

DAVIDSON,
Barbara

BARBARA DAVIDSON, 75, of Fishing Cove Road, died Tuesday at Miriam Hospital, Providence. She was the wife of Oscar Davidson.

Born in Boston, a daughter of the late Abraham and Helen (Tarnapol) Blotcher, she lived in North Kingstown and Lauderhill, Fla., for the last 20 years.

Besides her husband, she leaves three sons, Jeffrey Davidson of Nashville, Tenn., Peter Davidson of Greenlawn, N.Y., and Richard Davidson of Seattle, Wash.; a sister, Jacqueline Teverow of Cranston; and two grandchildren. She was sister of the late Robert J. Blotcher.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Sinai, 30 Haven Ave., Cranston. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park, Warwick.

PS-36-20-1996 -

DAVIDSON, Barbara (Blotcher)

June 18, 1996. Residence: 263 Fishing Cove Rd., North Kingstown. Beloved wife of Oscar Davidson. Devoted mother of Jeffrey Davidson, Nashville, TN; Peter Davidson, Greenlawn, NY and Richard Davidson, Seattle, WA. Dear sister of Jacqueline Teverow of Cranston and the late Robert J. Blotcher. Loving grandmother of Danielle and Nicolo Davidson. Funeral services Friday at 11AM at Temple Sinai, 30 Hagan Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the American Heart Association, 40 Broad St., Pawtucket. Shiva will be observed at her late residence, Sunday and Monday, 2-4; 7-9PM. Arrangements by MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.), Providence, RI.