster St., died today at home after a three-month illness. He was the husband of Sarah (Shuster) Dubovick. He was a grocery merchant. Mr. Dubovick was a member of Touro Fraternal Association, the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association, and a life member of Congregation Anshe Kovno-Sons of Zion.

Mr. Dubovick and his wife founded the New England Academy of Torah girls dormitory on Taft Avenue.

Born in Russia, he was a son of the late Mordechai and Sarah (Briliant) Dubovick. He had lived in Providence since 1930.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Rabbi Dov Dubovick of Dallas, Texas, and Rabbi Yitzchok Dubovick of Providence, and eight grandchildren.

The funeral service was to be held today at 3 p.m. at the Providence Hebrew Day School. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
Funeral services for Mrs. Mollie Dubovick, 53, of 493 Peckham Street, Fall River, Mass., who died Aug. 7, were held the following day at the Fisher Memorial Chapel in Fall River. Burial was in the Beth El Cemetery in that city.

The wife of Paul Dubovick, she was a member of Temple Beth-El in Fall River, the Beth-El Sisterhood, the Pioneer Women, the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Sisterhood of the Union Street Synagogue.

Born in Russia, daughter of the late Harry and Rose (Pedlikin), Mrs. Dubovick was a former resident of Providence and lived in Fall River for the last 27 years.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Harold and Melvin Dubovick, both of Fall River; two brothers, Irving and Max Pedlikin, both of Providence; two sisters, Mrs. Samuel Cohen of Cranston and Mrs. Leonard Schoenberg of Knowles Way, Scarborough Beach.
Sarah Dubovick

PROVIDENCE — Sarah Dubovick, 80, of 156 Lancaster St., died yesterday at home. She was the widow of Jacob Dubovick.

Born in New Bedford, Mass., a daughter of the late Harry and Annie (Rikes) Shuster, she lived in Providence for 52 years previously living in New Bedford.

Mrs. Dubovick was a dorm mother at New England Academy of Torah for three years before retiring 17 years ago.

She leaves two sons, Rabbi Dove Dubovick of Dallas, Texas and Rabbi Yitzchok Dubovick of Providence; a brother, Abraham Shuster of Mount Laurel, N.J.; a sister, Miriam Brody of Milwaukee, Wis., and the late Isadore and Philip Shuster. Loving grandmother of 14 grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Isadore and Philip Shuster.

A funeral service will be held today at 10 a.m. at the Sugarman-Smith Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.). In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Providence Hebrew Day School, or VNA Hospice. Shiva will be observed at her late residence through Friday.
DUCHIN, DAVID MICHAEL of Providence and Vero Beach, Florida, died on Tuesday, November 13, 2012. He was the husband of Gloria Duchin. Born in New York, NY on July 11, 1939, he was the son of the late Benjamin and Helen (Pearlman) Duchin.

Mr. Duchin was an engineer with Gloria Duchin, Inc. for over 33 years. He graduated with honors in engineering from New York University and was a fellow scholar.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Robyn, and son-in-law Theodore Smalletz, of East Greenwich; and a grandson, Jonathan Smalletz of Baltimore, MD.

His funeral services will be private. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Massachusetts General Hospital, Cancer Research Center, Blake 1570, 55 Fruit Street, Boston, MA 02114.
DUCCOFF, LILLIAN G., of Epoch on the East Side, 1 Butler Ave., Providence, died May 22, 2012 at Epoch. She was the beloved wife of the late Dr. Morris Ducoff.

Born in Weehauken, NJ, a daughter of the late Max and Sadie Gerson, she had lived in Providence for 6 years, previously living in Pembroke Pines, FL for 30 years. Lillian was a member of Temple Beth-El and ORT. She was a life member of Hadassah.

