Frank Dubinsky

PALM DESERT, Calif. — Frank Dubinsky, 90, of 73-373 Country Club Drive, head of the Chicago Annual Flower Show for 10 years before retiring 10 years ago, died yesterday at Desert Hospital, Palm Springs. He was the husband of the late Edith (Goldfine) Dubinsky.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Boruch and Anna (Rakatansky) Dubinsky, he lived in Providence for many years before moving to California 13 years ago. Mr. Dubinsky was also publisher of the Jewish Ledger, Hartford, and a writer for the Providence Tribune more than 50 years ago. He was a member of Redwood Lodge AF & AM.

He leaves two sons, Alfred Dubinsky of Palm Desert and William Dubinsky of Huntington Beach; two sisters, Lena Yosinoff of Warwick and Rose Krasnow of Fall River, Mass.; six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The funeral will be private.
