MRS. MAX DIAMOND

Funeral services for Mrs. Ida (Sherman) Diamond, 80, formerly of 279 Ward Street, Woonsocket, who died Tuesday after an illness of more than two years, were held the same day at B'nai Israel Synagogue with Rabbi Pesach Krauss officiating. Arrangements were under the direction of the Chevra Kadisha. Burial was in B'nai Israel Cemetery.

She was the widow of Max Diamond, former operator of the Diamond Fruit Company in Woonsocket.

A Woonsocket resident for about 60 years, Mrs. Diamond was born in Russia on Aug. 15, 1883, a daughter of the late Harry and Mary (Feinberg) Sherman. She was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel, Woonsocket Chapter of Hadassah and the congregation's Sisterhood.

She leaves two daughter, Mrs. Arthur Melnick of Boston, and Mrs. Charles Kaufman of Pawtucket; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Performing the funeral rites were Mrs. Max Wasserman, Mrs. Herman Levinson and Mrs. S. Robert Sadwin, all members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Chevra Kadisha.

Bearers, all members of the Chevra Kadisha, were Jacob Yanow, Nathan Swartz, Nathan C. Goldfine, Alexander Brenner, Benjamin Macktaz and Aaron Block.

DIAMOND,
Ida