Devoted mother of Dr. Robert J. Ducoff and his wife, Diane, of Providence and Richard B. Ducoff of Plantation, FL. Dear sister of the late Philip Gerson. Loving grandmother of Michelle Miller and her husband, Andrew, Patti Albert and her husband, Benjamin, and Lynn Belkin and her husband, Matthew. Cherished great grandmother of Sydney and Adam Miller and Ysabel and Dylan Albert.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the Frances & David Friedman Fund, c/o Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence, RI 02906 or Beacon Hospice, 1 Catamore Blvd., Suite 101, East Providence, RI 02914. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Wed. 7-9 and Thurs. 2-4 & 7-9 p.m.
DUCOFF, DR. MORRIS

"DUKE", 91, died Thursday, February 12, 2009, at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the beloved husband of Lillian (Gerson) Ducoff.

Born in Union City, NJ, the son of the late Max and Rebecca (Brodsky) Ducoff, he had been a resident of Epoch of the East Side, Providence for 3 years, previously residing in Teaneck, NJ and Pembroke Pines, FL. "Duke" as he was affectionately known to all, was a graduate of NYU and the University of Pennsylvania School of Dentistry. Following his service in the U.S. Army Air Corps from 1942-1946, he practiced dentistry in Union City and Teaneck, NJ until 1978. He was a member of Temple Beth-El and an avid sports fan.

Proud father of Dr. Robert J. Ducoff and his wife, Diane, of Providence and Richard B. Ducoff of Plantation, FL. Loving grandfather of Michelle Miller and her husband, Andrew, of Pawtucket, Patti Albert and her husband, Benjamin, of West Hartford, CT and Lynn Belkin and her husband, Matthew, of Brooklyn, NY. Cherished great grandfather of Sydney and Adam Miller and Ysabel Albert.

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 10:00 a.m. in TEMPLE BETH-EL. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the Frances and David Friedman Fund, Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence, RI 02906 or Hadassah, 1150 New London Ave., Cranston, RI 02920. Shiva will be observed at the home of Robert and Diane Ducoff, 75 Loring Ave., Providence, Sunday 7-9 and Monday 2-4 & 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.
FORT MYERS, FLA. Sheila Ester (Gershman) Levine Duerden, of Fort Myers, died Jan. 18 in Fort Myers. Born in Pawtucket, formerly of Providence and Cranston, she was a resident of Fort Myers for 31 years.

Daughter of the late Harry and Miriam (Pomarans) Gershman. Wife of the Phillip Levine and wife for 18 years of the late Edward Francis Duerden of Ft. Myers. Beloved mother of Lisa Levine Genzer of Indian Rocks Beach, Fla. and stepmother of Christopher (Georgia) Duerden and Jamaine Duerden all of Florida. Cherished grandmother of Justin Ingram Simmons, Chelsea Duerden and Madeleine Rodriguez. Caring companion of Samuel Frazer of Fort Myers, sister of Phyllis Goldberg of West Palm Beach, Fla.

In Rhode Island, Shelia was a past president of Pawtucket Hadassah and a former member of Temple Beth-El and Temple Sinai. A longtime entrepreneur in the retail industry, she owned and operated Sportsmania at Fleamasters for the past 25 years. As an active member of Temple Beth-El in Fort Myers, she has been recognized for her outstanding fundraising efforts on behalf of the temple as a facilitator of the monthly Mah Jongg tournaments. A skilled tournament Mah Jongg player, she also excelled in canasta and bridge. These were some of her spare time passions. Always with a smile, her wit and sense of humor endeared her to a wide circle of friends and her family.

Contributions in Sheila’s memory to the Temple Beth-El Religious School Fund, 16225 Winkler Ave., Ft. Myers, Fla. 33908 or to Central Florida Hillel for Taglit-Birthright Israel, 3925 Lockwood Blvd., Orviedo, Fla. 32765.
Funeral services for Alvin Dunder of Des Moines, Iowa, who died unexpectedly July 15, were held at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

He was the husband of Evelyn (Badin) Dunder and the son of Nat and Rose (Melivsky) Dunder of Providence. Born in Providence on June 27, 1927, he had been a lifelong resident of the city until moving to Iowa a year ago.

Mr. Dunder was employed as district manager of Aetna Finance Company in Des Moines. He had been associated with the Providence office.

