

DRESSLER,
Janie

PJ 7-28-2000
JANIE G. DRESSLER, 47, of 100 Signal Ridge Way, a substitute teacher, died Wednesday after a long illness with breast cancer.

She was the wife of Barry Dressler. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Leonard and Frances (Alter) Fain, she had lived in East Greenwich for eight years and previously resided in Cranston.

She was a substitute teacher in the East Greenwich School District for three years. Previously, she was a purchasing agent for Fain's Department Store in Providence, her family's business, for 12 years.

Mrs. Dressler was a graduate of the University of Rhode Island, Class of 1975. She was a member of Temple Torat Yisrael, its sisterhood and its school board. She was a former treasurer of Myasthenia Gravis, and treasurer and vice president of the Rhode Island Jewish Bowling League.

She was a past president of Sigma Delta Tau, Alpha Beta Chapter, and was on the national board for one year.

DRESSLER, Janie G.
(Fain)

July 26, 2000. Residence: 100 Signal Ridge Way, East Greenwich. Beloved wife of Barry Dressler. Devoted mother of Meryl Dressler at home. Dear sister of Nancy Fain of Warwick. Funeral Services Thursday 1 p.m. in TEMPLE TORAT YISRAEL, 330 Park Ave., Cranston. In lieu of flowers contributions in her memory may be made to the Kent County Hospital Oncology Unit, c/o Development Office, 455 Tollgate Rd., Warwick, RI 02886 or your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at her late residence Thursday 7-9, Friday 2-4 and Sunday 2-5 p.m. Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 1100 New London Ave., Cranston ✓

She also did volunteer teaching in the East Greenwich School District.

Besides her husband, she leaves a daughter, Meryl, at home, and a sister, Nancy Fain of Warwick.

Funeral services were held yesterday in Temple Torat Yisrael, Cranston. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.