William J. Dannin

Lifelong Middletown resident was a past president of Touro Synagogue
MIDDLETOWN — William J. Dannin, 72, of 2 Seaboard Court, died yesterday at the Newport Hospital after a short illness. He was the husband of Nan (Berkowitz) Dannin.

Born Jan. 5, 1907, a son of the late Joseph and Lena (Adler) Dannin, he was a lifelong resident of Middletown.

Mr. Dannin was formerly comptroller of Louis Hand Curtain Co. in Fall River, Mass., until 1971. From then until his death, he was associated in the accounting firm with his son, Joseph A. Dannin in Middletown. He was a past president of Touro Synagogue and a former president of Judah Touro Lodge of B'nai B'rith. He was a member of the Kiwanis Club of Newport and was a 32nd-degree Mason. He was a member of the Ancient Accepted Order of Scottish Rites.

Surviving, besides his wife and son, are a brother, Morris Dannin of Middletown; one sister, Mrs. Rose Levin of Philadelphia, Pa., and three grandchildren.

His funeral will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Hoffman Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue, Newport. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery in Middletown.

DANNIN,
William