He was a Marine veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife, father and mother, he is survived by two children, a son, Charles P. Dunder, and a daughter, Diane F. Dunder, and one sister, Mrs. Frank Pupa of Framingham, Mass.

Bearers were Fred Dunder, Jack Goldberg, Frank Pupa, Hyman Schachter, Myer Jarcho, Leonard Goldman, Benjamin Adler, Burton Himmelfarb, Irving Borden and Morris Satloff.
DUNDER, CELIA

92, of Warwick, died Tuesday, June 23, 2015, at Greenwich Farms Senior Living. She was the beloved wife of the late Fred Dunder. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Joseph and Clara (Ulonofsky) Reichin, she had lived in Cranston since 1958, before moving to Warwick over 6 years ago. Celia was a WW-II Navy veteran, serving stateside as a Yeoman 2nd Class. She was a founding member of Temple Sinai and was a member of its Sisterhood. She was a life member of Hadassah and a member of the National Council of Jewish Women. Devoted mother of Barbara Dunder of Cranston and Pamela Dunder-Mann and her husband Ron of East Greenwich. Loving grandmother of Ryan Forman, Evan and Ashley Galkin and Jason Galkin and his fiancée Amy. Cherished great-grandmother of Hadley and Beckett. Celia was pre-deceased by 7 siblings. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2:00 p.m. in the PRIEST CHAPEL at Lincoln Park Cemetery, 1469 Post Rd., Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Mazon, 10495 Santa Monica Blvd., Suite 100, Los Angeles, CA 90025 or Home and Hospice Care of RI, 1085 North Main St., Providence, RI 02904. Shiva will be observed at Greenwich Farms, 75 Minnesota Ave., Warwick, Thursday 4-8 and Friday 1-4 p.m. For online condolences, visit ShalomMemorialChapel.com.
DUNDER, Fred

November 25, 2004. Residence: 16 Perennial Drive, Cranston. Beloved husband of Celia (Reichin) Dunder. Devoted father of Barbara Dunder-Forman of Cranston and Pamela Manekofsky and her husband Ron of East Greenwich. Dear brother of the late Nathaniel E. Dunder, Rose M. Cohen, and Faye Schachter. Adored grandffather of Evan and Jason Galkin and Ryan Forman. Cherished uncle of several nieces and nephews. Funeral Service Monday, 11:00 a.m. in TEMPLE SINAI, 30 Hagan Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to the Temple Sinai Endowment Fund, 30 Hagan Ave., Cranston, RI 02908 or Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, 50 Maude St., Providence, RI 02908. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Monday 7-9, Tuesday and Wednesday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston.

FRED DUNDER, 84, of 16 Perennial Drive, a retired optician, died Thursday at Philip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Celia (Reichin) Dunder. They had been married for 56 years. Born in Providence, a son of the late Morris and Pearl (Elbin) Dunder, he had lived in Providence for many years before moving to Cranston 46 years ago.

Mr. Dunder had been an optician for 65 years before retiring 2 years ago, and was a member of the Rhode Island Dispensing Opticians Association.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, serving as a medic in the Pacific.

Mr. Dunder was a founding member of the former Temple Beth David and a member of its Brotherhood, and a founding member of Temple Sinai and a member of its Brotherhood. He was also a member of the Touro Fraternal Association.

He was a graduate of Hope High School, Providence, and New York College, in Brooklyn.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Barbara Dunder-Forman of Cranston and Pamela Manekofsky of East Greenwich; and three grandsons. He was the brother of the late Nathaniel E. Dunder, Rose M. Cohen and Faye Schachter.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Temple Sinai, 30 Hagan Ave. Burial will follow in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
ROSE DUNDER

Funeral service for Rose Dunder, 70 of 73 Midwood Street, Cranston, who died November 10 after a one-day illness, were held Sunday in the Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The widow of Nathan Dunder, she was born in Providence, a daughter of the late Abraham and Frieda (Bloom) Milivsky. She had been a Cranston resident for the past 19 years.

She was a former credit supervisor at Gladdings for many years and had been recently associated with Providence Adult Education.

She was the president of the Rhode Island Senior Guild and a past president of the Credit Women of Rhode Island.

