

DAVIDSON,
Morris S.

Morris S. Davidson

Morris S. Davidson of 101 Gallatin St., president of the Barbett Photo Engraving Co. of Providence, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital after a short illness. He was the husband of Mrs. Eva (Fineman) Davidson.

Born in Russia, Oct. 5, 1890, a son of the late Isaac and Eva (Krasnow) Davidson, he came to Providence 56 years ago.

He was employed by the Journal-Bulletin for 16 years in the photo engraving department, leaving in 1926 to help form the Providence Photo Engraving Co.

Mr. Davidson was former secretary of the Photo Engravers' Union, a member of B'nai B'rith, the Miriam Hospital Association, the Jewish Home for the Aged and the Hebrew Free Loan Association.

Survivors, besides his wife, include two sons, Oscar L. Davidson of Pawtucket and A. Edward Davidson of Warwick; a daughter, Mrs. Martin Greenwald of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Saul Treistman and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held today at 10:30 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 458 Hope St. Rabbi Aaron Golden of Pawtucket officiated. Delegations were present from the Providence Photo Engraving Union and the Providence Journal-Bulletin. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.