Cranston

SAMUEL L. EISENSTADT, 89, of The Arbors, 687 Harbor Rd., Shelburne, Vt., formerly of Cranston, a retired teacher, died yesterday at The Arbors.

He was the husband of the late Mildred (Greenberg) Eisenstadt. Born in Bristol, a son of the late Morris and Sadie (Zelnicker) Eisenstadt, he had lived in Cranston for 48 years before moving to Providence, and then to Shelburne less than a year ago.

Mr. Eisenstadt had been a math and science teacher in the Providence school system for over 25 years, then had taught at Classical and Hope High Schools, retiring 23 years ago.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, serving in a construction battalion in both Europe and the Pacific.

Mr. Eisenstadt was a member of the Jewish War Veterans, Post 23, and the Touro Fraternal Association, and volunteered with Meals on Wheels. He was a former member of Temple Beth-El, Temple Emanu-El and Temple Torat Yisrael.

He leaves two daughters, Elaine Eisenstadt of Maui, Hawaii, and Susan Eisenstadt of Burlington, Vt.; and three grandchildren and a great-grandson. He was the brother of the late Sydney and Lester Eisenstadt.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