Survivors include a daughter, Beverly Pupa of North Attleboro, Massachusetts; a sister, Lee Goldberg of St. Petersburg, Florida, and three grandchildren.

11-17-77
Bennett S. Bud Dunn

MERIDEN - Bennett (Bud) S. Dunn, 78, of Meriden, died on Monday, Oct. 14, 2013, at Hartford Hospital after a brief illness.

Born in Meriden on March 20, 1935, the son of the late Robert and Ida (Miller) Dunn, he had resided in Meriden for all of his life. He attended Trumbull Elementary School, Jefferson Junior High School and Meriden High School, class of 1953. He received a bachelor of science from Teachers College of CT (now CCSU), a master of arts in liberal science from Wesleyan University and additional credits from Drew and Yale Universities. Mr. Dunn taught high school mathematics for 30 years (at Lyman Hall and Mark T. Sheehan High Schools). He taught the first computer science course at Lyman Hall in 1970 to 1971. He was the mathematics chairman and taught computer science at Sheehan High School for 14 years. He was the only computer science teacher at Sheehan High School for about 10 years. He taught demonstration computer science lessons to elementary and middle school students as well as computer science adult education courses in the early eighties. While working for advanced degrees, Mr. Dunn received seven National Science Foundation grants (two from Wesleyan University, one from Yale University and four from Drew University. He was honored to be inducted into the Sheehan Hall of Fame as only the second academics teacher to be honored. He was an avid New York Yankees fan.

He is survived by a sister, Barbara Cohen, of Meriden; nieces and nephews, (Donna) Beth Huntington, Marc R. Cohen (Lonny) and Paul S. Cohen; grandnieces, Michelle Kulas (John) and Anneliese Huntington; grandnephews, Erik Merliss (Elizabeth), Bryan Cohen (Heather), Nathaniel Fish (Michelle), Jeremiah Huntington and Andrew Cohen (Kathrin); great-grandnieces and great-grandnephews, Justin and Rebecca Kulas, Alyssa, Devon and Abby Rose Cohen and Erik Paul Merliss. He is also survived by dear friends, William and Mary Hilliker.

The funeral will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 16, at 11 a.m. at Temple B’Nai Abraham, 127 E. Main St., Meriden with Rabbi Michael Kohn officiating. Burial will be in B’Nai Abraham Cemetery. Arrangements are under the direction of the John J. Ferry & Sons Funeral Home, 88 E. Main St., Meriden, CT 06450. For online condolences and directions please visit

Published in The Record-Journal on Oct. 15, 2013

http://mail.aol.com/38099-111/aol-6/en-us/mail/PrintMessage.aspx 10/15/2013
BENNETT DUNN

Bennett Dunn, one of the most prominent early Jewish settlers of Providence, passed away at his late residence in that city, 5 Hewes St., Saturday morning, March 20, after a brief illness, at the age of seventy-five.

Mr. Dunn was born in Vilna, Russia, and emigrated to this country with his family about thirty-five years ago, settling in Massachusetts, where he resided until 1898, when his wife died. He then moved to Providence, where he has been ever since, engaged in teaching Hebrew. His many pupils, many of whom are now successful business men and professional men, exceedingly regret the loss.

He remarried in 1900 and is survived by his widow, two sons, Benjamin and Albert Dunn of Revere and Malden, respectively, and three daughters, Bessie Gorsun of Somerville, and Gertrude Robinson and Rebecca Dunn of Providence, and seventeen grandchildren.

The funeral was held Sunday, and was largely attended. Interment was in the Lincoln Park Cemetery.
JEANETTE DUNN

WOONSOCKET — Jeanette (Matzner) Dunn, 78, of Diamond Hill Road, died March 13 in the Coolidge House, Brookline, Mass. She was the wife of the late Robert N. Dunn, who died in 1974.

Born March 1, 1917, in Providence, a daughter of the late Henry and Rosa (Donath) Matzner, she lived more than 50 years in Woonsocket.

She was a member of Congregation B’nai Israel, its Sisterhood and Hadassah.

