EAST PROVIDENCE — Edward Deutch, 74, of 300 East Shore Circle, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital after a brief illness. He was the husband of Bess (Rosen) Deutch.

He was the owner and operator of the Edward Deutch Uniforms of Providence for 15 years. He was a member of Temple Beth-El and its Men's Club; a past master of the Roosevelt Masonic Lodge and a 32nd degree mason; a member of B'nai B'rith; a member of the Jewish Home for the Aged, and a member of the Ledgemont Country Club.

He was treasurer of the Providence Fraternal Order of Police, an honorary member of the Rhode Island Association of Police Chiefs and an honorary member of the New England Association of Police Chiefs.

He was born in Providence Feb. 27, 1903, a son of the late Samuel and Dora (Cohen) Deutch, and had lived in Providence most of his life until he moved to East Providence four years ago.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Dr. Richard Deutch of Bay Harbor Island, Fla.; a daughter, Mrs. Herbert Field of Jamaica Way Tower, Boston; a sister, Mrs. Janet Blum of East Providence, and six grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. in Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence. Burial will be in Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.

DEUTCH, Edward
