

DWARES,
Philip

East Providence

PHILIP DWARES, 86, of 589 Sutton Place, Long Boat Key, Fla., founder and proprietor of the former Dwares Provision Co. and Washington Beef Co., both in Pawtucket, before retiring 30 years ago, died Sept. 12 in Sarasota Health Care Center, Sarasota, Fla. He was the husband of Jennie "Jean" (Caras) Dwares.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Louis and Ida (Sklar) Dwares, he lived in East Providence for 18 years before moving to Florida five months ago. He had previously lived in Providence, Pawtucket and the Boston area.

Mr. Dwares was a member of Congregation Ohawe Sholom, Pawtucket. He was a 50-year member of the Knights of Pythias. He was a member of B'nai B'rith, Roosevelt Lodge 42, F&AM, Palestine Shrine and the Majestic and Cranston Senior Guilds.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Leonard Dwares of Wilmington, Del.; a daughter, Brenda Burkholder of Long Boat Key; a sister, Bess Slate of Belmont, Mass.; and four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A private graveside service was held yesterday at Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.