She is survived by two daughters, Barbara Silverstein and Debora Rottenberg, both of Newton, Mass., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service was held March 15 at Congregation B’nai Israel, Prospect Street. Burial was in B’nai Israel Cemetery. Arrangements were under the direction of the Chevra Kaddisha and the Holt Funeral Home, 510 South Main St.
Leo Dunn

WOONSOCKET — Leo Dunn, 83, of 58 Harrison Ave., a machinist at Nel-Mor Co., Uxbridge, Mass., before retiring in 1973, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Sadie C. (Cooper) Dunn.

Born in Woonsocket, he was a son of the late David and Rachel (Morgenstern) Dunn.

Mr. Dunn was a machinist at the former Taft-Pierce Mfg. Co. and a maître d' at the former Chick's Cafe. He was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel. He was a Navy veteran of World War II, serving in the Seabees.

Besides his wife he leaves a sister, Anne Dunn Cohen of Woonsocket; and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at B'nai Israel Synagogue, 224 Prospect St. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery.
SADIE DUNN, 90, of 58 Harrison Ave., a clerk at the former Korenstein's in Woonsocket, died yesterday at the Oakland Grove Health Care Center. She was the wife of the late Leo Dunn.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., a daughter of the late Samuel and Bessie (Brown) Cooper, she had lived in Woonsocket for 61 years.

Mrs. Dunn had been a member of Congregation B'Nai Israel-Hadassah and its Sisterhood.

She leaves two sisters-in-law, Ann Dunn Cohen of Woonsocket and Leah Cooper of Trumbull, Conn.; and several nieces and nephews. She was the sister of the late Nathan, Morris and Harold Cooper.

The funeral will be held today at 2 p.m. in Congregation B'nai Israel, Prospect Street. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery.
Edith Dushinsky

PROVIDENCE — Edith Dushinsky, 90, of Smith St., died yesterday at the Roger Williams Hospital.

She was born in Germany and came to Providence in 1928, where she was a governess for 40 years until retiring.

She was a volunteer worker at the Miriam Hospital Coffee Shop and was recognized by the hospital several times for her many years of volunteer service.

Funeral services will be held at 2:15 p.m. today at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be private.

DUSHINSKY, Edith
July 17, 1991. Residence: 243 Smith St. Funeral services 2:15 p.m. Thursday at MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope St. Friends are invited. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to The Department of Volunteers at Miriam Hospital.

DUSHINSKY, Edith
ROY DUSKIN

PROVIDENCE - Roy Duskin, 76, of 66 University Ave, manager of the former Kay's Newport shoe store at Wayland Square for 15 years where he had been employed for 45 years, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Sue (Green) Duskin. He lived in Providence more than 65 years. He was a member of the Jewish War Veterans of America. He was a lifetime dance instructor for 40 years and was active in many other organizations. He was a veteran of World War I and the Second World War. He was a son of the late Louis and Besse Duskin. He was accompanied by his wife in the last 20 years.

The funeral service will be Monday at 11 a.m. from Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be at Lincoln Park Cemetery, W. Warwick.

DUSKIN, Roy
DUSKIN, Sue (Green) 1915

July 30, 1994; Beloved wife of the late Roy Duskin. Residence: 68 University Ave. Funeral Service 11 a.m. Wednesday at MOUNT SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 825 Hope St., Providence.

In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to your favorite charity.

DUSKIN, Sue

Sue Duskin, 79, of 68 University Ave., Providence, died at her residence on July 30. She was the wife of the late Roy Duskin.

She was born in Fall River, daughter of the late Joseph and Rose Green. She is survived by two stepsisters, Sally Fogel of Newton, Mass., and Helen Cohen of San Diego, Calif.

A graveside funeral service took place Aug. 3 at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. The service was coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.

RIHER 8-11-94

SUE DUSKIN

PROVIDENCE — Sue Duskin, 79, of 68 University Ave., Providence, died at her residence on July 30. She was the wife of the late Roy Duskin.

