Fannie Davis, ex-president of Jewish war vets' auxiliary

MARBLEHEAD — Mrs. Fannie (Paster) Davis, 96, 12 Mystic Road, died Monday at her home after a brief illness. She was the wife of the late Herman M. Davis.

She was born in New York City and lived in Lynn and Marblehead since 1936.

She was the first national president of the Jewish War Veterans auxiliary, having been elected to that office in the 1920s.

During World War II she was a volunteer for the Red Cross.

She was a member of Temple Emanu-El and a former member of Temple Beth El, Swampscott, and a member of the Kernwood Country Club, Salem.

Mrs. Davis leaves a son, Robert P. Davis of Marblehead; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be Wednesday at 1 p.m. in the Stanetsky-Hymanson Memorial Chapel, 10 Vinnin St., Salem. Burial will be in Temple Beth El Cemetery, Peabody.
