Harold C. Edelston

BELTSVILLE, Md. — Harold C. Edelston, 62, of 3123 Christine Drive, formerly of Providence, was fatally stricken Friday while on a business trip in Barstow, Calif. He was the husband of Gertrude (Chaet) Edelston.

He was associated with the United Way of America for nine years and, at the time of his death, was the vice president of research development and program evaluation. Previously, he was executive director of the Health and Welfare Council of Central Maryland. He was a member of the Labor Zionist Organization.

Born in Providence, he was the son of the late Abraham and Hattie (Rosen) Edelston and lived in Beltsville since 1972, previously residing in Baltimore from 1963 to 1972.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a son, Bruce S. Edelston of Annandale, Va.; two daughters, Mrs. Hattie Katkow of Columbia, Md., and Mrs. Marcia Scherr of Lancaster, Mass.; a brother, Marshall Edelston of Jackson, Miss.; a sister, Jeanette Bernstein of Cranston, and two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held Wednesday at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
