

EISENSTEIN,
ARTHUR

PJB 4-10-07

 EISENSTEIN, ARTHUR, 89, of 38 Oaklawn Avenue, died Sunday at Cedar Crest Nursing Center. He was the beloved husband of Mildred (Kaiser) Eisenstein. They were married for 66 years. Born in Philadelphia, PA, a son of the late Louis and Reba (Freed) Eisenstein, he had lived in Cranston for the past 20 years.

He received his BA Degree in Business Administration with Honors from Bryant College. He was a WW-II Army Air Corps veteran serving in Guam. Arthur was the Adult Jewish Education Director at Temple Beth-El and was the Assistant Director at the Providence JCC for many years. He was a member of Temple Beth-El.

Devoted father of Judith Shope of Wellesley, MA and Kenneth Eisenstein of Ashland, MA. Dear brother of Charles Eisenstein and Rosalie Lieberman, both of Metuchen, NJ, Albert Eisenstein of Phoenix, AZ and the late Jack Eisenstein. Loving grandfather of Nikki, Michael and Nina.

Graveside funeral services will be held Wednesday at 2:00 p.m. in SONS OF ISRAEL & DAVID CEMETERY (Beth-El Cemetery), 401 Reservoir Ave., Providence. In lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Library Fund c/o Temple Beth-El, 70 Orchard Ave., Providence, RI 02906. Shiva will be observed at his late residence Wednesday 7-9 and Thursday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.

Arrangements by SHALOM MEMORIAL CHAPEL, Cranston.