She was born in Fall River, daughter of the late Joseph and Rose Green. She is survived by two stepsisters, Sally Fogel of Newton, Mass., and Helen Cohen of San Diego, Calif.

A graveside funeral service took place Aug. 3 at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. The service was coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence.

Jennie (Jean) Dwares, 100

ENCINITAS, CALIF. - Jennie (Jean) (Can; s) Dwares, formerly of Pawtucket and Providence, died on Oct. 7 at Seacrest Village Retirement Residence in Encinitas, Calif. She celebrated her 100th birthday in August.

She was born in Lawrence, Mass. When she moved to Rhode Island, she founded Keene Advertising Specialties of R.I., where she worked for many years until her retirement.

She was preceded in death by her husband Philip N. Dwares, her parents Ida and Max Caras and her siblings Esther (Caras) Kesselman, and Samuel and Ernest Caras.

She is survived by her son Leonard Dwares and his wife Ellin of Wilmington, Del., and her daughter Brenda (Dwares) Burkholder and her husband Franz of Carlsbad, Calif. Jennie is also survived by her four grandchildren and her six great-grandchildren.
DWARES, ELEANOR, 95, of Steere House, died Tuesday, Feb. 5, at the House. She was the beloved wife of the late William Dwares.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late John and Sarah Sweet, she was a lifelong Providence resident. Devoted mother of Elaine Creem and her husband, David, of North Providence, Michael Dwares and his wife, Sandra, of Portsmouth, and Beth Weiss and her husband, Steven, of Stamford, CT. Dear sister of Frances Perlow of Providence, Helene Izen of Chestnut Hill, MA, and the late Dr. Gustav Sweet, her late twin, Evelyn Wax, and the late Dr. Morris Sweet. Loving grandmother of Bill, Patty, John, Sofia, and Jane. Cherished great grandmother of Kate and Emma.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at 1:00 p.m. in SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to the American Lung Association in Wisconsin, 13100 West Lisbon Rd., Ste. 700, Brookfield, WI 53005. Shiva will be observed at the home of Elaine and David Creem, 92C Nipmuc Tr., North Providence, Thurs. 7-9 and Fri. 2-4 p.m.
Marc Adam Dwares, 22, of Harian Road, died yesterday at home after a one-year illness.

A lifelong resident of Providence, he was a son of Donald and Bonnie (Sachs) Dwares of Providence. Mr. Dwares was a 1994 graduate of Moses Brown and a 1998 graduate of American University, Washington, D.C.

While attending college, he interned at the investment banking firm of Moors and Cabot, Washington. During his summers, he worked at the Slater Co., Pawtucket.

He was a member of Zeta Beta Tau Fraternity, the Moses Brown Alumni Association and Temple Emanu-El.

Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, David Dwares of Philadelphia.

The funeral will be held tomorrow at noon in Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
MAX GOLD DWARES, 20, of 60 Packard St., a student at Rhode Island College, Providence, died yesterday at Hasbro Children’s Hospital, Providence, after an illness.

Born in Providence, a son of Kevin D. and Barbara R. (Gold) Dwares, he had lived in Providence before moving to Cranston 18 years ago.

A 2001 graduate of both Cranston West High School and the Harry Elkin Midrasha, he had been attending Rhode Island College.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El, Providence, and Temple Am-David, Warwick, and was involved with many programs at both temples.

A member of VICA and a volunteer for the Tomorrow Fund at Hasbro Children's Hospital and Travelers Aid, he once made 1,555 peanut-butter-and-jelly sandwiches in a day.

He wrote for the Rhode Island College newspaper, and was writing his biography with author Lev Poplo. His battle with leukemia had been chronicled in a number of Providence Journal columns.

Besides his parents, he leaves a brother, Jacob Gold Dwares, at home, and his paternal grandmother, Shirley Gold Dwares, and his maternal grandparents, Sumner and Estelle Gold, all of Warwick.

