

DRESSLER, YVONNE

PJB 1-19-10

PROVIDENCE

DRESSLER, YVONNE M. (GOLDSTEIN), 84, died peacefully Saturday, January 16, 2010, at Hallworth House in Providence. Her funeral service and burial were held Sunday, January 17, at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Rabbi L. Gutterman officiating.

Yvonne was born in Providence, the daughter of Louis and Jessie (Namerow) Goldstein and was the beloved wife of the late Sidney Dressler.

Yvonne graduated from Hope High School, attended the University of Rhode Island and the Rhode Island School of Design, and formerly enjoyed a winter home in West Palm Beach, Florida. Though plagued with physical ailments most of her adult years, she found the strength to be active in many communal organizations in Rhode Island with her late husband, involving themselves in fundraising and charitable causes for many organizations. She was a vivacious and resilient woman, hosting many community-wide events for organizations, family and friends, and was considered the Pearl Mesta of her day, always finding time to express love and concern for her family and friends.

Yvonne is survived by her beloved son, Steven; her loving daughter-in-law Melaney Nichols, former wife of her deceased son, Robert; her dearest grandchildren and great-grandchild.

Contributions in her memory may be made to Home and Hospice Care of Rhode Island, 1085 North Main Street, Providence, RI 02906.
