
Pawtucket

FRANCINE EISENHUTH, 39, of 114 Harcourt Ave., a cashier at Stop & Shop, Pawtucket, until a store accident six years ago, died yesterday at Memorial Hospital.

Born in Providence, a daughter of Leon Resnick of Pawtucket, and the late Shirley (Osofsky) Resnick, who died Sunday, she lived most of her life in Pawtucket.

She had previously been a clerk and computer operator for the Puritan Life Insurance Co., Providence and Cranston. She had been a volunteer worker for the Bruce Sundlun for Governor Campaign.

Besides her father she leaves a sister, Janis Corsair McGroarty of New York.

The funeral service will be held Friday at 11 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

EISENHUTH,
Francine