A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. in Temple Am-David, 40 Gardiner St., Warwick. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
PHILIP DWARES, 86, of 589 Sutton Place, Long Boat Key, Fla., founder and proprietor of the former Dwares Provision Co. and Washington Beef Co., both in Pawtucket, before retiring 30 years ago, died Sept. 12 in Sarasota Health Care Center, Sarasota, Fla. He was the husband of Jennie "Jean" (Caras) Dwares.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Louis and Ida (Sklar) Dwares, he lived in East Providence for 18 years before moving to Florida five months ago. He had previously lived in Providence, Pawtucket and the Boston area.

Mr. Dwares was a member of Congregation Ohawe Sholom, Pawtucket. He was a 50-year member of the Knights of Pythias. He was a member of B'nai B'rith, Roosevelt Lodge 42, F&AM, Palestine Shrine and the Majestic and Cranston Senior Guilds.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Leonard Dwares of Wilmington, Del.; a daughter, Brenda Burkholder of Long Boat Key; a sister, Bess Slate of Belmont, Mass.; and four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A private graveside service was held yesterday at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.
ROSE DWARES
PROVIDENCE — Rose Dwares, 83, of 670 N. Main St., died Saturday, December 15, 1990, at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Louis Dwares.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late David and Dora (Speigel) Konopky, she had also lived in Cranston.

She leaves three brothers,
Louis Kanopkin of Pawtucket,
Benjamin Kanopky of Gloucester, and William Kanopkin of Providence; a sister, Bella Harriet of Providence; and four grandchildren.

The graveside service was private. Arrangements by the Sugarman-Smith Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope Street.
STEVEN DWARES

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Steven Dwares, 41, of New York City, formerly of Providence, a philosophy teacher and social activist, died Nov. 11 at home.

Born in Providence, a son of Rosalyn (Kremer) Sinclair and adopted son of Joseph Sinclair of Providence and Narragansett, and the son of the late Milton L. Dwares, he lived in New York for 15 years, previously living in Providence.

He was a 1978 graduate of Brown University. He was a teacher and student of Eastern philosophy. In New York City, he was an activist and advocate for several social programs.

Besides his parents, he leaves a sister, Sarah Sinclair Scoliard of Providence, and three step-sisters, Sherry Pederson of Fresno, Calif., Lani Sinclair of Takoma Park, Md., and Jodie Sinclair of Boston.

The funeral and burial were private. Arrangements were by the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence.
DWORKIS, FREDA, 94, a lifelong Providence resident, died Thursday at Orchard View Manor in East Providence. She was the beloved wife of the late Myles Dworkis.

Freda was the devoted daughter of the late Max and Sara (Sentilwitz) Wexler. Loving mother of Leonard Dworkis of Ocoee, FL and Phyllis Rabb of Boca Raton, FL. Cherished grandmother of 5. Adored great-grandmother of 4.

Freda was the youngest of 5 siblings who predeceased her. A graveside funeral service will be held Sunday at 11:00 a.m. in LINCOLN PARK CEMETERY, 1469 Post Road, Warwick. In lieu of flowers, contributions in her memory may be made to Make A Wish Foundation of RI, 757 Park Ave., Cranston, RI 02910. Shiva will be private. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.
North Providence

ROSE DWORIN, 94, of Hopkins Manor, 610 Smithfield Rd., died yesterday at Phillip Hulitar Inpatient Center, Providence.

She was the wife of the late Isadore Dworkin.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.

Dworkin, Born in Manhattan, New York, a daughter of the late Jacob and Dora (Leibowitz) Cohen, she had lived in Providence and Pawtucket before moving to North Providence a year ago.

She was a member of the Women’s Auxiliary of Miriam Hospital, and a former member of Congregation Mishkon T’Filoh Synagogue.

She leaves two daughters, Cynthia Schwartz of Hollywood, Fla., and Marcia Perry of Warwick, and five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Harry Cohen, Celia Katz and Bluma Peris.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
Myles Dworkis, 89, of 1 Regency Plaza, a production worker for 15 years for Sealol, in Cranston, before retiring, died yesterday at home. He was the husband of Freda (Wexler) Dworkis.

Born in Salem, Mass., a son of the late Carl and Lena (Kaplan) Dworkis, he lived in Providence most of his life.

