

STEVEN DWARES

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Steven Dwares, 41, of New York City, formerly of Providence, a philosophy teacher and social activist, died Nov. 11 at home.

Born in Providence, a son of Rosalyn (Kremer) Sinclair and adopted son of Joseph Sinclair of Providence and Narragansett, and the son of the late Milton L. Dwares, he lived in New York for 15 years, previously living in Providence.

He was a 1978 graduate of Brown University. He was a teacher and student of Eastern philosophy. In New York City, he was an activist and advocate for several social programs.

Besides his parents, he leaves a sister, Sarah Sinclair Scoliard of Providence, and three step-sisters, Sherry Pederson of Fresno, Calif., Lani Sinclair of Takoma Park, Md., and Jodie Sinclair of Boston.

The funeral and burial were private. Arrangements were by the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence.

DWARES, Steven

November 11, 1996. Residence: New York City. Beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sinclair of Providence and Narragansett, and the late Milton L. Dwares. Dear brother of Sarah Sinclair Scoliard of Providence and step-brother of Sherry Pedersen of Fresno, CA; Lani Sinclair of Takoma Park, MD and Jodie Sinclair of Boston, MA. Funeral Services will be Private. In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to your favorite charity. Shiva will be observed at 30 Alton Rd., Providence, Monday and Tuesday 2-4; 7-9 p.m. Arrangements by the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (Cnr. of Doyle Ave.), Providence.

DWARES,
Steven