Mr. Dworkis was a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged and the South Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Phyllis Rabb of Boca Raton, Fla.; a son, Leonard Dworkis of Orlando, Fla.; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. He was the grandfather of the late Michelle Rabb.

A graveside service will be held at noon on Monday in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.

DWORKIS, Myles
Irving Dworman

PAWTUCKET — Irving Dworman, 62, of 50 Blaisdell Ave., a salesman, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after a four-month illness. He was the husband of Beatrice (Gilden) Dworman.

Born in Worcester, a son of the late Jacob and Anna (Kaze) Dworman, he lived in Pawtucket for 31 years.

Mr. Dworman worked for Builders Specialties for the past 10 years. Before that he owned the former Arch Lumber Co. in Cranston and Warwick for many years. He was a World War II Army Air Force veteran. He was a member of the Touro Fraternal Association, the Rebak-Winsten Post of the Jewish War Veterans and the Providence Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Amy L. Dworman of Providence, Tracy E. Dworman of Pawtucket, and a brother, Archie Dworman of Bloomfield, Conn.

A funeral service will be held today at 2 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Olida M. Mathias
PROVIDENCE — Sonia Dwyer, 93, of 192 Indiana Ave., Providence, died Nov. 9 at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the wife of the late Harry Dwyer.

Born in Lodz, Poland, a daughter of the late Samuel and Barbara Shorakofski, she lived in Providence for more than 60 years, previously living in New York City.

She leaves three sons, Thomas Dwyer of Jessup, Md., Joseph Dwyer of Boston, and Seymour Rosen of Haydenville, Mass.; a daughter, Barbara Feldstein in Florida; 13 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Patricia Roberts.

Burial was in the Rhode Island Veterans Cemetery, Exeter. The family was assisted with the arrangements by Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence.
Jacob Dyckman passed away on May 31. He was born in New York, N.Y. on April 20, 1920 to the late Abraham and Rose Dyckman. He received his A.B. magna cum laude (1939), M.S. (1941), and M.D. (1944) from New York University. His long and distinguished career in medicine began as an intern and resident at Lincoln Hospital in New York City followed by residency in pathology at Mt. Sinai Hospital. He completed a postdoctoral fellowship at the National Cancer Institute and then served as Captain AUS-MC stationed at the School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Air Force Base in Texas.

In 1952 he became Chief of the Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine at the Miriam Hospital and held an academic appointment in the Department of Pathology at Boston University School of Medicine. He was appointed Assistant Professor of Pathology at Brown University in 1969 and became Associate in 1971. He was Clinical Associate Professor of medical technology at the University of Rhode Island. He directed the Anatomic Pathology service at the Miriam Hospital from 1970 to 1989 and was appointed Senior Staff Pathologist in 1990.

In 1972 he received a citation for "Outstanding Service to Community in Practice and Teaching of Pathology, 1952-1972" from the Rhode Island Society of Pathologists. He became Associate Professor Emeritus of Pathology at Brown University in 1977. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi, the New York Academy of Sciences, the New England Society of Pathologists, The International Academy of Pathology, the College of American Pathologists, and the American Medical Association. Throughout his career he published numerous peer-reviewed articles regarding anatomic and clinical pathology, and melanocyte biology, and instructed many physicians, residents, and medical students.

He is survived by his children Howard L. Dyckman, Sharon Dyckman Meller and husband Menachem Meller, and Daniel J. Dyckman and wife Judith L. Bachman, and seven grandchil-
AVRORA DYMERETS

PROVIDENCE — Avrora Dymerets, 64, of 8 George St., who worked for the public transportation authority in her native Russia for more than 40 years, died Jan. 4 at the Berkshire Place Nursing Home in Providence. She was the wife of the late Arkadey Dymerets.

Born in Russia, a daughter of the late Saveley and Rachel (Furman) Sherman, she had lived in Pawtucket for three years, previously living in Providence.

She leaves a daughter, Irina Buytman of North Providence, a granddaughter, Alina and a great-grandson, Anton.

The funeral was held Jan. 5 at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial was in the Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.